Heppner loses 3rd game to Ione

By TRAVIS HYATT
The Heppner Mustangs fell to the Ione Cardinals Dec. 28 for the third time this season. Ione was without its top scorer Randy McCabe, but seemed to rise to the occasion leading 11-8 in the first quarter. The Mustangs stayed close in the second quarter but still found themselves down by three 19-16 at halftime.
The Mustangs looked very impressive in the third stanza, outscoring Ione 16-10 and took a 32-29 lead heading into the fourth quarter. Todd Lindsay scored eight points in the period.
Thanks mainly to the free-throw shooting of Jeff Ball and Mark Meyers who hit four out of five and four of four respectively, the Cardinals took control in the final quarter and were off to another victory. The final score was 45-40. Heppner fell to 2-5 for the season.
"I thought we were a little flat. We just played tentative," said coach Brent Eggers. "we did a lot of standing around, it was our worst job of offensive execution this season."

The Mustangs shot 37 percent from the floor on 17-46 shooting Ione was 17-41 for 41 percent from the floor. The freethrow shooting was the difference as Ione made 11-15, and Heppner was six for 11 from the Charity stripe. Mark Meyers had 21 for Ione and Jeff Ball popped in 12. Todd Lindsay led Heppner with 10 points. Keith Kennison and Jim Storm were the top rebounders with nine and eight respectively.
Ione: Rietmann 1, 1-4, 3; Doherty 2, 0-0, 4; Meyers 8, 5-5, 21; Ball 4, 4-5, 12; Douglas 2, 2-2, 6.
Heppner: Wilger 4, 0-0, 8; Lindsay 5, 0-0, 10; Currin 3, 3-5, 9; Storm 3, 1-2, 7; Kennison 2, 2-4, 6.
Fouls: Ione 11, Heppner 12. Fouled out: none. Ione 17, 11-15, 45. Heppner 17, 6-11, 40

Costa sworn in as mayor

Cara Costa (left) takes the oath of office for the mayor of Heppner Friday, Jan. 4 at City Hall. Former Mayor Cliff Green administered the oath. The ceremony attended by Costa's husband, Bob, son, Ryan, and mother, Ruth E. Baker of Mesa, Arizona, was held prior to the regular Monday City Council meeting.
About her coming term of office, Costa says that she is "looking forward to working with the council."
Green concluded that "I've enjoyed serving my years as mayor but after eight and a half years, now I'm ready for something else."

What's Your Opinion?

Question: "As the new mayor for the City of Ione, what is your new year's resolution?"
"I hope I can do as good a job as Linda LaRue has done," said Wayne Hams. "The only big project I can think of that we'll be working on is the road from Ione to Boardman... and I hope I can keep things going as nice and smoothly as they have been."
