

CowBelles meeting set Jan 30.

The Morrow County CowBelles will meet Thursday, Jan. 30 in the Extension Office Conference Room at the new Pettyjohn office building in Heppner.

This is the first meeting with the newly installed officers and committees, so all members are encouraged to attend and help get the year's programs underway.

A pizza party at Kate's Pizza and Pastry will follow the meeting.

Leadership skills contest set

The Heppner FFA Chapter will hold its annual Leadership Skills Contest on Thursday, Jan. 30, at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

The contest will include public speaking, extemporaneous speaking, and creed speaking. The winner of this contest will advance to the district contest.

The public is invited. The Heppner FFA Chapter hopes to see everyone there.

Nutri-Nibblers slate Mon. Meeting

The Nutri-Nibblers will meet Monday evening, February 3, at 7 p.m. in the general purpose room of the Seventh-day Adventist church. The subject will be "Better Meals for Less Money." Food samples prepared by club members will prove that nutritious food can also be delicious. Guests are welcome.

Blood pressure clinic moved

Adult and Family Services Counselor, Janet Phillips, will be at the Heppner Neighborhood Center Wednesday, Feb. 5 from 9:30 a.m. to noon.

Blood pressure clinics no longer will be conducted at the Neighborhood Center. Clinics will be held at the new Health Dept. office in Heppner.

Correction

The Gazette-Times wishes to correct an error in last week's Lexington news which stems from a front page headline error in our October 16 issue.

Both items refer to Jeff Manley, M.S.W. as director of a tri-county mental health program which is misleading.

Manley is the director of the Morrow County Mental Health Service. Morrow County Mental Health serves not only Morrow, but also Wheeler and Gilliam counties.

Sheriff's Report

Weddings Thompson-Connelly

St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Salem was the setting for the afternoon wedding of Shelley Lynne Thompson of Salem and Timothy Michael Connelly, Houston, Texas, on Saturday, November 23, 1985.

Parents of the bride are Terry and Karen Thompson, Heppner. Connelly is the son of the late John F. Connelly II and the late Ann B. Connelly.

The Rev. Willis H. Steinberg officiated at the double-ring, candlelight ceremony. Long-stemmed white tulips graced the altar.

Soloists were Maureen Hall and Eric Valkenaar, friends of the couple. Traditional selections by Bach were played during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown was of soft-white taffeta with a sweetheart neckline, off-the-shoulder melon sleeves and a semi-cathedral length train. Tuck pleats on the bodice were accented by taffeta roses. The bride's shoulder-length veil with Russian bow and face blusher was accented with taffeta rosebuds and seed pearls. The maid of honor wore a matching tea-length gown of teal green taffeta. Both carried meadow bouquets of long-stemmed white tulips.

The maid of honor was Kristy Cortese of Beaverton, college friend and Alpha Phi sorority sister of the bride.

John Connelly of Littleton, Colorado, acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Pat Connelly, brother of the groom from Tulsa, Oklahoma, Brian Thompson, Pendleton, and Eric Thompson, Corvallis, brothers of the bride. Brian Thompson and Eric Thompson lighted the candles.

A reception and buffet dance followed at the Chumaree Comfortel. Cutting the three-tiered cake decorated with white roses and shamrocks were Judy Schneider, Janet Bliss and Donna Lee Schoen, aunts of the bride. Geri Grieb and Sue Robison were in charge of the guest book and gift table. Passing out wheat bags to the guests were Andrew and Troy Bliss, cousins of the bride.

Special guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson of Wilsonville and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Schoen, Skamania, Washington.

After a wedding trip through the Southwest, including Carmel, Disneyland and Palm Springs, the couple is at home in Houston, where the bridegroom is employed by Shell Oil Company and the bride at Nieman-Marcus.

The bride graduated from Heppner High School and Oregon State University with a degree in Hotel-Restaurant Management. Connelly is a graduate of Bishop Kelley High School in Tulsa, and the University of Oklahoma with a degree in Petroleum Land Management.

Shannon-Grey

Mary Shannon, daughter of Martha King, married Gordon H. Grey of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, January 14 at Los Vegas, Nevada.

Mary is a 1962 graduate of Heppner High School where she took part in several school plays. She attended college at Oregon State and the University of California.

The newlyweds plan to make their home in Toronto.
