All Saints Bible Study continues

All Saints' parish will be presenting a program at Pioneer Nursing Home this Sunday at 2 p.m. All are welcome to join in this time of singing, sharing and Christian Fellowship. The meditation will be given by Rev. Izzett.

The second Home Bible Study will be held tonight, Feburary 19, at 7:30 at the vicar's home on Rock Street. The class will be reviewing the major events in the book of Genesis and what their significance is to contemporary Christians. Along with this we will begin study in the book of Exodus and parts of Leviticus.

Prayer & Healing services are held Thursdays at 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend these services.

Farewell potluck slated at Willows

A farewell potluck dinner has been planned for 6:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 21 at Willows Grange Hall to honor Bryce and Louise Keene who will be moving to Hermiston. They will be presented a money tree. Visiting and cards will follow the dinner. Everyone is invited to attend.

Reception to honor women vets

All Women Veterans and interested persons are invited to a reception on Sunday, March 2 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Portland Veterans Administration Outpatient Clinic at 8909 S.W. Barbur Boulevard. This reception is to honor women veterans as part of Portland's Women's History Week activities from March 2 through March 7.

The public is invited to join in this special event to honor women in the military - past, present and future. Women veterans, active duty and non-active duty, are encouraged to wear their uniforms to the reception.

Arts & Crafts Asoc. to meet

The Morrow county Creative Arts and Crafts Assoc. will meet Monday, Feb. 24 at Kate's Pizza in Heppner. A no-host dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m.; a business meeting will follow at 7 p.m.

Ecumenical Lenten series continues

Last Thursday evening began the ecumenical Lenten Series entitled, "Issues Facing Christians Around the World." There was a large turn out of people despite the unfavorable weather. Those attending heard the Rev. Cathy Barker describe the issues that are facing Christians in Eastern Europe and the U.S.S.R.

This Thursday evening, Feb. 20, at 7:30 p.m. the series will continue at the Valby Lutheran Church. This week's program will feature issues that are facing Christians in China and will be presented by Fred and Helen Martin. The Martins have traveled in China and will be able to share with us in their program the particular issues that are prevalent to Christians in China. The public is encouraged and invited to attend this program. Refreshments will again be served following the program by the hosts at Valby Lutheran Church.

Next week, February 27, the series will be presented at the All Saints' Episcopal Church in Heppner. On this evening the series will look at issues of Christians living in Scandinavia. This program will be presented by Donna Bergstrom.

Your attendance is encouraged in this Ecumenical Lenten Series, said a series spokesperson, with the hope that we all might expand our horizons and expose ourselves to the unique situations that Christians are experiencing throughout the world.

Study group learns care of papers hair

Rhea Creek Study Group met at the home of Delpha Jones, February 5 with 14 members and six guests present. Two of the guests joined the group.

Donna Hach and Judy Stevens led a very informative lesson on what valuable papers to keep, such as deeds of property, health and life insurance policies, passports, birth certificates, etc. They explained about safe places to keep them, such as safe deposit boxes and fireproof places in the home. For tax purposes keep all records of all major purchases and sales. Keep W2 forms and all income and expenditures for at least five to seven years, they advised.

Debbi Ropp explained many things about hair care: what kinds of shampoos and conditioners to use for different types of hair, permanents to use, and many other tips which were very helpful.

Following a delicious potluck lunch, a business meeting was held, presided over by President Beverly Wright. The next meeting will be at Mildred Wright's home on March 5. Subject of the meeting is reducing the salt, sugar and fats in your diet.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Mr. William "Bill" Collins is a patient at St. Vincent Hospital in Portland. He would appreciate receiving cards from friends, and also phone calls, but he may not have flowers or plants. The hospital's address is 9205 S. W. Barnes Road, Portland, OR 97225 -- Room 528, phone 299-3528.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breeding were in LaGrande one day this week on business.

Mrs. Nina Denton and Stanley Cox visited in Silverton over the weekend at the home of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Griffin. Mr. Griffin had recently been awarded the Bronze Star for services during the war. He was discharged in 1945 after being released from a prison camp. Mrs. Linda Sinerius accompanied Mrs. Denton and Mr. Cox home. She had been a patient at the Medical Center in the West Hills of Portland.

Mrs. Eva Griffith has had her daughter, Mrs. Shirley Cunningham of Stevensville, Montana, as houseguest this week. Mrs. Cunningham has also visited her sisters and families in this area.

Mrs. Hazel Hamlin accompanied Mrs. Judy Buschke to Bend, where she is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, while Mrs. Buschke is attending meetings in connection with her work.

Mrs. Terry Blevins of Ukiah, her daughter, Mrs. Bob Brady, and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Casey Arbogast, came over on Saturday to visit Mrs. Blevins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Brady.

Mrs. Inez Erwin is a patient at the St. Mary Medical Center in Walla Walla and would appreciate hearing from friends. The address is 401 West Poplar Street, P.O. Box 1477, Walla Walla, WA 99362-0312.

Recently I sorted through some recipe clippings saved by Mrs. Carolyn Cason, my former mother-in-law. Mrs. Cason first saw Heppner when there was just one log cabin. On the back of recipe for Green Tomato Pickle, I found the following: "Masonic Temple at Heppner" -- Work on the new Masonic Temple for the Heppner Lodge of Masons is to start immediately after the conclusion of the Morrow County Fair. C.C. Robbins, Portland architect, has prepared the plans and they have been accepted. The new structure will be of brick, two stories high with full basement. It will be located on ground 40 by 110 feet, and will cost approximately $16,000."

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor, Penny and Eric, and Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash attended the ball game in The Dalles on Saturday. The Nash's spent the weekend with Mrs. Mary Springer, sister of Mr. Nash. The Connors went on to Portland where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Connor and attended the Trailblazer game of Sunday.

Former resident honored

By Delpha Jones

Former Morrow County resident Armin Wihlon is among 12 deceased employees of Butler Aircraft who were honored by a memorial erected near the Butler Aircraft Center. The 12 were killed when a DC-7 aerial tanker crashed near Klamath Falls September 14, 1979.

The memorial is made of stone set in a concrete base. Benches along three sides of the monument overlook the tanker loading area and Roberts Field. Butler Aircraft and Dean Johnson of the U.S. Forest Service are responsible for the memorial.

Armin Wihlon, worked at the Morrow County Grain Growers and for Gar Avaition at the Lexington airport, Orville Cutsforth and other farmers in the area. His widow Bennice lives at Redmond, a son Richard in Kentucky and daughters Judy and Alice live in Washington. Armin was a past Master of Lexington Grange.
