

Boosters elect officers, plan chili feed

New officers were elected by the Heppner Booster Club Wednesday, Jan. 29. They are (from left to right): Dick Devin, president; Lee Padburg, vice president; Linda Conklin, treasurer; and Sharon Harrison, secretary.

A big reader bulletin board primarily for sporting events will be going up this year at Ron McDonald's. It will be highly visible from two directions at the Main Street corner, said a Booster Club spokesperson. The Booster project using Kinzua donated products will be built jointly by Vo-Ag and woodshop classes.

The pro-wrestling show Monday was a fund raising project of the Boosters.

"The big enthusiastic crowds for our ball games have been great," Devin stated, and, "It makes a strong statement about our community when you see folks publicly supporting our kids and their activities."

Another Booster fund raiser is planned to entice a crowd this Saturday at the Heppner High Cafeteria from 4 to 7 p.m.

Jan Stroeber, Diana Ball and other booster members are preparing flavorful chili with all the condiments.

The complete menu lists baked potatoes with four toppings; tossed salad, garlic bread, homemade pie and ice cream; chili and chili dogs, and beverage. Order all or any single selections.

All this precedes important Filly and Mustang games with the Sherman Huskies.

All Saints begins Bible series

All Saints' parish will begin a Home Bible Study series this week. It will meet at the pastor's home, 135 Rock St. First class meets tonight at 7:30 p.m. and the class will be an hour and a half in length. This Bible study is open to the public and is designed particularly for those folks who want to know more about the Bible and its history. The class will cover the entire Bible and it is the type of study which deals with question: "Everything I wanted to ask about the Bible but was embarrassed to ask."

At the conclusion of the series, participants will know something about the contents of each book of the Bible and something about the various translations. All Translations of the Bible are welcome and a small notebook would be helpful. Part of the class time will focus on a particular portion or teaching of the Bible and we will begin this section focusing on the Gifts of the Spirit.

The last Sunday after the Epiphany will be celebrated Sunday, February 9, with the service to Holy Communion. The Rev. Susan Beem will be the Celebrant with the Rev. Izzett assisting.

Ash Wednesday Services will be conducted on February 12 at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Prayer and Healing Services are held every Thursday at 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. The public is invited to attend all services.

It's carnival time

There will be fun and excitement for all ages when a carnival comes to Heppner on Friday, February 21.

The Heppner Elementary multi-purpose room will be transformed into colorful booths that will entice all participants. The carnival will run from 7-9 p.m. and prizes will be awarded to lucky winners.

Carnival goers can try their luck at many events including: spin the wheel, dime toss, bingo, golf putting, basketball hoop shoot for the young and not so young, cake walk and even a cupcake walk for the wee ones, dart throw, fish pond, duck scoop, ring toss, bean bag throw, and, for the adventurous, a jello throw.

The Heppner student council will provide refreshment including pop corn, drinks, and hot dogs.

Several scenery and character props will enable participants to have their pictures taken by Polaroid.

All the booths except the picture booth and concessions will charge a 25 cent ticket. Tickets may be purchased at the main booth next to the main office in the elementary building.

The Heppner Parents Club is sponsoring the carnival as a fund raiser to purchase needed playground equipment or possibly a computer.
