Sifting through the Times

The Oregon Dept. of Agriculture is proposing to make permanent, the temporary regulations restricting the use of high volatile esters of 2, 4-D in certain areas of Morrow and Umatilla counties during the period April 1 to September 1.

Congressional legislation will be introduced Tuesday to authorize construction of the Willow Creek Dam, near Heppner, aides to Sen. Mark Hatfield, (R-OR), said today.

Ione High School, which for the first time this year will field an 8-man football team, will play its first game Friday afternoon against Culver.

Heppner's mayor, Bill Collins, running an "out-of-gear" porcupine named "Wheat Germ" at Monday's international porcupine race at the Wheeler County Fair in Fossil, has loudly claimed since the race that he was sabotaged. The winner of the mayor's race, by the way, was the mayor of the host town of Fossil, Clarence Asher.

In filing semi-official protest, Mayor Collins claimed that all visiting mayors were given Gilliam county porcupines except the Fossil mayor and he drew the only Morrow county porcupine in the bunch. He based his claim on the fact that all entries, except the winner, headed straight for the Gilliam county line. The finish line, incidentally, was in the direction of Morrow county.

That extensive farm electrification in eastern Oregon is definitely out of the picture as a result of the Bonneville dam construction was the opinion of Colonel E.C. Robbins, government engineer in charge, who addressed a large assemblage of grange, commercial club and other organization representatives from over eastern Oregon in the Circuit Court room at The Dalles Friday evening.

Morrow County Woolgrowers auxiliary has innovated a free knitting school to familiarize women in the community with the art of knitting woolen goods, with the pleasure which may be derived from the art and with the satisfaction to be gained from the appearance and wearing quality of woolen knit goods.

Ice cream social brings family and friends to PMH nursing home

Saturday, Aug. 24, family members and friends of Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home residents attended an ice cream social and mini fair at the nursing home. Most residents also participated in "Olympic Games" receiving first, second, third, or participant ribbons for shot put and javelin competition. Three ceramic pieces made by residents were given as doorprizes. Other ceramic and beadwork items which earned ribbons at the Morrow County Fair were on display.

Etta Wilson, Harriet Batty and Dorothy Burcham donated money for the ice cream. Others donated cookies and brought ice cream makers for the event. Many staff members including Hospital Administrator John Hemple and Director of Nursing Sandi Hanna also helped make the event a success said Connie Hammons, activity director.

News from the

Neighborhood Center

Janet Phillips will be at the Heppner Neighborhood Center September 18. The Adult and Family Services worker has changed her schedule to 9:30 a.m. to noon and 1:30 p.m. on the first and third Wednesdays of each month, says Center Co-ordinator Pat Brindle. The changes have been necessary because of a "no overtime" restriction imposed on the agency for the new budget year.

The blood pressure clinic time has been changed to 2-4 p.m. on the first and third Tuesdays. The Block Home Program which regularly meets on the third Tuesday, will meet September 24 at 7:30 p.m. Applications for the program are still available at the Neighborhood Center Office and at Heppner City Hall. Some sections of Heppner are still without volunteers, says Brindle.

The Women, Infants and Children's feeding program is now held the third Friday of the month from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1-3 p.m. Clients need to be on time for their appointments, reminds Brindle.

The Neighborhood Center now opens one-half hour later, at 8:30 a.m.

Youth program begins at First Christian

The First Christian Church Youth program will begin September 15 at 6 p.m. A new and unusual sort of scavenger hunt will kick off the new school year. After the scavenger hunt there will be ice cream sundaes for all those present. The evening will conclude with a brief discussion. "You won't want to miss out on this fantastic opportunity," says the Rev. Don Shelton. All Junior High and High School youth are encouraged to attend. For more information call the Rev. Shelton at 676-9209.

EXPLANATION

Amends Constitution to limit sales tax to 5%, exempts home consumed food, medical services, drugs, utilities, real estate transactions, animals, certain farm supplies. Prohibits local sales taxes. Directs legislation for administrative costs, tax relief for renters and low income individuals, limiting state spending increases. Provides school district tax bases, limits annual increases and school levy elections. Makes other changes.

ESTIMATE OF FINANCIAL EFFECT

Medical costs, purchases of food and drugs, utility costs, rent payments, real property purchases, animal purchases, certain farm supplies and other specific items will not be taxed. This tax is expected to raise about $926 million in Fiscal year 1986-1987 for the following items:

- $701.5 million will be used to cut property tax an average statewide of 35 percent on all classes of property.
- $51 million will be used for renter relief.

- $19 million will be used to pay all or part of the sales tax paid by families with a total income of $17,500 or less.
