Heppner Fillies take first league game

By DANA REID

The Heppner Varsity Fillies volleyball team traveled to Pilot Rock Tuesday, September 18 to play their first league game of the season.

Heppner went out a little slowly to start the first match. The Rockets started the match with the serve. Heppner returned the serve and the Rockets let the ball drop. Heppner took control of the serve and received the first point of the match. Heppner served the ball and continued playing slowly through out the match. The Fillies were setting up the ball and had some great bump, set, spikes. The match continued and Heppner came out on top at the finish with a score of 15-11.

Heppner came out fired up and ready to play the second match. The Fillies started the game by serving the ball and receiving the first point of the match. Heppner used good teamwork and communicated with the other teammates very well. Heppner started with the lead and held on to it. The Fillies were receiving fairly well and they had excellent sets and spikes. Pilot Rock called a time out with Heppner leading. The Fillies came back out ready to finish the match and put the Rockets away. The match ended and Heppner came out on top with a final score of 15-2.

Fillies lose a tight one in Boardman

By DANA REID

The Heppner Varsity Fillies traveled to Boardman September 13th to play their last game before the league games started.

Heppner came out of the locker room fired up and ready to play. Heppner won the coin toss so they started the match with a bad serve. Riverside then served. The serve led to the first point of the game by the Pirates. A good volley was played.

A time out for the Fillies was then called. The score was 14-13 at this time. Heppner played hard to receive the ball. They held the Pirates from scoring. Heppner tied up the match with a good serve but lost it and the Rockets went on to win. The match was played very well by both teams. The final score was 17-15.

My sincere thanks to all good friends for their cards, flowers, and prayers - to Doctors Jastak and Zimmerman, and the nurses of Holladay Park Hospital for their excellent care.

Also, to my daughters for their care and encouragement during and after my hospitalization.

Thanks too, to Neola and Charlie Mackey for caring for my house and yard during the three months I was away.
