

Judge Kilkenny honored as parade grand marshal

John F. Kilkenny was born October 26, 1901, near Heppner. After spending his boyhood on his father's ranch, he began his formal education in Morrow County public schools and Columbia Preparatory School in Portland. He then attended Notre Dame, graduating cum laude with an LL.B. in 1925, and after admission to the Oregon State Bar in 1926, he became an associate of Raley, Raley & Steiwer in Pendleton, where he married Virginia Brannock, their family now includes two children, nine grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

In 1959, Kilkenny was appointed judge of the United States District Court for the District of Oregon and in 1969 was appointed circuit judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. During his tenure as both a district and circuit judge

Judge Kilkenny is a member of the American, Oregon and Federal Bar Associations, serving as President of the Oregon Bar in 1943. He has also served as a member of the Board of Bar Examiners of the State of Oregon. Other legal activities include membership in the American Judicature Society and Fellowships in the American College of Trial Lawyers and in the American Bar Foundation. He has also served as a member of the Board of Trustees, University of Portland, from which institution he was the recipient of the University's Distinguished Citizen Award in 1972; Certificate of Commendation, American Association for State and Local History, 1973; Award for Preserving Historic Buildings, The National Trust for Historic Preservation in the United States, 1973; Heritage Award, Oregon Historical Society-

Aid in Historical Preservation, 1975; Charter Member, Honorary Council, Oregon Historical Society, 1975; Daughters of the American Revolution Medal of Honor, 1976; Doctor of Laws Honoris Causa, 1976, University of Portland; Trustee of the Oregon State Library and of the Umatilla County Library. He is also a member and former Vice-President of the Irish-American Historical Society. He is the author of Shamrocks and Shepherds: The Irish of Morrow County. The John F. Kilkenny Fellowship has been established in the Law School of the University of Notre Dame by his former law clerks and friends.

Recent awards given to Judge Kilkenny is the Oregon State Bar Award of Merit in 1981, in 1983, Honorary Lifetime Director of the Historical Society of the United States District Court for the District of Oregon, 1984; Public Law 98-492 of Congress honoring Judge Kilkenny by renaming United States Post Office and Courthouse in Pendleton as the John F. Kilkenny United States Post Office and Courthouse. The judge lives in Portland, Oregon and commutes to Los Angeles,

San Francisco, Seattle, Anchorage and Honolulu when the court is in session. On November 1, 1971, the judge retired and assumed Senior Circuit Judge status. In this status the judge has continued active participation on this and other courts.

St. Patrick's Day Sale

40% OFF

Any Necklace, Earring or Pin

Which contains a Green imitation, synthetic or genuine Stone.

The Hon. John F. Kilkenny

Pooh to march in parade

This famous bear may not be Irish, but he will surely put a smile in the eyes of area youngsters this week.

Yes, it's Winnie the Pooh, in "bearson." Pooh has scheduled an appearance at story hour this Thursday, March 14, beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the Heppner Library. All children are invited to hear a story and meet Pooh, who will be giving away free balloons and coloring books.

Winnie the Pooh is also planning to visit the Heppner pre-school Friday and to march in the St. Patrick's parade on Saturday.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY SALE

ONE ONLY STORE ITEMS

	REG. PRICE	ST. PATS SPECIAL
Microwave	509 ⁹⁹	$299 ⁹⁹
Washer	499 ⁹⁹	$389 ⁹⁹
Phonograph	84 ⁵⁷	$60 ⁰⁰
Gas Range	839 ⁸⁹	$609 ⁸⁹
Cassette Player	193 ⁴¹	$169 ⁹⁹
Boat Motor	660 ⁸⁶	$359 ⁹⁹
Raft	293 ⁹⁹	$169 ⁹⁹
Sabre Saw	89 ⁷⁸	$52 ⁹⁹
Flashlight Rechargeable	17 ³⁷	$12 ³⁷

Authorized Catalog Store

BBQ lamb dinner offered

An authentic Basque barbecue will be served at the Morrow County fairgrounds Sunday afternoon, March 17, from noon to 2 p.m.

Mario Zunirri will prepare the barbecued lamb out of doors and depending on the weather, people may be served indoors or out. Cole slaw, beans, and bread will round out the meal.

Advanced tickets are on sale at Central Market, Court Street Market, Murray's Drug Store, and Farley's Motor Co. in Heppner. Advance ticket prices are $6.50 for adults and $4.50 for children 12 and under. Saturday and at the door Sunday, tickets will cost $7.50 for adults and $5.50 for children.