Fair Committee extends invitation

The Morrow County Fair Committee has been busy preparing for the 1986 fair even during the already hectic Christmas season. Committee members have visited the Art-factory and are aware that some of the talented people in the county fail to exhibit at the annual county fair. Those who make craft items, bake, make candy, or pictures for Christmas are especially invited to bring their items to next year's county fair and enter them in open class competition.

The next meeting of the Fair Committee will be January 13, 7:30 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds.
