Farm City Banquet date set

Dwight Bailey, President of Morrow County Livestock Growers Association has plans well underway for the December 6 annual meeting of the group, as well as the annual Farm City Banquet. Special features of the day include programs of interest to all livestock growers presented by the new OSU Extension Beef Specialist, Bill Zollinger and other specialists, as well as the growers annual business meeting. Harold Kerr, Associate Director for the OSU Extension Service is sure to receive a warm welcome by Morrow County friends when he is guest speaker for the Farm City Banquet, says Birdine Tullis, OSU Extension Service Acting Staff Chairperson. There will be other person. There will be other "unusual activities" such as the social hour hosted by the Federal Land Bank and the door prize of a gem from Peterson's Jewelers. Bailey announced the date of the annual event early so all may mark December 6 as a red letter day, and plan to be a part of the various events, says Tullis. More details will be announced as plans are finalized.

Church youth to serve community

The First Christian Church Youth group will be conducting a "community service day" this Saturday, November 16. The youth would like to offer their services to senior citizens in the community who has some odd jobs around the house that never seems to get done, i.e. washing, windows, cleaning house, etc. If you have a job you would like us to help you with please give us a call at 676-9209.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heinrich were in Portland recently to visit their daughter and were hoping to be allowed to visit Cornett Green at the hospital.

A 90th birthday party for Mrs. Della McCurdy was held at the home of Mrs. Ida Farra recently. Present were the hostess, Mrs. Farra, the honoree, Mrs. McCurdy, Mrs. Inez Erwin, Mrs. Margaret Wright, Mrs. Snoda Blake, Mrs. Betty Pfeiffer, and Mrs. Viola Gilman. The dinner was potluck and the lovely birthday cake was made by Mrs. Pfeiffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer McCaleb of Portland were here over the weekend visiting Mrs. Alma Green. Mrs. McCaleb is a sister of Cornett Green and the late Herman Green. They reported that Cornett Green was doing well after his recent surgery.

On Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Vinson, Mrs. Anna Schwarzin, of Heppner, and Mrs. Fran Barnett of Ione, traveled to Portland where they attended the performance of Her Majesty's Marine Band and the Argyle Bagpipers at the Coliseum. They were fortunate in securing seats close to the performers and truly enjoyed the music. They went sightseeing in downtown Portland where they saw the new Portland Building with the statue of Portlandia. They also visited with the Mayor of Portland for a short time.

Mrs. Bernard Damon and her son, Mark, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham. Mr. Damon was hunting.

Hunting visitors at the home of Tom and Garnett Huddleston were four sons, Mike, John, Mark, and Howard, all of the Portland area.

Miss Georgina McDaniel has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash drove to Hood River, where they spent the night with Mrs. Mary Springer, Mr. Nash's sister. On Saturday morning they went on to Portland with Mrs. Dorothy Applegate, a niece. They attended the volleyball tournament in Portland and returned to Hood River where they spent the night, again with Mrs. Springer. On Sunday, they returned home.

Visitors at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. George Izzett over the Veterans Day weekend were their daughter Heather, a freshman at Warner Pacific College and her girlfriend Darla Srofe. Two grandsons, Adam and Joel Izzett of Portland were also visiting in Heppner.

What's Your Opinion

Question: "Do you feel anything substantial will come out of the President Ronald Reagan and Premier Mikhail Gorbachev summit meetings?"
 "I certainly hope so but I doubt it," says Mike Oths, Heppner. "Reason is I think for the most part these things are staged as public relations strategies more than anything else."

Soroptimists slate fashion show

The Heppner Soroptimists will hold a style show Saturday, Nov. 23 from 1-3 p.m. upstairs at the Heppner Elks Lodge. Models will wear fashions from Sears, The Shoe Box, Garder's Men's Wear, the Country Rose, and Peterson's Jewelers, and Torres Ceramics. Peterson's Jewelers has donated a $100 gem as a doorprize. The following merchants have donated toward additional doorprizes: Pettyjohn's Builders Supply and Radio Shack, Court St. Market, Murray's Drug, The Shoe Box, and Mycal's. Tickets are available at the door and from any Soroptimist.
