

Student body officers elected

Ione High School Student Body officers elected for the 1985-86 school year are:

Front row from left: Michelle Beeson-secretary-treasurer, Kim McCabe-assistant secretary-treasurer.

Back row from left: Rod Taylor,

president, Mike Rietmann vice-president.

Not pictured are the 1985-86 cheerleaders: Michelle Beeson, Kim McCabe, Sabrina White, Katie Doherty, Jill Nelson, and Michelle Papineau.

Heppner High School Student Body officers elected for the 1985-86 school year are:

Front row from left: Andrea Ball-president, Lana Reid, secretary, Susie Martin-treasurer. Back row from left: Beth Ferrar-business manager, Chris McLaughlin-vice president, Theresa Lindsay-assistant treasurer.

Summer basketball camp slated

There will be a basketball day camp offered to girls ages 10-16 this summer, July 29 to August 2 according to Heppner High School's Head Coach Mike Rover.

The camp will be held daily starting at 9 a.m. and ending at 12 noon at the Heppner High School Gym. Coach Royer will direct the camp and members of the Oregon 7-8 Champion Heppner Fillies basketball team will assist.

The camp will focus on the development of basic fundamentals. Players will be involved in game competition and will participate in shooting, defense, ball handling, passing, and rebounding stations daily.

Cost of the camp is $35. Enrollment is limited to 25 players. Applications are available at Lott's Electric, Coast to Coast, Heppner High School, Heppner Jr. High, the Shoe Box, and at the Heppner Gazette-Times Office. Application deadline is July 5.

Scholarship winners named

The selection committee for the Carl W. Troedson Educational Fund has awarded grants-in-aid in the amount of $750 each to the following Morrow County high school seniors for the 1985-86 school year:

Heppner High School: Kelli Bergstrom, Mike Bergstrom, Sheila Coe, Trisha Mahoney, Jodi Mattison, Jodi Padberg, Stephanie Payne, Wanda Riley, and Renee Struthers.

Ione High School: Paula Anderson and Randy McCabe.

Riverside High School: Kurt Hellberg, Veronica McDonough, Kim Musgrove, Dwight Osborne, Mick Peck, Lori Phillips, Marsha Richmond, Brad Trumbull, and Jody Williams.

These grants are awarded from a fund provided by the last will and testament of Mr. Troedson, a prominent wheat rancher of the Ione area.

These students will be eligible to apply for renewal of their grants in the following years of their college or training programs provided that they maintain good academic standing during their first year of post high school study.

The selection committee consists of the Morrow County School District Superintendent, the pastor of Valby Lutheran Church, and the Morrow County Judge as specified in Mr. Troedson's will.

Award of the Troedson grants was announced at the recipient's respective high school graduation ceremonies.

Fair Books published in June

The Morrow County Fair books will be sent out this month. The Fair Committee urges everyone to read through it and to feel free to contact the superintendents to answer any questions. The Committee would like to have everyone enter something in Open Class this year.

There will be three contests for the public scheduled each day during the fair. They will change each day. The variety includes shoe kicking, nail driving, ice cream eating, frog jumping, and horseshoes.

Mycal Osmin has been making contacts for the Craft Village. Those who are interested in showing a craft may call Mycal, 676-5482. Craft items may be sold at the fair.

Morrow County Fair buttons will go on sale about July 1. They will sell for $2.50 which is a 50 percent savings of the regular admission price.

The next meeting for the Fair Committee and Fair Board will be 7:30 p.m., June 10 at the fairgrounds.

Local 4-H leader selected to state advisory council

Bill Broderick, a Morrow County 4-H leader, has been selected to represent Morrow, Gilliam, Wheeler, and Umatilla Counties on the Oregon 4-H Advisory Council, according to Steve Campbell, OSU Extension Agent for Morrow County.

As a member of the Advisory Council, Bill will work with other council members, youth, and business representatives in developing the overall 4-H education program for Oregon. He represents one of 12 districts which provide the needed geographic breakdown for truly representative statewide program planning.

IUCC sets vacation church school

The Ione United Church of Christ has slated Vacation Church School for the week of June 17 through June 21 from 9 a.m. until noon.

"Plans are underway for a week of fun and learning for children age three through those entering sixth grade," said the Rev. Cathy Barker, pastor of I.U.C.C.

Registration will be at 8:45 a.m., June 17.

Vacation Bible School slated

The Methodist-Lutheran-Episcopal sponsored Vacation Bible School has been scheduled for June 17-21. All children three years through sixth grade are welcome to attend sessions from 9 a.m. to noon each day at the United Methodist and All Saints Episcopal churches in Heppner.

Pre-registration is encouraged but will also be held Monday morning beginning at 8:30. Cost is $5 per child up to a maximum of $15 per family.

Those wishing to register their children, volunteer to help during the week, or to bake cookies for children's snacks may call Patti McAlpin, 676-9812, or Marie Lane, 676-5513.

Golf News

The following results have been submitted for Ladies Day, May 28:

Low Gross - Lois Hunt;
Low Net - Dorris Graves;
Least Putts - Dorothy Hawkins and Muriel Palmer;
Special Award - Mary Beamer.

What's Your Opinion

Do you think the new County budget cuts will help it pass? "no," says Martha Munkers, Lexington.

The annual HARDMAN REUNION will be Fathers' Day JUNE 16, 1985

Come and bring your friends, enjoy the potluck, reminisce past times and dancing.

Bring a dish of your choice and table service.

IHS presents awards

By ASHLEY CONKLIN
Ione High School held their annual spring sports and academic awards on Tuesday, May 21.

Tennis coach Barbara Collin gave out tennis awards to open the program. Lettering for the first time were freshmen Ken Snider and Sabrina White. Senior Mark Meyers and Sophomore Mike Rietmann lettered for the second time and senior Paula Anderson and junior Eric Pointer lettered for the third time. Snider was given the most improved player award.

Track coach Del La Rue then presented track awards. Sophomore Kierin Doherty and freshman Jim Beeson lettered for the first time; lettering for the second time were senior Eric Cook, junior Jerry Anderson, and sophomores Ashley Conklin, Deena Hams, and Chris Rea; junior Brian Douglas lettered for the third time; and seniors Donnie Doherty and Randy McCabe received their fourth letter.

Principal Chuck Starr gave out student council awards to president Donnie Doherty, Vice-president Paul Zinter, secretary-treasurer Randy McCabe, and assistant secretary-treasurer Michelle Beeson. Then, this year's officers installed next year's officers. Doherty installed new president Rod Taylor, Zinter installed new vice-presidents Mike Rietmann, McCabe installed new secretary-treasurer Beeson, and Beeson installed new assistant secretary-treasurer Kim McCabe.

Starr handed out attendance awards to Dick McElligott for missing only two days of school and to Paula Anderson for missing eight days of school in four years. Starr presented citizenship awards to Randy McCabe and Eric Cook.

Division III spelling awards were given out for grades 10-12. First, place went to Eric Pointer, second place to Mike Rietmann, and third place to Mark Meyers.

Business teacher Anna Morford gave accounting pins to Kim McCabe, Candi Rudisill, and Michelle Beeson. Receiving an accounting II pin was Randy McCabe. Beeson and Kim McCabe received participation certificates for accounting at the Blue Mountain Community College skills contest. Paula Anderson got a certificate from the skills contest in office machines.

Industrial arts teacher Marvin Peterson handed out a welding award to Rod Taylor and a wood-working award to Eric Cook. Receiving awards for successful entrepreneurship were Paula Anderson, Michelle Beeson, Eric Cook, Brian Douglas, Randy McCabe and Rod Taylor.

Receiving certificates for participation at the skills contest in recreational math were the teams of Eric Pointer, Chris Rea, and Paul Zinter, Ashley Conklin, Deena Hams, and McElligott; Jim Beeson and Sandi Wright; and Michelle Beeson, Eric Cook and Randy McCabe.

Also receiving certificates for geometry participation were Kierin Doherty, Eric Pointer, and Paul Zinter. Jim Beeson received a certificate for Algebra I participation.

Zinter received a medal for winning the national mathematics test in Ione. The computer team of Jeff Ball and Eric Pointer received an award for placing sixth in the Morrow County Computer Contest. Pointer also received an award from the American Chemical Society for being the outstanding chemistry student at Ione.

Peter Longway-Vince gave Spanish II awards to Patty McElligott and Chris Rea. Receiving awards for their work on the "Ionian," Ione's annual, were Deena Hams and Patty McElligott. Editors Paula Anderson and Eric Cook, plus reporter Eric Pointer, were given awards for their work on "The Cardinal," Ione High School's newspaper.

Longway-Vince gave out awards for the Odd Fellows United Nations Essay Contest, "The U.N.—Is This Peace?" Eric Pointer earned first place, Deena Hams gained second, and Ashley Conklin third. Pointer also placed second at the district competition and is an alternate to take a trip to Washington D.C. and New York. The V.F.W. Voice of Democracy Essay Contest, "My Pledge to America" was won by Mike Rietmann. For his efforts, he won $25 and had his speech recorded and played on KUMA radio station. Second place winner, Eric Pointer, received $15 and Mark Meyers, who earned third place, received $7.50.

Student of the month awards were received by Randy McCabe for October, Rod Taylor for November, Eric Cook for December and January, Michelle Beeson for February, Darla Davison for March, and Patty McElligott for April and May.

The "I Dare Your Awards" sponsored by the William H. Danforth Foundation awarded to two juniors demonstrating qualities of leadership in school, willing to face a difficult challenge, and fighting to achieve a goal were given to Eric Pointer and Rod Taylor.

Cheerleader awards were given to Michelle Beeson, Kim McCabe, and Rondi Tews.

Receiving an award for third place in bridge building at the skills contest was Jeff Ball. Also receiving awards in bridge building was the second place team of Kierin Doherty and John Scalf and the third place team of Eric Cook and Randy McCabe.

Donnie Doherty, Chris Rea, and Mike Rietmann got certificates for participating in the communicative poster at the skills contest. In the same event, Sandi Wright earned a third place ribbon and a McDonald's gift certificate. In radio Broadcasting, John Scalf received a certificate, Donnie Doherty a red ribbon, and Mike Rietmann third place. In writing for publication (newspaper) sports or feature, Ashley Conklin grabbed third place and a blue ribbon. Paula Anderson received a participant certificate.

Michelle Beeson got a white ribbon in bread baking at the skills contest. In cake decorating, Deena Hams earned a blue ribbon. In the same event, Patty McElligott gained a third place and received a plaque.

Peterson gave out two special awards. One of them was Jocelyn Jones, who was responsible for organizing intramural sports activities. The second went to Longway-Vince who received a plaque for "Ione's Best Newspaper—The Cardinal."

Panhandle Slim

FINE QUALITY WESTERN WEAR

LOOK AT THE LEADER Everyone else does!

And no wonder! Long lasting good looks come from easy care fabrics and a sleek, tailored fit. Find wide selections of 100% cotton fabrics and extra long shirt tails that stay tucked in expertly cut pants. Panhandle Slim, great looking western wear that's made in these United States.

Happy Father's Day Sale

Gardner's MEN'S WEAR

ONE DAY DRAWING WIN

Blaze King Woodstove

Tappan Microwave

25 Lottery Tickets

6TH Annual Parking Lot Sale

SATURDAY JUNE 8th 9-3

FANTASTIC VALUES ON OVERSTOCKS—ONE ONLYS—DAMAGED GOODS—SPECIAL PURCHASE

EXTRA SAVINGS ON Appliances Sprinklers Tools Faucets Light Fixtures

"lowest prices of the year"

* Sale prices on Blaze King for the month of June.

HERMISTON ELECTRIC & PLUMBING SUPPLY

Hermiston/McHary Hwy. Hermiston

567-3317

The Office of VALERIE B. DOHERTY, ATTORNEY AT LAW

will be closed

Mondays until further notice.