

Competition lining up for this weekend's W.C.C.C. golf tourney

By RON BOWMAN

With golfers coming from as far away as Tacoma and Cheney, Washington and Corvallis and Burns, Oregon the fourth Annual Willow Creek Golf Tournament for this weekend, June 29 and 30, has drawn its largest and finest field in its short history.

Treve Gray, defending champion of two years in a row has some stiff competition in this year's field of golfers. From out of town golfers with the best shot at unseeding Treve are: Mike McKeenon, Corvallis; Ernie Christiansen, Tacoma; Gary Alexanian, Hermiston; Don Slinkard, Prineville; Nick Rothwell, Burns; Ron Gray and Tom Stanton, Pendleton; John Wall, Bend; Howard Broussard, Lake Oswego; Scott Taylor, Gresham; and Rick Bordenkircher from Pendleton.

Many local golfers have been turning in fine rounds and also could slip in and surprise Treve. Some of who have a chance at low gross are: John Boyer, John Edmondson, Don Lott, Ed Hiemstra, Rick Johnston, Wayland Hyatt, Gary Watkins, and Ron Bowman.

The tournament gets officially underway at 7:30 Saturday morning with the first foursome going off the first tee. Tee-offs continue throughout most of the day.

All day Friday is free golfing for the tournament entries. Starting at 6:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Heppner Elks Lodge is having a special, followed by a dance, open to the golfers as well as the general public.

The weekend is capped off by a sole survivor contest consisting of the 20 low scores of Saturday's round beginning about 3 p.m., Sunday. Awards will be presented immediately following the contest.

The course is in good shape thanks to the efforts of Kit George and the scores should again be low this year.

The public is invited to come and watch and root for their favorite! One of the best fivesomes some people will be following around consists of Treve Gray, Ron Gray, John Wall, Mike McKeenon and Howard Broussard. I predict the winner of the tournament will be one of these five golfers.

The prizes for the four flights are first low net and first low gross - set of X-31 irons and hand made trophies by John Shaw; second low net and second low gross - set of X-31 woods; third low net and third low gross - golf bags; fourth low net and fourth low gross - two dozen Wilson-Ultra golfballs.

With everything but the weather set, I hope some people can come out to the course this weekend, see some fine golf and meet some even better people.
