Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Mrs. Pete Schwarzin and Mr. and Mrs. David Florea drove to Portland the Saturday after Thanksgiving where they attended the performance of the Nutcracker Suite Ballet. They report thoroughly enjoying the program and that it was very well done.

Bob Blue has received word of the death of his brother, Teddy Blue, at Beach, North Dakota.

The County Fibre Artists Guild had a family Christmas potluck and gift exchange Saturday evening at the home of Dan and Vanessa Thompson at Morgan. The members exchanged decorated notebooks. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Gary McElhany, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Van Liew and children, Samuel and Matthew, the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thompson, and their children, Nathan and Nickie.

Mrs. Dean Connor and Mrs. Lincoln Nash spent Saturday Christmas shopping at The Dalles. In the evening they attended the basketball game at Moro. Mrs. Connor's daughter, Penny, is a member of the girls' team.

Tom McConnell is home for the holidays from his classes at Blue Mt. Community College. His brother, Rich McConnell, will be coming from La Grande, where he attends school. Their brother, Jim, is now at White Sands, New Mexico, and his current address is: Pvt. James McConnell, 259th MP - Co., box 171, White Sands Missile Range, White Sands, New Mexico 88902.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Gonty of the death of their daughter-in-law, Marie, December 12 at Seattle. She is survived by her husband, Ray, four step children and one step grandchild, all of Seattle; a brother and sister of Vancouver, B.C.; cousins in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; step brothers-in-law, Tom Gonty of Heppner and Doug Gonty of Newport News, Virginia; and step sister-in-law Virginia (E.V.) Blevins of Ukiah. The funeral will be held December 17.

The Degree of Honor Christmas Party was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant on Monday, Dec. 9. Co-hostess was Ida Lynn. Each member brought goodies and a gift for exchange. Present were Mildred Padberg, Betty Tanner, Louella Harris, Eleanor Gonty, Adelle LaTrace, Vivian McConnell, Bernice Nash, Shirley Connor, Ida Farra, and Joyce Breeding.

Please, if you have elderly or handicapped people for neighbors, check on them once a day or so in this kind of weather. One of my neighbors fell down the other day and had quite an ordeal before she was able to get up. Fortunately no bones were broken, but the results could have been much worse.

Maurie Elder's sisters, Elizabeth Ward and Mayree Elder, the former from Seattle and the other from Bremerton, Wisconsin, have gone to Hawaii for a month. One of the ladies has a son over there, but they are renting an apartment.

Nominations open for volunteer awards

President Reagan has announced the fifth annual President's Volunteer Action Awards to honor outstanding volunteer achievement by individual citizens and organizations.

The awards are co-sponsored for the fifth year in a unique cooperative effort between the private sector and government by Action, the national volunteer agency and by Volunteer-The National Center, a private, nonprofit volunteer support organization.

The President will present the awards at a White House ceremony in April. Award categories include arts and humanities, education, the environment, health, human services, international volunteering, mobilizing volunteers, public safety, youth and the workplace. Award nomination forms are available at all Action state and regional offices.

Following the President's announcement, Action Director Donna M. Alvarado commented, "President Reagan's strong personal interest in the annual awards underscores his commitment to volunteers and the spirit of neighbor helping neighbor."

Funding for the awards program is provided by corporations and foundations.

All Saints minister ordained

Thursday evening Dec. 19, 7:30 at All Saints' Episcopal Church, the Rt. Rev. Rustin R. Kimsey, Episcopal Bishop of Eastern Oregon will ordain the Rev. George Izzett to the Sacred Order of Deacons in Christ's holy catholic Church. This order makes special emphasis to the ordinand that this is an order of servanthood. That in the name of Jesus Christ, he must serve all people, particularly the poor, the weak, the sick and the lonely. As a deacon in the Church he is to study the Holy Scriptures, seek nourishment from them, and to model his life upon them, and to make Christ and His redemptive love known by word and example to those among whom he lives, and works, and worships. The community is invited to attend this service of ordination. The clergy of Heppner are particularly extended a warm invitation to participate. Many Episcopal clergy of Eastern Oregon will be participating as well as clergy from the Portland area.

This is an initial step for Rev. Izzett as he returns to the ministry of the church in which he was baptized and confirmed 40 years ago. Rev. Izzett served in both Presbyterian and United Methodist congregations for several years before taking steps to enter the ministry of The Episcopal Church.
