Great kids eligible for service awards

There's still time to enter the 1985 Community Service Awards competition for Great Kids. Entry forms are available at the Gazette-Times office in Heppner.

In 1984, 10 individuals and four groups received the Tom McCall Award for community service. They were honored in person at a picnic at the Washington Park Zoo, and on the Great Kids television special for their outstanding volunteer efforts - efforts which included training guide dog puppies for the blind, painting skid road hotels, starting a state-wide campaign to restore the pioneer statue on the Oregon Capitol building, and encouraging the appreciation of great music. Thirty Certificates of Merit were awarded for exceptional efforts.

The 1985 Great Kids awards will be given in 12 categories including service to seniors, service to other youth, civic concern, cultural enrichment, improving the environment, and others. Recipients are
