gall-Vice Chairman and Delpha Jones Secretary. The afternoon was spent in visiting.

The Holly Rebekah Lodge meeting was postponed last week because of the severe cold weather. It will be held at a later date.

Lexington Grange met on Monday evening for a regular meeting. Preceding the meeting a potluck dinner was enjoyed with Lyle and Virginia Peck as hosts.

The Christmas program was enjoyed with several vocal solos by Chuck Nelson, and violin solos by Frances Smouse. The Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court and their chaperone were introduced. Each girl told a bit about her life and the plans for this year. Each girl and chaperone was given a gift from the Grange. An exchange of gifts was enjoyed by the members, with the gifts being hand made. Popcorn balls were served as treats. The program was under the direction of Virginia Peck, the Lecturer.

The CWA group met at the home of Delpha Jones with a luncheon meeting for the regular meeting. Those present were Geri Martin, Joyce Buchanan, Jean Nelson, Hilda Yocom, and Virginia Peck. After the luncheon, a business meeting was held with an election of officers; Geri Martin-Chairman, Marie Stea-

Cards defeat Eagles 42-19

By ASHLEY CONKLIN

Ione's boys basketball team ran their record to 6-1 with a 42-19 defeat of the Spray Eagles on Friday, Dec. 21.

Mark Meyers tossed in eight first quarter points, as Ione tripled Spray's scoring output - 12 to four. The Cardinals increased their edge to 22-8 at the break. The Cardinals put in 10 second quarter points to the Eagles four.

Meyers sparked a 16 to four third period outburst that had Ione ahead 38 to 12. Meyers gunned in 10 points. Spray took the concluding quarter seven to four. Ione won 42-19.

The game's leading scorer was Meyers with 18 points. Randy McCabe added eight for the Cards. Brian Simons led the Eagles with 10, only two others scored.

For only the third time this season, Ione was outrebounded.

Spray grabbed 27 boards, compared to 25 for Ione. Mike Rietmann collected eight to lead Ione. Donnie Doherty snared seven and McCabe got six for Ione.

The Cards gave out 17 assists, while the Eagles had but four. McCabe and Jeff Ball dished out five apiece, and Meyers handed out four more. Ione lost 18 turnovers; Spray lost 27. Meyers had five steals for Ione.

From the field Ione shot 45 percent making 20 of 44 shots. The Cardinals shot only four free throws and made two for 50 percent. Spray made only eight field goals out of 34 attempts for 23 percent. At the free throw line Spray made three of seven shots for 43 percent.

Ione will host the Arlington Honkers on Friday, Jan. 4 at 7:30 p.m. in a key Big Sky matchup for both teams. Ione will travel to Cascade Locks on Saturday, Jan. 5 for a 7:30 p.m. game against the Pirates.
