Wheat League annual meeting set Nov. 8 at Elks

Dewey Rand
The Morrow County Wheat League annual meeting will be held

Friday, Nov. 8 at the Heppner Elks Lodge. All farmers are invited to attend the business meeting from 1-5 p.m., the social hour from 5:30 to 6:30 and the dinner co-sponsored by the Wheat League and the Morrow County Grain Growers at 6:30.

Ten topics of discussion including legislation, taxation, marketing, and production land use will be addressed by committee during the afternoon. Resolutions will be drafted for the state Wheat League convention to be held in December.

Since the farm situation is so grim now, some humor is needed, says Wheat League President Joel Peterson. Following the dinner, Dewey Rand, publisher of the Capital Press, will attempt to provide that humor speaking on the topic of Gobbledygook.

Retired educators set Nov. 2 meeting

Unit 9 of the Umatilla-Morrow Counties Oregon Retired Educators Association will meet on Saturday, Nov. 2, at the Senior Citizen Center in Stanfield at 11 a.m.

one gathering in the cafeteria. Student schedules will be distributed to parents and a shortened version of the school day will be held. Nine week report cards will be distributed to parents at this time also.

Nazarenes slate Halloween potluck

The Heppner Nazarene Church will have a potluck dinner Halloween night. Dinner will consist of stew, hot rolls, salad and dessert and will begin at 6 p.m., according to the Rev. Floyd Wilks.

After the meal, the younger children will participate in games and other activities while the adults and teenagers will view slides on child and alcohol abuse. A deputy from the Morrow County Sheriff's office will discuss alcohol and drug abuse.

Concern about the safety of children being on the streets Halloween night prompted a potluck dinner and program at the church last year. Because of the excellent attendance, the church has decided to make this an annual event.

Anyone interested in attending the dinner and viewing the slides, may contact the Nazarene parsonage at 676-5529 for further information.

By Justine Weatherford
The November meeting of the Heppner Garden Club has been re-scheduled. It will be on Wednesday evening, Nov. 6, beginning at 6:30 p.m. with a potluck dinner at the home of Justine Weatherford. The members are looking forward to viewing the pictures of Ireland taken by Martha and Jerry Doherty last summer. President Jane Rawlins says the monthly business meeting will be brief.

The meeting was originally set for Monday, Nov. 4, but when the date was announced for the annual dinner meeting of the Morrow County Grain Growers, the club officers decided to re-set the date.

IUCC youth group hosts party

The Youth Group of the Lone United Church of Christ is hosting a Halloween Party for all children up to the sixth grade on Halloween night, from 5 to 7 in the church basement. Hot dogs, chips, and cookies will be served. The children

Lexington hosts Pomona

By Delpha Jones
Wheatland Pomona Grange met at the Lexington Grange Hall on Saturday, Oct. 26 at 10:30 a.m. with the Master Ralland Johnson presiding. Officers pro-tem were Ceres, Marie White; Steward, Berl Akers; and gatekeeper, Margaret Akers, Musician Margaret Thorpe.

Minutes were read, and the meeting was lowered to the fourth degree for the business of the day. Officers had good reports, but not as much visiting as usual due to the busy summer months. A distinguished guest Jack Preston, the State Membership Chairman, and honored guest Joe DuPuis Master of Umatilla County Pomona were introduced. Fine reports were heard from the CWA Chairman, with the granges doing much community service, but lax in sending in the needed reports. Most all have been cleaning and preparing the halls for the winter meetings, booster nights etc. The Ag chairman was not present and Kenneth Smouse gave a few words on the program for the farmers. The Legislative chairman Wilma Martin had a fine report, the property tax petitions are out and many grangers have them, so can be signed by tax payers, lottery seems to be in financial difficulty but will soon be straightened out. A consolidation of state officers is recommended by some, and this would change the status of some of the State offices. The farmers must stick together, stand up for what they need and think is right and make themselves heard.

Joe DuPuis had a few words about petitions, and the rules concerning getting the signatures. He also invited this Pomona to visit the Umatilla County Pomona at any time.

There was some discussion on the way our younger generation feels about organizations, and especially the Grange. The western part of the state has some outstanding youth drill teams and youth granges, but the Eastern part are not taking part in these worthwhile projects. The drill teams are outstanding and compete on a state and national level, as well as the fine talent contests, so Eastern Oregon must get some of these things going. Anyone interested can get the youth chairman's name and get needed help.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe DuPuis and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were introduced and congratulated by the group as each couple had recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Wilma Bently of Mikkalo Grange was welcomed as a new member of Pomona.

A fine dinner was enjoyed at noon with the cake walk following. A reading "Especially for Teachers" by Dot Halvorsen, and a reading "Betting at the Baseball Game" by Margaret Akers was enjoyed. An election of Pomona officers for 1986-87 was held as follows: Master, Annabelle Jeagger from Mikkalo; Overseer, Dot Halvorsen of Willows; Lecturer, Wilma Martin of Mikkalo; Steward, Vernon Root of Rufus; Assistant Steward Kenneth Smouse of Lexington; LAS Margerat Akers of Willows; Chaplain, Loretta Lantis of Mikkalo; Treasurer Cecil Jones of Lexington; Secretary, Delpha Jones of Lexington; Gatekeeper, Berl Akers of Willows; Ceres, Marie White of Greenfield; Pomona, Nina Knighten, of Mikkalo; Flora Mildred Wright, Rhea Creek; Executive Committee Barton Clark, Rhea Creek, Mildred Wright Rhea Creek, and Ralland Johnson of Rufus.

Greenfield Grange invited the group to a joint installation at Greenfield Grange on Sunday, Dec. 8 at 2:30 p.m. with a potluck dinner following. Please keep this date in mind as installation is important so all members may start in their offices by the first of the year.

A motion was made and passed that the Grange with the most members present for the Pomona meetings will receive a prize of $10. The resolution committee reported No. 1, a thank you to Lexington for the fine dinner and hospitality for the day.

Ralland Johnson thanked all for their cooperation during the past six years while he was master, and for all those that had filled the offices pro-tem.

Roll call of Granges was as follows: Cherry Park 3; Rhea Creek -2; Willows-3; Greenfield-2; Lexington-8; Stanfield-2; Mikkalo-7; Columbia-2.

The next meeting will be at Willows in January.
