

Engagements

Nix — Wallis

Walt and Charlene Nix announce the engagement of their daughter Bonnie J. Nix to Jeff T. Wallis, both of Hermiston.

The bride elect is a graduate of Heppner High School. She is employed by Weaver Construction of La Grande.

Wallis is the son of Howard and Eileen Wallis of Stanfield. He attended Stanfield High School, and is presently employed at C & B Livestock of Hermiston.

The couple plan to be married December 14, at Our body of Angels Catholic Church, Hermiston.

Angell — Howell

Larry Angell and Bobbi Angell of Heppner are happy to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Bobbette, to Paddy Howell of Monument. He is the son of Clifford and Charlotte Howell of Monument.

Bobbette was a princess on the 1985 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Day, is a senior at Heppner High School and is currently employed by Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Howell is self-employed.

A November 8 wedding is planned at 7:30 p.m. at All Saints Episcopal Church in Heppner. A reception at the Morrow County fair grounds annex building will follow. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Community Calendar

Aerobic classes begin

Aerobic classes will begin next Monday night, Oct. 28, says instructor Joyce Hughes. Because Thursday is Halloween, the regular Thursday class will be held Wednesday, for this week only.

Beginning in November, classes will be held regularly Monday and Thursday evenings, advanced from 6:30 - 7:30 and beginning from 7:30-8:30.

DMV to close Thursday

The Heppner office of the Department of Motor Vehicles will be closed Thursday, October 24 while the examiner is in Hermiston. The office will be open regular hours Friday, October 25.

Heppner Council to meet Oct. 24

The Heppner City Council will meet in special session Thursday, Oct. 24 to consider a short term borrowing resolution to meet for the Senior Citizen Center, and a donation to the Chamber of Commerce for brochures.

Smith invites comments Nov. 1

Congressman Bob Smith R-Second District will be in Pendleton Friday, Nov. 1 where radio station KUMA has agreed to open telephone lines for a broadcast discussion of current issues from 3 to 4 p.m. Congressman Smith invites constituent to phone in questions and comments for improvement of Oregon and America.

4-H achievement night Oct. 23

A special event, 4-H Achievement Night will finalize events of the past year, and mark the beginning of a new 4-H year.

A leaders' committee, with Chairperson Chloe Pearson, has planned a variety of activities for the evening, including a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Main dish, rolls, drinks, desserts and table service will be provided. Those attending are asked to bring a salad or a vegetable dish. Leaders will be given time to introduce their members as well as recognize them for special accomplishments.

Parents, friends, donors, and everyone interested in the recognition of the 4-H'ers are invited.

This event is scheduled for Wednesday, October 23, 6:30 p.m. at the Fairgrounds in Heppner.

Rally set at Nazarene

Next Sunday, Oct. 27 will be a big rally Sunday at the Heppner Church of Nazarene. A Sunday School contest the past six weeks with the theme "Let Them Know" will be closing with a big helium balloon send off to "Let the Community Know" about Jesus.

Sunday School begins at 9:30 a.m. with fellowship, and continues with 10 a.m. classes for all ages, and 11 a.m. worship. Everyone is invited to attend the celebration.

TAG students to study solar power

Morrow County talented and gifted students in grades five through eight will be studying solar power on October 30 and 31 at the school district office in Lexington. This program is a part of the continuing Challenge Program offered for academically talented students in Morrow County. Lynn Vanderkamp, energy specialist for OMSI, will be the program leader both days.

Scouting executive to attend pack meet

Special classes in worship and religious music will begin Monday, Oct. 28 at All Saints' Episcopal Church. The class is open for students in grades two through six and will last until Christmas vacation. The classes begin at 2:30. Interested parents should call pastor Izzett for information. Parents must sign a permission slip before their children will be permitted to leave school.

An all parish potluck and Halloween party will be held this Sunday, Oct. 27 at 6 p.m. Children and willing adults are encouraged to come dressed in costume, said the Rev. Izzett. Prizes for the best costumes will be awarded.

IUCC youth to host Halloween party

A Halloween party for children through sixth grade will be hosted by the Ione United Church of Christ Youth Group from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 31 at the Ione United Church of Christ. Refreshments will include hot dogs, chips, punch and cookies. Activities will include games and a costume parade with prizes.

Youth group to host 'Pumpkin Party'

Saturday, Oct. 26 at 3 p.m., the First Christian Church Youth Group will be hosting a "Pumpkin Party" for all children ages two years through grade six. There will be separate parties for those through kindergarten, and grades 1-6, said a Church spokesperson. Each child may wear a costume and is to come prepared for a good time. The party will be held at the church basement and will last approximately one hour. All children in the community are invited to attend. For more information, call 676-9209.

On Friday evening, the First Christian Youth Group will hold a candy sale during the Moonlight Sale, featuring fudge and caramel popcorn in front of Murray's Drugstore.

All Jr. High and High School youth are invited to attend the youth program each Sunday evening at 6 p.m.

Local veterans officer attends conference

Morrow County Veterans' Service Officer, Claudine Warren, attended the semi-annual statewide County Veterans' Service Officer Conference held October 16-18, in Portland.

The session, sponsored by the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs, provided officers with updated information necessary to assist Oregon veterans, their widows or widowers, and dependents in applying for state and federal veterans' benefits in such areas as housing, education, counseling, claims, employment, medical, and pension assistance.

Salvation Army to present will and estate planning seminar in Pendleton

The Salvation Army's November 7, seminar on "Wills and Estate Planning" will include two informational sessions, conducted by Hayward Moore, Salvation Army Planned Giving Director. Held at the Salvation Army Community Center, 150 S.E. Emigrant, Pendleton, sessions will be from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. There is no charge or obligation and the public is invited to attend.

Topics to be covered include Planning Your Will, The Living Will, What Happens If You Die Without a Will, Estate Taxes, How to Avoid Probate, The Attorney and Your Will, Capital Gain Taxes, Trusts, Charitable Gifts, and Income For a Lifetime.

For more information on this seminar or on wills and estate planning write Hayward Moore, The Salvation Army, P.O. Box 8796, Portland, Oregon 97208 or call him at (503) 754-0455 or (503) 234-0825.

Business seminars offered

Two productivity seminars will be presented October 29 and 30 at Grayson's Desert River Inn by the Small Business Development Center of Blue Mountain Community College and the Oregon State University Productivity Center.

"Goal Setting and Productivity", a seminar tailored for small businesses will be held from 1 to 5 p.m. on the afternoon of October 29. The next day a seminar titled "Productivity and Performance Measurement" will be held from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The second seminar is tailored to larger organizations such as manufacturers, hospitals, banks and governmental agencies.

The OSU Productivity Center

"presents an excellent system for evaluating operations of any kind in any business and suggesting ways of achieving higher efficiency, cost control, and customer satisfaction," according to Tom Hampson, director of BMCC's business center.

The seminar will offer practical methods for achieving success through productivity management. Cost of the seminar is $35 for the half-day session on October 29, and $55 for the all-day session on October 30, including lunch. Both sessions can be attended for $70. For more information, call the business center at 276-6233.

This seminar is co-sponsored by the Small Business Administration.

George Anderson, Scouting representative for the Blue Mountain Council will be at the Cub Scout Pack 661 meeting Monday, Oct. 28, 7 p.m. upstairs at the Heppner Elks Club. He will discuss the requirements for forming a new pack at Ione with those who are interested.

All Cub Scouts and their parents are encouraged to attend this regular October pack meeting.

The average adult has 3,500 square inches of skin.

Gospel presentation set at St. Pat's

Actor Leonardo Defilippis' one-man dramatic presentation of the Gospel according to John, entitled, "Master, Where Do You Abide?" is currently touring our area, and will be presented Wednesday, Oct. 30 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Patrick Parish Hall.

"Master, Where Do You Abide?" is a truly beautiful and inspiring dramatic presentation of the Gospel according to John, suitable for junior-high age and up," says the Rev. Brian McGovern. The program runs about two hours, and admission is by free-will donation.

The Biggest Little PLUMBING SHOP in the County. Lots of Plumbing Supplies
Pellyjohn's
 676-3001 676-9157

To My Clients:
 I will be continuing to take appointments until my baby comes. I HOPE to be back to work within 3 weeks after delivery. Please make arrangements for your appointments now.
 Thanks! Patti Nairns, Country Shears

Lady Bugs 3rd Annual Holiday Bazaar
Saturday, Nov. 2 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.
 Betty Christman's
 305 Arcade, Lexington
 Homemade Crafts, Baked Goodies.
 Free Refreshments

Mountaineer Maintenance
 Fred Koreski
 P.O. Box 421
 Fossil, OR 97830
 763-3566
November 18 - 22
Carpet Cleaning SPECIAL $27.50
 Livingroom, Diningroom, Hallway, up to 300 sq.ft.
 WE DON'T CHARGE MILEAGE
 We are available to the entire area:
 Ione, Lexington, Heppner

AFS
 American Field Service
 Anyone interested in the student exchange program, students or adults, call
 Maryann Cerullo at 676-9635. (Keep trying)

IT'S BINGO TIME!
THURSDAY NIGHT OCT. 24th
 (No Cards)
ENJOY OUR ROAST BEEF BUFFET DINNER $5 EA.
Heppner Elks 358
 "Where friends meet"
 142 N Main 676-9181

Quality is Our Specialty — We Take Pride in Our Service

R & W Drive-In
 "Family Dining"
 676-5023
 348 North Main

It's Here!! BROASTED CHICKEN and JO JO'S

3 pc Box with JoJo's	$ 2.80
6 pc Box with JoJo's	5.25
9 pc Box with JoJo's	6.95
18 pc Bucket with JoJo's	12.95

TELEPHONE ORDERS ENCOURAGED ON BUCKET SIZE

SPECIAL COKE MUGS ONLY 75¢

With Chicken Box Purchase — While Quantity Lasts —

Drop in box at R&W Drive-In

Name _____
 Phone _____

Drawing FREE SKATING SESSION