Nursing home residents to celebrate Valentine's Day

By Justine Weatherford

The Pioneer Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and the Heppner Soroptimists are arranging a Valentine Party for residents at the Nursing Home at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 12.

The members of the auxiliary plan regular monthly parties for the residents and are very hopeful of getting various community groups to assist them. Any group willing to help with these parties should contact any auxiliary member for more information and scheduling.

For many years the Soroptimists have provided refreshments for the Valentine Week celebration which honors the love saint during National Heart month and which also honors the birthday of the State of Oregon. Bettie Doherty, Eleanor Gonty and Mary Goheen will represent the Soroptimist this year helping auxiliary members serve ice cream and cookies and bring cheer to the Nursing Home next Wednesday. Visitors are cordially invited to come join the party.

Mealsite adjusts to Mondays

During January the senior citizens who have regularly enjoyed a weekly meal and social time together on Wednesday noons for many years, have learned to adapt to the change to Monday gatherings, and their attendance has held very close to last year's attendance.

Each Monday the senior bus driven by Dot Halvorsen comes from Ione with seniors from that area, from Lexington and from around in Heppner. Usually the lift-equipped bus also picks up residents from the Pioneer Hospital Nursing Home. Each passenger is returned home after the meal.

Members of 10 different church groups have been helping with the preparation and serving of the senior meals since the mealsite was moved from downtown Heppner to the fairgrounds.

During February those church groups scheduled to help are coming from St. Patrick's Catholic Church, February 17, and from the Lexington Baptist Church on February 24.

Usually the pastor of the church group assisting comes at noon to ask the day's blessing and to visit with the seniors.

Any senior persons who are visiting in south Morrow County or who are newcomers are most cordially invited to come to enjoy the nutritious meals and the "mature" fellowship at the fairgrounds on Monday at noon.
