

What's Your Opinion?

Question: "Are you excited about the Heppner Filles going onto state?"

Answer: "We sure are. We think they deserve it. They're such good athletes and really a great bunch of kids," said Randy and Bernice Lott of Heppner.

4-H'ers honored

Recognition of individual efforts and achievements was the theme of the 4-H family night in Heppner last week.

Each leader introduced their members, presented years, and pointed out special achievements of each. Some cited improvements while others commented on success, specific contributions, or growth. The potluck dinner drew a large crowd of 4-H families and friends.

A special new award, "4-H supporter of the year" was presented to Morrow County Grain Growers for their continued contribution to the 4-H program at fair and throughout the year.

Bill Broderick served as master of ceremonies introducing each club leader. All members who turned in record books for evaluation received Certificates of Accomplishments. Special recognition was given to 1985 county medal winners Paula Plocharsky, achievement; Kathleen Brazell and Judy Jepsen, horse medals; fashion revue medals were presented to Kim Wright, Noella Rill, Andrea Ball, Nance Wright and Benji Pearson.

Teen leaders receiving pins in recognition of their contributions were: Kim Wright, Noella Rill, Chris McLaughlin, Kimberly Hughes and Nancy Martin. In addition, enrolled junior leaders also received their pins for having assisted leaders. Bill Broderick and Judy Wright were presented certificates of appreciation of their service in state 4-H committees.

Leaders committee in charge of the event were: Chloe Pearson, Chairperson, Nancy Miller, Bill Broderick, Jan Coe, and Jean Brazell.

The theme of recognition of individuals was selected by the south leaders group in order to allow all 4-H'ers to bask in the light of public appreciation of all 4-H'ers.

"Every 4-H'er needs a pat on the back, and a chance to let everyone see and hear what they have accomplished some of their goals for the year," said Birdine Tullis Program Assistant with the Morrow County Extension office. "It is not only the champions who gain from the 4-H club experience, every member achieves. I congratulate the leaders council for their recognition for all."

A similar event will be held in North Morrow, November 14.

Botswanan Ifye departs

It's a long way from Heppner to the capital city of Botswana Africa. A trip of 16 air hours from Washington D.C., as well as previously crossing the continent from Oregon to our national capitol.

After about four months in America as an Ifye exchange, Choene Master Choene of Botswana has departed for home. He takes with him happy memories from Morrow County where he had the opportunity to meet students at lone and Heppner elementary schools, members of the Chamber of Commerce and the lone Extension Study Group. In addition, he visited various families including the Frank Pearsons, Dr. and Delta Huber, Pastor Rieber, the Tullis family and others.

"I have gained much from my trip to America, and am now anxious to return home to put my new knowledge to work in the 4-B program, and in the social studies classes at the high school where I teach," said Choene. "I'll always remember the kindness of the people in Morrow County."

Prior to his visit in Heppner, he had lived with host families in Illinois, Minnesota, Texas, and in other Oregon counties.

Master Choene departed for home Monday, October 21, eagerly anticipating a reunion with his seven sisters, a mother and father so he could tell them about American families, said Oregon State University Extension Program Assistant.

Halloween generally quiet

Hospital Administrator John Hempel reports that there was very little response to the hospital's offer to x-ray Halloween candy, but that "a lot of kids came trick-or-treating at the nursing home, which the residents enjoyed."

It seems to have been a generally quiet Halloween with no reports of kids being bothered by older kids, said Heppner Police Chief Doug Rathbun. Only one adult and two juveniles were arrested on minor vandalism charges.

lone mayor, Wayne Hams, reports that last Thursday was probably "the quietest Halloween on record," because there were several area parties for kids to attend.

INSULATE WATER METERS NOW

Insulate your water meter for the winter months. You may use gunny sacks, insulation, old rags in a plastic bag etc. PLEASE DO NOT USE SAWDUST OR BARK. If you have had frozen pipes in the past, it is advisable to let a faucet run at a fast drip during extremely cold weather. Any damages resulting from frozen water meters that have not been insulated will be repaired at the owner's expense. You will be billed a minimum until the meters are read again in mid March. Thank you.
