Sifting through the Times

10 Years Ago

A new police car, a request to vacate access to an existing fire hydrant, and a new chlorinator at the pool were included in the business items before the Heppner city council.

Agronomist Dr. Norman Goetz told those at the Morrow County Grain Growers annual meeting that "Wheat is important politically and the federal government is using wheat prices to influence political decisions."

25 Years Ago

Alvin Wagenblast, Lexington, Heppner soil conservation district supervisor, has been appointed chairman of the committee on education of the Oregon State conservation districts.

The Morrow County Court has named Milton A. Biegel, Irrigon, to serve the unexpired term of County Commissioner Russell K. Miller who died last week. The term ends January 3, 1986. Biegel lost to Miller on the Republican ticket in the May primary election.

Lyle Riggs, Salem, state supervisor for elementary schools, is in Morrow County this week visiting the Irrigon, Lexington and Lone schools. He is evaluating the program being offered students in these schools for the state Department of Education.

50 Years Ago

The night school to be conducted in the local high school will begin soon. Final plans are being made and as soon as authorization is received from Washington, the course will start.

The tax levy for county purposes will be considerably lower next year, according to the estimate of expenditures set out in the budget notice prepared by the budget committee last week and printed in this issue.

The $10,000 city of Heppner refunding bonds offered for sale Saturday brought a premium of $407 with First National Bank of Portland bidding them in at $104.70 on the hundred.

The Women's Missionary society of the Gooseberry Lutheran Church had a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O.E. Peterson last Saturday afternoon.

CSSI slates workshops to review community relations plan

Chem-Security Systems, Inc. will conduct two meetings to exchange information with the community. The first meeting will be a workshop on a proposed Community Relations Plan to be held Tuesday evening, November 5, at 7:30 p.m. at the Arlington Grade School Cafeteria. The second meeting will feature an overview of CSSI activities and discussion of the Community Relations Plan to be held Wednesday evening, November 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the Gilliam County Fairgrounds in Condon.

The workshop to be held in Arlington is intended as a forum to review a draft of a Community Relations Plan and to insure that the interests and desires of the community are reflected in the final plan. The purpose of the plan is to facilitate the flow of information and the exchange of communications with Gilliam County residents, elected officials, businesses and organizations regarding the CSSI-CWM Arlington Hazardous Waste Management Facility.

The meeting in Condon is designed to provide a basic overview of the operations at CSSI and to discuss the Community Relations Plan.

All interested persons are cordially invited to attend and participate in these meetings.

1 CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all who sent flowers, cards and gifts, to all who visited me during my recent hospital stay, and to the doctors and nurses for their kindnesses. Special thanks to Floyd and Sharon Wilks for the transportation, special visits, and especially the Welcome Home signs; also to Floyd and Lorena Jones for their kindness and support.

The family of Herman Green wishes to thank our many friends and neighbors for the love and concern shown during Herman's illness the past 6 months. And, during his recent stay in the Heppner hospital.

The cards, letters, prayers, gifts of firewood, food and other gifts, visits and calls during this time are greatly appreciated.

We feel the quality of care in our local hospital was exceptional, and we thank each of you who cared for Herman during his stay there.

Sincerely,
Alma and Margaret

VA offers incentives for hiring disabled

The Veterans Administration will offer special incentives to employers hiring certain disabled veterans in an effort to "bridge any gaps" which may prevent some from being employed or fully employed says Portland VA Regional Office Director, Robert L. Winters. Winters said special provisions of the VA's vocational rehabilitation program allow payments to employers to encourage the placement of disabled veterans. The payment can cover up to nine months of work experience or on-job training to enable the veteran to adjust to and maintain employment.

Under a written agreement with the employer, VA will pay for direct expenses that result from hiring the veterans and which do not exceed one-half of the wage paid to other employees in the same or similar jobs.

Only private sector employers, including non-profit agencies and organizations are eligible for this incentive program. Payments may not be made to public employers, including federal, state and local agencies.

Employers wishing to participate should contact the Regional Vocational Rehabilitation Officer, Gordon Campbell, at 221-5077, VA Regional Office, 1220 S.W. Third, Portland, OR 97204.
