

Son of former Heppnerites Catches big trout at Willow Creek

Severn Anderson, 8, caught this 18 1/2" Rainbow Sunday, August 4 in Willow Creek. The fish weighed 2 1/2 lbs. and was caught with nightcrawlers.

David and Barbara Anderson and their three children have been visiting friends and family in Oregon for two months this summer. They are in the process of moving from Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic to San Jose, Costa Rica and will be leaving August 10.

David will be the Director of Research, Quality Control and Diversification for the Pineapple Development Corporation of Costa Rica, a Del Monte subsidiary.

Katrina, 18, graduated from Carol Morgan School in Santo Domingo and will be a freshman at Linfield College in McMinnville. She was awarded an Honors Scholarship.

Annissa and Severn will be a high school senior and a third grader respectively and will attend a private English language school in San Jose.

The Andersons were Heppner High graduates of 1967 and 1965 and are visiting Jim and Barbara Bloodworth and Eula Bloodworth in the Lexington area. They have also spent some time in Corvallis with LaVonne and Elmer Morford and with Nels and Esther Anderson in Dallas, Oregon.

Barbara Anderson is the daughter of Jim Bloodworth and LaVonne Morford and granddaughter of Eula Bloodworth.

David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson. He was the former Morrow County Extension Agent.
