

Art show, sale, & drawing included in St. Pat's events

The Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts Club will sponsor an art show and sale from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in conjunction with St. Patrick's Day festivities Saturday, March 16.

The art showing and sale will be at the Les Schwab Tire Center showroom on Main Street in Heppner. The club will offer coffee and a variety of other refreshments during the day, said a spokesperson for the club.

Also on sale will be tickets for a chance to win the oil painting on display in Murray's window titled "Solitude" and painted by Pauline Matheny. Ticket prices are 50 cents each or three for $1.

The drawing for the lucky winner of the painting will be at 3:30 p.m. Money earned from the sale of the tickets will be used by the club to help sponsor the artist in the schools program.

Celebrate St. Pat's Day by dancing to live music

If you feel like dancing to celebrate St. Patrick's Day, be sure to stop by the Heppner Elks Lodge this Friday and Saturday where "Take 4" will be performing.

Friday night's dinner special "Harsh's ribs" will be served beginning at 5 p.m. Live music will follow. A Saturday night dinner special is also planned. "Take 4" is a new band to the Heppner area, so come give them a hearty Irish welcome while getting in the St. Patrick's Day spirit.

Slide presentation canceled

A slide presentation of Ireland which was scheduled to follow the Saturday afternoon parade has been canceled announced a St. Patrick's Day Committee spokesperson. Those who had planned to visit Ireland through pictures shouldn't have too much trouble selecting from among the other St. Patrick's day activities to ease their disappointment and keep them in the spirit of the day.

Some housing available

For those who arrive in Heppner to attend the St. Patrick's Day activities Saturday and Sunday and find that there "is no room at the inn," the St. Patrick's housing committee has compiled a list of people who will be willing to rent a room in their home or their RV for the night.

People who find that they are in need of housing should contact Jerry Hollomon at the Shoe Box on Main Street, or phone 676-3241. He can provide them with the names of people who have space.

Anyone in the Heppner area who has extra space which he would be willing to rent out to our St. Patrick's Day visitors for Saturday night can still get on the housing list by contacting Hollomon.

For those people who come to Heppner with their own RVs, parking will be available at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner where the restroom facilities will remain open all night. Additional RV parking will be available at the Kinzua parking lot.

Also for those visitors who come to Heppner with their own RVs, Northwestern RV Park on Main Street has offered to fill their tanks with fresh water and to dump their holding tanks without charge, all in the spirit of St. Patrick's Day.

Rodeo Court to ride in parade

The St. Patrick's Day Parade will be the first mounted appearance of Queen Bridgett Greenup, princesses Bobette Angell, Cindy Davis, Stacey Kennedy, and Sheila Sieler. Accompanying them will be their pennant bearers for 1985: Angie Ashbeck, Nancy Bailey, Lori Cecil, Sheila Coe, and Kristi O'Brien.

The court and pennant bearers met March 3 at the fairgrounds for an all day session about personal grooming, speaking, better posture and special riding technique.

The girls were instructed by Becky Evans, Sue Evans, Terry Gentry, Evelyn Sweek and a representative for a cosmetic firm.
