

American Legion awards appreciation plaque to Ron McDonald

The Heppner American Legion Post Saturday, presented Ron McDonald, of Ron McDonald Chevrolet in Heppner, a plaque of appreciation for his help with the legion's annual Hunter's Breakfast.

McDonald has let the legion use his showroom for the past three years to put on the breakfast.

Search for volunteers begins

The search is on for volunteers. No, not for more work, but for some deserved recognition.

This month at an awards presentation, the Heppner-Ione branch of AAUW will honor those who donate their time and talents to the community.

If you know of anyone involved in volunteer work please call Karen Beck, 676-9601, Jane Rawlins, 676-9935, or April Hilton Sykes, 676-9939, as soon as possible.

Two appointed to County Museum Commission

Tuesday evening, January 28, the Morrow County Museum Commission met with two new members appointed by the County Court to fill vacancies left by the deaths of Orville Cutsforth and Herman Green. The new members, Mary Goheen and Barbara Bloodsworth, join continuing court-appointed members Ida Farra, Alma Green, Kenneth Smouse, and Irene Swanson.

There was discussion concerning the name of a seventh and final member of the commission to replace Delpha Jones who had resigned. A list of names was agreed on which will be submitted to the County Court for consideration.

The two museum employees, Johanne Wood and Rachel Harnett, meet regularly with the commission on the third Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. of each alternate month. The public is welcome to attend these meetings.

Officers elected for 1986 are Alma Green, chairman, and Mary Goheen, secretary.

Other business considered last week included the gift of two lots in Hardman from the late Josephine Woolery Conway, a discussion of the Museum Trust Fund which is administered by the County Treasurer; the business of making sure that all old copies of county newspapers are preserved on microfilm and the repairing of a leak in the building roof.

Chairman Green says nothing new has been reported concerning the robbery of the museum which took place last summer when the Library Building was entered through its back wall.

Friends of Mrs. Alice Soward will be interested to know that following major surgery last year, she is now at the Heritage Retirement Center, 1777 So. Curtis Road, Boise, Idaho, 83705. She is confined to a wheelchair, but has her own room and bath and is close to the lounge and dining room.

In a phone call to her daughter, Genevieve, it was revealed that Mrs. Oma Cox is now in a nursing home where she will be for approximately ten days, after which she will return home. She has enjoyed receiving the cards from her friends and would appreciate people keeping in touch.

An interesting sidelight of the wrestling match on Monday night was the observation of one teenager. He insisted that the biggest portion of the audience was "little old ladies."

Degree of Honor met at the home of Mrs. Martha King last Tuesday evening. After a short business meeting, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Somehow Mrs. King always makes meetings at her house something special.

Pete and Mary Haynes, formerly of Lonerock and now of Baker, are keeping busy although they are officially retired. Mr. Haynes makes violins and other instruments which are fashioned out of beautiful woods. They are much in demand and a visit to his workshop is quite interesting. Mrs. Haynes makes quilts and does many other forms of needlework. In their home, they have an extensive display of Indian artifacts and antiques they have collected. Mr. Haynes, "Pete" to his friends, will be remembered for the many dances he has played for in this area. He is an accomplished fiddler, also plays guitar and sings.
