Lauds Tri-County Home Health FFA'er returns from national convention

To the Editor:

Recently I utilized the services of the Tri-County Home Health Agency. I had been hospitalized at Good Samaritan Hospital for ten days with a staph infection in my left hand and I was discharged then only because these services are available. Oh yes, it is quite true that our physicians here in Heppner would be only too happy to check on the healing process of the incision - both Dr. Wolff and Dr. Koznek have always been more than willing to help me and this we (my family and I) really appreciate.

But very truthfully, I did not feel like getting out in this heat nor did I feel like "driving" to their offices and sitting even for just a few minutes. Also it is important for me to minimize my exposure to other communicable illnesses - so it has been more than appreciated by me and my family for "Nurse Robana!"

to stop by with her pretty smile to observe, treat, and dress the infection. We have found her to answer our questions and take care of the matter in a very professional way.

Those of us who have been hospitalized for any length of time know only too well than one does better at home around families and friends.

Those of us who are on Medicare - either by age or by chronic illness such as mine (hemodialysis) need to be aware of the services of Tri-County Home Health Agency and utilize them whenever possible or we may lose its availability - this would really hurt a lot of us. The services of Tri-County Home Health Agency are available to those of you on Group Insurance or Individual Insurance-anyone who needs skilled nursing care or physical therapy.

Sincerely,
(s) Ramona Marshall

Bristow's Market names winner

Bristow's Market of Ione has reported a $1,000 winner in the "Sky's the Limit" lottery game.

Thursday, August 15, Debra K. Tucker of Hermiston bought one ticket, a $2 winner which she turned in for two more tickets. The second one was the winner, John Bristow reported. It is interesting, he continues, "she didn't really appear excited about it until she shared the news with her companion, then she was really excited and filled out the forms to put in the mail right away."
