Basketball game canceled

The Ione High School non-league basketball game which was scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 9 with Condon has been canceled. A spokesperson for the high school reported that Condon would be making up a league game which had been postponed.

Ione couple chair regional pest control conference

John and Jean Jepsen, Ione, chairmen of the three-day 36th annual Pacific Northwest Pest Control Conference review the schedule of speakers for the convention. The Jepsens have been working with Northwest Pest Control president, Bob Hart and his wife, Bette, of Pendleton since March of 1984 when they attended the convention in Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

The Jepsens and Harts have planned the convention to follow an Indian motif with special lectures on Indian culture shared by Inez Reeves and Louise Lloyd of Mission. The Black Hawk dancers will also perform for the convention. A style show will be presented by Milarkies of Pendleton and those who wish will be able to attend a tour of the Pendleton Woolen Mills.

The Jepsens say that the public is welcome to attend any of the meetings of the three-day conference, February 28, March 1 and 2 at the Red Lion Motor Inn in Pendleton. For further information, contact either the Jepsens, 422-7180, or the Harts, 276-2125.

Among the speakers addressing topics of chemicals, equipment, state and federal laws, grain fumigation, venomous insects, are Gordon Edwards and David Schneider, Velcicol Chemical Co., Chicago, National Pest Control Assoc. President, Vernon McKinzie, of Emporia, Kansas; Jeremiah Sullivan, representative of Degesch America, Inc. of Weyers Cave, Va.; Leonard Askhern and Zoologist Darwin Vest, from Washington State University at Pullman, Washington, and Vern Toblin of the North American Chemical Company.

Hughes enrolls herefords in program

William Kevin Hughes, Heppner has enrolled his head of Herefords in the Total Performance Records program of the American Hereford Association, according to an announcement by AHA officials in Kansas City.

TPR is available to all registered and commercial Hereford breeders. It is a system of performance record keeping, and is one of the many services provided by the American Hereford Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peck were Portland callers to help move Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jackson to Heppner. They are retiring from his work and will make their home here. Mrs. Jackson is the former Dorothy Allstott, sister of Mrs. Peck.

Several members of Holly Lodge attended the Rebekah District meeting in Ione on Saturday. Those going down were Virginia Peck, Joyce Buchanan, Geri Martin, Annetta Padberg, Dorothy Burcham, Delpha Jones and Hilda Yocom. President Sharon Magden presented Virginia Peck, Joyce Buchanan, Dorothy Burcham and Delpha Jones seals for the unwritten work. The next district meeting will be in Lexington with Virginia Peck as chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brown of Bremerton, Washington are the parents of a 6 pound 12 ounce son, Christian Paul Lon, born in January. He joins a four-year-old brother Robbie at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, Heppner, are the paternal grandparents. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Zamaritta of Orting, Washington.

Leila Palmer fell on Friday and broke her foot. She was treated at Pioneer Memorial Hospital and released. She became ill Saturday and returned to the hospital where she will remain for several days.
