

Wrights' yard awarded

Oral and Marjorie Wright

The yard of Marjorie and Oral Wright has been chosen by the Lexington Garden Bugs for the June yard of the Month honor. The general neat appearance of the yard and the lovely flowers—pansies, marigolds, petunias, etc.—merit the award. Especially attractive is the large clematis vine covering the back porch. The Wrights have lived in Lexington for 13 years and are retired.

Cecil-Morgan reunion slated

The second annual Cecil-Morgan reunion will begin at noon, June 30 at Hat Rock State Park nine miles northeast of Hermiston. Everyone who is a current resident of the Morgan-Cecil area and everyone who lived in the area but moved away is welcome to attend the reunion, said a spokesperson for the no-host potluck. "Bring your pictures of the former rural schools in the area for reminiscing."

Garden Club projects recapped

Members of the Lone Garden Club met June 16 at Beechers for a no-host luncheon before their business meeting.

Plans were made for members to attend the meeting of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs in Pendleton June 17-19. Helen Martin and Loree Hubbard will be the official delegates. Jean Nelson will lead the welcoming song; Pat Pettyjohn will assist with hospitality and Helen Martin is in charge of dispensing badges. The members of the club have helped to make individual favors and center pieces of wheat for the 350 who will attend the Tuesday evening banquet. The club will cooperate with the Lone Centennial Committee by furnishing prize money for some of the contests.

Discussion was held concerning the flower show for Morrow County Fair. Most of the members will help in some way at that time. The club also voted to award a prize for the best exhibit in flower arranging in the Beginners Class.

Leila Palmer was empowered to purchase craft materials to be given to the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home to help with therapy.

The July meeting will be at the home of Jean Nelson. Helen Martin will give instruction on the best ways to prepare flowers and vegetables for exhibit at the Morrow County Fair. Members also will meet with the Heppner Club on July 17 to learn how to make a collage. This is one of the new classes for fair.

Following the meeting a number of the members toured Emmigrant Road from Cecil to Wells Springs. They saw some of the ruins of the Old Oregon Trail, the marker for Colonel Gilliam at Wells Springs, and a number of mariposa lilies on the way.

Sharing program slated Friday

The Lone United Church of Christ Vacation Church School teachers and students will present a sharing program for families and friends on Friday evening, June 21, at 7:30. The children will sing and each class will share something that they have learned during the week. Refreshments will be served.

The evening begins with a brief open house so the guests may tour the classrooms at the Education Building. Weather permitting, the sharing program will be held in the yard; in case of bad weather, everyone will meet in the church basement.

Anyone interested in the work of Vacation Church School is welcome to attend.

Shower welcomes new arrival

A baby shower to welcome Brian Gutierrez, infant son of Barbara and Kevin Gutierrez of Boardman will be held at 7:30 p.m., June 27 at the lone United Church of Christ basement.

The hostesses, Dot Halvorsen,

Rikka Tews, Jean Jepsen, and Monica Swanson, say that everyone is welcome to attend. Brian is the grandson of Maryann and Lee Palmer and George Gutierrez, all of lone, and Helen Drake of The Dalles.

Women's fellowship to meet

The Heppner Women's Aglow Fellowship will meet Thursday, June 20 at 7 p.m. at the Episcopal Church Parish Hall.

Guest speaker for this dessert fellowship meeting will be Agnes Lonett of Hermiston. She is a pastor's wife, mother, grandmother, and the president of the Hermiston Aglow chapter.

All teenage girls and women of all faiths are invited. Anyone needing a babysitter may call 676-5471 to make arrangements.

Non-residents may enter open class

Persons living outside of the county will be eligible to enter open class exhibits with the exception of sheep and hogs at this year's Morrow County Fair, August 14-18.

All exhibits must be entered Tuesday, August 13 between 1 and 8 p.m., except livestock and flowers which will be accepted until 10 a.m. August 14. Release time for all exhibits is Sunday, August 18 from 2 to 6 p.m.

To obtain a Morrow County Fair Premium Book outside of the county, write to the Morrow County Fair, Box 646, Heppner, Oregon 97836.

Morrow County residents will receive their premium books in this week's issues of the Heppner Gazette-Times and the Boardman Enterprise.

Car wash to benefit court

The Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court will be washing cars June 22 at Cal's Mobil and Les Schwab Tire Center beginning at 1 p.m.

The court has just completed a successful bottle drive and appreciates the continued support of the county.

Queen Bridgett, Princesses Bobbette Angell, Cindy Davis, Stacey Kennedy, and Sheila Sieler and their pennant bearers Angie Ashbeck, Sheila Coe, Lori Cecil, and Kristi O'Brien will be ready to wash all cars this Saturday.

Adopt-a-Pet

This female 3-4 month old Airedale can be adopted for $1.50, the cost of an I.D. tag from the Pioneer Humane Society, phone 676-9719.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Visitors at the home of Ambrose and Marguerite Chapin for the Father's Day weekend, were Clayton Slyter and Doug Slyter, son-in-law and grandson of the Chapins. They had been vacationing at the Black Butte Resort near Bend and were on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor and Mrs. Lincoln Nash attended the wedding of Judy Hickey and Robert Murray at the Presbyterian Church in Pendleton on Saturday. Deann Hickey, daughter of the Connors was one of the bridesmaids.

On Sunday, Lincoln and Bernice Nash, Shirley and Dean Connor, Penny Connor, Eric Connor, Deann and Steve Hickey, met at Greg Connor's in Pendleton for a Father's Day get-together. They also celebrated the Connors' 23rd wedding anniversary.

Patty and Jim, Bob and Betty Lankford, Jack Lankford and Jo Borst, her son, Rob, and little Lucy, granddaughter of Patty and Jim, visited in Pilot Rock Sunday for Father's Day with the senior Lankfords, parents of Jim and Bob. They also visited with Mrs. Eleanor De Bok, mother of Patty Lankford.

John and Millie Hanna, and Jim and Patty Lankford recently returned from a trip to Victoria, B.C. It was a bus tour and crossed over from Port Angeles, Washington. On their way home they came through the San Juan Islands and visited in Everett and Seattle. They visited the Burchart Gardens while in Victoria.

Recent guests of the C.E. McQuarries during the weekend of June 9 were Keith and Susan Reisman of Roseburg, Clint and Marci McQuarrie's daughter and son-in-law. Keith's parents, the W.G. Riesman of Santa Paula, California also accompanied them. They all attended Keith's graduation June 7 from Eastern Oregon State College.

On Father's Day, Tom Gonty took his mother and father, Edmund and Eleanor Gonty, his sister, Virginia Blevins, from Ukiah, and her daughter, Pat, out to dinner in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lawson and son, Sean, have recently moved to John Day, where Mr. Lawson has accepted employment. Their daughter Tiffany, is staying in Heppner for the time being and is employed here. Tiffany is a 1985 graduate of Heppner High.

Mrs. Mildred Padberg and Mrs. Betty Tanner attended the Annual Reunion at Hardman on Sunday. They understood that there was at least 85 people registered.

Mrs. Betty Tanner recently visited in Traer, Iowa, and attended a family reunion in Hudson, Iowa. The trip was made under trying circumstances, with travel by Amtrack, bus, and car all being necessary. She reported fairly good weather, but with tornadoes forecast for the area above and below them on the map. She enjoyed lots of visiting and meeting old and new friends and relatives. The last day of her stay she had to get up at 4 a.m. in order to make connections for her travel.

STATE OF OREGON DIVISION OF STATE LANDS

NOTICE OF LEASING OF STATE LANDS AT PUBLIC AUCTION OIL AND GAS LEASING TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS AND LESSEES: The following described lands situated in Morrow County will be offered for lease by oral auction bidding under rules OAR 141-72-205 through 72-360. Copies of the leasing rules and the leases which will be issued are available upon request or may be examined along with other data maintained by the Division's office at 1445 State Street, Salem, Oregon 97310; phone 378-3805.

The auction will take place on Wednesday, July 24, 1985, at the Holiday Inn-Portland Airport. It will begin at 9 a.m. and bidding will proceed tract by tract in the same sequence as the auction notice until all leases in all counties have been bid and/or closed by the auctioneer.

Oil and gas leases will be awarded to the qualified bidder who offers the greatest cash bonus bid. However, in the event a cash bonus bid is not offered, a lease may be awarded to the applicant for the minimum required rental or, at the Division's option, any such parcel may be withdrawn until further notice. The successful bidder will be required to pay in full the application fee, bonus bid and the first year's rental of one dollar ($1) per acre within five (5) working days after the close of auction. Company checks, but not sight drafts, will be accepted. Each lease issued shall be for a primary term of ten (10) years provided, however, that drilling must be commenced within six miles within seven years.

The Division reserves the right to withhold any tract or tracts and to reject any or all bids.

All leases offered are subject to the following:

1. Rights of surface owners for leases of reserved mineral rights.
2. Compliance with State laws and regulations thereunder.
3. Stipulations required by the State Forester to protect timberland, water quality and existing timber operations.

HEDC Needs Your Help.

Vote YES on the city budget June 25, 1985

Heppner Economic Development Corporation urges your support of the Heppner City Budget. The proposed levy is necessary to provide basic street, sewer and water maintenance which has been neglected in recent years to stay within the 6 percent limitation.

We encourage you to review the budget documents at city hall or talk to your council members: Cara Costa, Mayor; Marvin Lane; Doug Lowe; Georgia Rathbun; Floyd Wilks; Bob Ployhar; and Chuck Holt.
