Weekend visitors of Mrs. Alena Anderson were her daughter, Mrs. Nancy McLennan, of Portland, and her granddaughter, Alison, Lisa, and Shelli Parent. Steve Korsneis, a friend, also visited.

Mrs. Darrell (Alvina) Padberg, Mrs. Joyce Breeding and son, Corey, were visitors of Mrs. Sara Adkins last week. They are cousins of Mrs. Adkins.

On Saturday after the parade, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Vinson attended the wedding of Lisa and Gary Green at Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of Heppner. She has been working at Taco Bell and he is employed at a mill in Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash had as guests this weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Jensen of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer of Lone, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor of Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hickey of Pendleton. They attended the fair and rodeo activities. Mr. Jensen is the son of the Nash's and attended school here in Heppner and will be remembered as an outstanding athlete.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson from San Diego, California, and his sister from South Carolina were here visiting last week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Norma Mullins of Stanfield. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Mullins are the daughters of Mrs. Oma Cox, former resident of Heppner.

Mrs. Mildred Padberg and her guest, Mrs. Cora Flaiz, drove to The Dalles recently for a family reunion of Mrs. Padberg's family.

Kristine Fishburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fishburn of Heppner, has been accepted as an exchange student at Winthrop College in South Carolina. This was made possible through an exchange program with Eastern Oregon State College at La Grande, where Kristine has been a student this past year. She graduated from Heppner High in 1984. Kristine flew to South Carolina and is looking forward to her year in the "South."

Scott Cason of Irrigon is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Bryant this week. Shawn Wilson and Frank Cason were previous visitors.

It will be interesting to hear the various comments about the combine Fair and Rodeo this year. The contingent of Morrow County cowboys was an especially good feature of the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lutz of Hermiston visited Mrs. Adkins on Sunday. She is a former kindergarten teacher here and will be remembered as Becky Tabor.

Charlie and Vickie (Sykes) Lewis and their baby, Anne, were weekend guests at the Sykes home in Heppner. The Lewises came to Heppner to pick up their son, Max, who has spent the last two weeks visiting the Sykes. While here they enjoyed attending the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo.

Mrs. Irene Swanson recently returned from a trip to Dawson Creek, B.C., where she attended the 50th wedding anniversary of her niece and husband, Hilda and Howard McKellar. Their four daughters had planned for approximately 75 guests and it became a reunion of family and friends. Many came from Saskatchewan where Mrs. Swanson was born and lived until 1919. While in Canada, she traveled to Prince George, B.C. which she found to be very beautiful. During her travels, she found the crops to be poor and the grasshoppers plentiful just as they are here. Mile Post "0" of the famed Alcan Highway is situated in Dawson Creek. It is interesting to note that this highway was planned by the U.S. as an urgent strategic move in the war with Japan and was built by the two countries. 10,000 soldiers were used to build the road. Since the war, the road has been taken over by Canada. After two weeks in Dawson Creek, she flew to Seattle, where she visited at her son Dennis's home. She enjoyed another trip to Winthrop, Washington and Leavenworth, which has been converted to a Bavarian Village, then back to Seattle through central Washington. The Ohme Gardens at Wenatchee were another attraction they visited. It covers nine acres and is beautifully landscaped. Mrs. Swanson flew home from Seattle.

We have a correction on an address. This is the correct one: Pvt. James E. McConnell - 542-04-4617 - Co E - 11 MP - BN - OST 3rd Platoon - Ft. McClellan, ALA. 36205.

Mrs. Nina Denton made a combined business and pleasure trip to Bremerton recently. It was mainly business, but she visited with her daughter, Carol, and friends.

Alfred Van Winkle and his wife Cecilia from Spokane were visiting his sister and family, Alma and Herman Green, this weekend. They also visited with other relatives while here.

Herman Green and Joe Green were honored at a birthday gathering recently. The two brothers have their birthdays on the same day. Their sister, Louise Hagerman from LaGrande, Mildred Lundblad, sister, from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Omer McCaleb (Ruth) sister, from Portland, Cornett and Florence Green, brother, from Heppner, Howard and Beth Bryant, cousins, from Heppner, Lawrence Green and Clifford and Cindy Green, sons, of Herman, from Heppner, were present as well as Alma and Nancy Green, wives of the honorees. The home of Herman and Alma Green was the scene of the party.

SSC Richard L. Clark, his wife, Shirley, and sons, Scott and David, and friends, Jim and Tina Miller, all from Alabama, were recent guests of Mrs. Inez Erwin, mother of Shirley Clark. SSC Clark is stationed at Ft. McClellan, where is as presently working as a drill sergeant. They traveled the northern route on their way west visiting the badlands of South Dakota, Mt. Rushmore, and in La Grande they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark, former Heppner residents. While here they attended a family reunion of Inez Erwin's family at Walla Walla. A sister and her husband came from Hoquiam, Wash., as well as other relatives from Pomeroy and Clarkston. As the Clarks and friends return home, they will go the southern route, through Portland, down the Oregon Coast, by way of the Grand Canyon. Both Richard and Shirley graduated from Heppner High School.

Frank and Kay Anderson celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Saturday at their ranch home. The party was hosted by their sons and wives. The guests were served a lovely anniversary cake made by Mrs. Dean Robinson, decorated with the wheat motif. This was served with champagne, coffee and tea. Shannon Miller and Trisha Halvorsen, nieces of the Andersons, presented them with a lovely centerpiece and they also poured the punch and coffee. A buffet dinner followed. Coming from out of town were Jim and Sue Valentine from Vancouver, Wash., the Jim Barratts from Spokane, Homer and Katie Hager from Hermiston, John and Ann Kottkamp, Billie Kilkenny, Trish and Mike Boylen, and Judge Robert Abrams, all from Pendleton.

Edmond and Eleanor attended the wedding of their youngest grandson, Robert Gonty, son of Ray Gonty, and Miss Deena Small of Seattle, this weekend in a Catholic Church in Seattle. On their way home, they visited with Thomas Gonty, Ed's brother and with Eleanor's brother, Charles Hemrich.

Jim Lankford, Jr. of Heppner and Mike Huddleston of Portland, have recently built two Raquetball courts in Mesa, Arizona. Jim is the son of Jim and Pat Lankford, and Mike Huddleston is the son of Tom and Garnett Huddleston.

Mrs. Mildred Padberg has recently been hospitalized in Pendleton and is now with her daughter and family at Canby.
