CWA of Lexington Grange met with chairman Geri Martin presiding at the home of Jean Nelson for the regular meeting.

The devotional was given by Marie Steagall. The main business was the discussion for opening the Corner Stone at the hall since it is now 50 years old. Plans were discussed for getting pictures of the past Masters, framing them to hang in the hall. The next meeting is planned for Cutsforth cabin with a potluck dinner. Plans were discussed for a fair booth. A game was enjoyed with the prize being something a lady could give the husband on Father's Day. Marie Steagall won the prize.

The Three Links Club met at the home of Geri Martin in Heppner. Plans were discussed for a fair booth. An election of club trustees was held with three year - Joyce Buchanan, two year - Annetta Padberg, and one year - Virginia Peck. A committee to encourage members for providing bazaar articles is Annetta Padberg and Geri Martin. A money making committee required to make plans and appoint a committee for at least three money making projects are: Kathy Tellechea, Frances Peck, Annetta Padberg and Leela Palmer. Memorial dinner committee is Virginia Peck, Dorothy Burcham, Ruth Robinson and Delpha Jones. Ruth Robinson will collect or remind people of the canned food donations to be brought to club for the Neighborhood Center. Door prize was won by Leela Palmer. The next meeting will be at Dorothy Burcham's. Lovely refreshments were served.

Ralph Burcham is a resident of Amber Valley Nursing Home.

Joyce Buchanan who recently had heart surgery in Portland has left the hospital and will be returning home to Lexington soon.

Ada Piper is visiting her son and family, Mr and Mrs. Delbert Piper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hudson of La Grande spent the week at the C.C. Jones Ranch.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Boyd and Lois Redding, brother and sister-in-law of Alena Anderson, spent the Memorial Day weekend here. Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Dee Erdmann, was also a visitor. When she returned to her home in Portland, her mother accompanied her, and spent several days visiting and attending to business. Her daughter, Nancy brought her home.

Recent visitors at the Sara Adkins home were her son, Earl Crismon, and his wife, Edna. They spent a day here from their home in Pendleton, helping his mother with various odd jobs.

Elton and Florence Canoy visited at the Sara Adkins home this week. He is a nephew of Mrs. Adkins. Their son, Jack, his wife, Fran, and their son, Elton John, 16, met them here. Before coming to Heppner, the Canoy's had visited their daughter, Mrs. Wendy Stookey, in Albany, where her eldest son graduated from high school. The elder Canoy's were returning to their home in Alaska, after spending their winter in Yuma, Arizona, where they also have a home. The Jack Canoy's flew out from Oak Park, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago. He is a computer consultant, and his wife is a romance novelist. They all attended a family reunion at the home of Mrs. Stookey before coming on here to visit Mrs. Adkins. After visiting here the Canoy's all went to the Salmon River near Boise, Idaho, to take a six-day rafting trip down the river.

The fourth family reunion of the Irene and the late Garland Swanson family was held at Seaside this year from June 15 to 17. There were 26 present, which included all the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Those attending were: Denny and Joan Swanson and family, Kellie, Erin and Toni, who flew home from San Diego, California. Mike and Jackie Swanson and two sons, Danial and Logan from Buckley, Washington. The others mentioned above were from Auburn, Washington. From Redding, California, John and Kathy Swanson and daughters, Kristen, Kendall, and Jennifer. From Heppner, Ken and Jean Ann Turner.

Missy and Sandra, Lori and Wayne Seitz and Cheryl Turner, Hermiston, and Irene Swanson, from Heppner. From Ione, Jim and Monica Swanson, Luke and Adrienne.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Damon, and their son, Mark, were visitors this week at the Claude Graham home. Mrs. Damon is the daughter of the Grahams.

Mrs. Hazel Mahoney and Mrs. Ruth Nutting, spent the weekend in Redmond, Oregon, where they attended the High School Rodeo finals.

Visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant this weekend were her son, John and Jim Cason, and her youngest grandson, Scott Cason. Jimmy and Bert Cason, grandsons, are making their home with Mrs. Bryant at present. Mrs. Jim Cason could not be present because of illness in her family.

What's Your Opinion

Question: "Do you agree with the school board's decision to deny Tom Martin's request for an attendance variance?"

"In looking at this situation from a personal stand point," said Gail Papineau, Ione. "I feel that to allow all of the children to go to the same school would be best for the family and the kids."
