

Weddings

Hickey — Connor

Deann Colleen Connor and Steve Benjamin Hickey, both of Pendleton, were married on August 4, 1984, at the United Methodist Church in Heppner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor of Heppner and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hickey of Pendleton.

The Rev. Susan West officiated at the double ring ceremony. The vocal soloist was Ron McDonald of Heppner with Carley Drake as organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chapel length chiffon gown which was accented by rose lace on the bodice and sleeves with a lace stand-up Victorian style collar yoke. Four tiers of lace at the hem continued along the sweeping chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a matching lace and seed pearl headband. The bridal bouquet, made by the groom's mother, was of silk, pink rosebuds, and babies breath.

Penny Connor of Heppner was Maid-of-Honor for her sister and Bridesmaids were Teri Moss, Portland; Judy Sweek, sister of the groom, Pendleton; and Norma Beier of Pendleton.

Steve Green, Pendleton was Best Man, Greg Connor, brother of the bride, Jim Clark of Pendleton; and Alan Simpson, Enterprise were Ushers. Eric Connor, brother of the bride, was candle lighter and ring attendant. Angela Gott, cousin of the bride was flower girl.

A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony. Assisting at the reception was Colleen Williams and Rose Gott, aunts of the bride, cutting and serving the lovely four-tier, fountain wedding cake. Grandmothers of the bride and groom, Mrs. Bernice Nash and Mrs. Della Hickey poured. Coordinator for the wedding was Mary Ann Palmer, aunt of the bride.

The young couple attended a Connor family reunion at the Connor home in Heppner on Sunday following the wedding, and the honeymoon was spent at Disneyland.

The Bride is a graduate of Heppner High School and the Linn-Benton Community College dental program. She was employed by Dr. Harper Jones, orthodontist in Pendleton.

Hickey is a graduate of Pendleton High School and Blue Mountain Community College.

The couple are now living in Corvallis where the groom is attending Oregon State University and is a member of the OSU Track Team.
