

Sifting through the Times

10 Years Ago

Over 275 people attended the retirement dinner for Dr. L.D. Tibbles last Wednesday night at the Heppner High School Cafeterium. Dr. Tibbles retired from active practice after serving the community for 41 years.

Heppner postmaster Hubert Wilson was elected President of the National Association of Postmasters for Eastern Oregon District. The district reaches from Arlington to Baker and from Hines to the Washington border.

Loss at the spectacular elevator fire at lone has been estimated at approximately $50,000 by Delbert (Slim) Emert, owner, this week following a more complete inventory of equipment which was damaged beyond salvation.

A jet trip to Hawaii with all expenses paid was enjoyed by Alta Cutsforth and Nell Jones recently, as the result of Lott's Electric having won a sales contest.

An undetermined amount of money was taken when the Ford Tire Service was broken into Tuesday night. The money was in both cash and checks.

50 Years Ago

The arrival this week of $203,981 in allotment checks for Morrow county farmers shed a ray of sunlight on the financial horizon and caused the wheat growers to eye avidly coming of contracts under the new 4-year allotment plan soon to be launched. Disbursement of the checks at the county agent's office since the first of the week has caused the majority of wheat growers of the county to visit the city.

Individual locker box refrigeration will soon be available to folk of the Heppner district through facilities being installed by A.E. Burkenbine at the Heppner Market. Mr. Burkenbine is having 184 lockers, 2x2x2 1/2 ft., installed for the convenience of patrons with C.T. Davis of Lexington in charge of the work.
