There were 81 buyers registered and 33 consignors represented at Thursday's market.

MARKET TREND: The market was steady with a good representation of buyers present. Cows and bulls were steady even though most packing houses report an ample beef supply due in part to recent beef imports. La Grande Livestock would like to thank all the buyers and consignors for their support of this weeks strong sale.

NEXT SALE: Thursday, June 6th featuring dry cows. Also to be held at La Grande Livestock will be an open consignment equipment sale on Saturday, June 22nd. Consigned equipment includes tractors, combines, balers, hay elevators, manure spreaders, drills, swathers, plows, rakes, flatbed trailers, pickup campers, powder & over till table and feeder pans, wire pens, and jumps.

Also don't forget the Eastern Oregon Livestock Show this coming week, held at Union, OR with 4 H horse classes on Monday and Tuesday, the 3rd and 4th Livestock 4-H and PFA classes Thursday and Friday with the Livestock Jr. Auction on Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m., also PACA Rodeo and Par-Mutual horse racing Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Plus a carnival on the grounds and a parade held Friday. That's the Eastern Oregon Livestock Show with something for the whole family.

To consign or sell your livestock to the market with the buying power, personnel, and facilities to market your livestock for "top market dollars" phone toll free 1-800-824-5296 or 933-2158.

Thank you,
