Youth meetings address teen's concerns

Many teenagers wish their relationships at home with parents and others were better. "Home and how to make it a happier, more pleasant place for you and your family" is the discussion topic scheduled for this Sunday, 6 p.m. in the Fireside Room of First Christian Church in Heppner.

will discuss dating and "how it can be what it ought to be." Then, a topic which should be of concern to all teens will be discussed: drugs, the results they bring, and how to respond to the problem. "We hope you will join us for the Youth Meeting this Sunday at 6 p.m.," said the Rev. Shelton.

Youth meetings are held each Sunday evening. "This Sunday, we will be discussing how you can talk to your parents, and it may surprise you what you will discover," says the Rev. Don Shelton.

An special social activity is planned for March 2. More information about what, where, and when is available by attending the youth meeting at First Christian. The Rev. Shelton is available at 676-9209 to provide further information.

DMV to close for Feb. 18 holiday

The Heppner Motor Vehicles Division office was closed on short notice February 5, when the manager was required to go to Hermiston and work. A person was then sent from Hermiston to cover an emergency personnel shortage in Pendleton, says Gene Murty, manager of the Heppner field office.

The Heppner office will close again on February 18 for a holiday, and again on February 20, when the examiner goes to Condon.
