Lone's girls basketball team lost their opening game of the season to the Spray Eagles 26 to 22 on Tuesday, Dec. 4.
Each team opened the game with four first period points. Dawn Rardin had all of Spray's points.
Sandi Wright collected four second stanza points, while Lone outscored the Eagles six to two. The Cardinals led 10 to six at the break.
Spray came alive in the third quarter, gaining eleven points to two for Lone. After three, Spray was leading 17-12. The Cards took the fourth period 10 to 9, but still lost 26-22.
Rardin led all scorers with 15 points. Shelly Shreves added eight more for Spray. Wright and Deena Hams were the Cardinals' leading scorers with seven points each.
Lone made 10 of 34 field goals for 29 percent. Lone made one of two free throws for 50 percent. The Eagles made four of 10 foul shots for 40 percent.
The Cards grabbed only 14 rebounds. Wright had six and Kim McCabe got four. Hams passed for six of Lone's 10 assists. However, Lone had 17 turnovers.
"We played good defense, but threw the ball away a lot in the fourth quarter," stated coach Jocelyn Jones.
Lone played at Heppner, on Tuesday, Dec. 11. Lone will play at Condon, in the Condon Tournament on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 14 and 15. Lone's first game will begin at 4 p.m. on Friday.
