

Fillies drop pre-season game

By Dana Reid

The Heppner Fillies lost their first game of the season Saturday, Jan. 4 to a good Mac-Hi team. The game was played here at Heppner.

The Fillies were minus starter Missy Turner at point guard. Dana Reid filled that position while reserve Andrea Ball stepped in for the opening starter. Lana Reid and Missy Eubanks were at forward and Penny Connor was inside at center.

Heppner started out slow in the first quarter giving Mac-Hi a quick 12 point lead.

Towards the end of the second quarter the Fillies put the pressure on the Pioneers and came within two points to end the first half of the game.

Both teams played tough in the third quarter with each team scoring an even 11 points.

Mac-Hi shot very well in the fourth quarter making it very tough for the Fillies to come away with the win.

With only minutes left in the game, Heppner was down by four points and had to go for the steal.

With just over a minute left Dana Reid fouled out and Tina Davidson came in to fill her position.

Mac-Hi continued to shoot well and just under a minute Lana Reid fouled out. Cindy Stroeber filled her position.

The Fillies fought tough to the very end but couldn't out score Mac-Hi.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Mrs. Mary Nikander traveled to Portland the Saturday before Christmas with Bob and Marilani Frazier. Mr. Frazier is the shop teacher at Heppner high school. Mrs. Nikander visited with her son at Gresham and on Sunday after church, they drove to Gearhart for a visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Winifred and Bob Evans. On Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, they were guests at a friend's home in Eugene. Charles Reibhoff was their host and his granddaughter and a friend who had just returned from Jerusalem were also there. They enjoyed a wonderful Christmas dinner. On Friday, she came home with Kathryn Hoskins and Frances Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris had as guests recently their son Greg Harris, his wife, Cindy and their two children from Siletz. While here they enjoyed cross country skiing and visiting the Museum and Library. They returned to their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McConnell received word that their son-in-law, Brian Hargrove, of Klamath Falls, had suddenly taken ill and has been taken to the emergency hospital. However, it was not as serious as originally thought and he will soon be home. The McConnell's son, Tom, has returned to Pendleton to attend Blue Mountain Community College and their son, Rich, to La Grande where he is attending school.

Helen Salter and Anna Schwarzin drove to Depoe Bay where they watched the migrating whales. The weather was beautiful and they enjoyed walking on the beach.

Mrs. Mildred Padberg enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ross and their two daughters, Heidi and Holly over the New Years holiday. Mrs. Ross is a daughter of Mrs. Padberg's and attended school in some positive things happened during the game," said Fillies coach Mike Royer. "We got off to a slow start and fell behind by as many as 12 points in the second quarter, but we didn't panic."

"We battled back tough and took the lead late in the third quarter. They shot the ball extremely well in the fourth quarter and that's what won the game for them," added Royer.

Lana Reid led all scorers with 25 points. Missy Eubanks put in 13 points and pulled down eight rebounds while Dana Reid had 12 points and six assists.

The Fillies start into league play this weekend taking on the Riverside Pirates at Boardman Friday and the Stanfield Tigers there Saturday.

"We've had a good pre-season and I feel that we're ready for league play to start," said Royer.

"We've beat some good teams and have played very well at times, and we're going to get better as the season goes on. We just have to keep working hard," concluded Royer.
