

Heppner High honors three

Missy Eubanks, Teresa Lindsay and Liz Curtis have been selected by Heppner High School for recognition during the month of January.

Missy Eubanks, a junior at Heppner High, was chosen as this month's athlete of the month.

Eubanks is in her third season of playing basketball. Two years of the three, on varsity.

For the non-league season Eubanks has averaged 11.4 points and 10.4 rebounds a game.

Eubanks is also involved in volleyball. This was her third season as well.

Eubanks was secretary of her class and she is also active in Girls Athletic Booster Club.

With an accumulative grade point average of 4.00, Teresa Lindsay, a junior, was chosen as this month's student of the month.

Lindsay is involved in many activities at the high school, which included: Future Farmers of America, National Honor Society, and Girls Athletic Booster Club.

Lindsay is also on the varsity basketball team and has helped her team to a 5-0 league record.

Heppner High's new counselor, Mrs. Liz Curtis, was chosen as the faculty person of the month.

Curtis is currently the senior class advisor, as well.

Before coming to the high school, Curtis was the home economics teacher at the junior high. She worked there for six years.

There are more than ten thousand golf courses in the United States.

St. Pats celebration coming up

Plans are underway for the 1986 St. Patrick's Day celebration in Heppner, and indications are it should be bigger and better than ever, says chairman Jim Farley.

The event will be held on Saturday and Sunday, March 15 and 16 this year, with many events being planned for both days.

A sheep dog contest, parade, Irish feed, radio show, tours and more are in the works again this year, with a dance, Sunday dinner, kiddie rides and more as possibilities for this annual Irish celebration.

Much more help is needed to put on the celebration and make it a successful event, so anyone who has an idea for St. Patrick's Day, or would like to participate is urged to contact Jim Farley, David Sykes, Diana Ball, or Bob Kahl with their ideas.

A joint meeting of the St. Patrick's Day committee and the Merchants Committee is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 7, 12 noon at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant in Heppner to finalize plans. All interested persons are urged to attend.
