Mrs. Sara Adkins, who celebrated her 91st birthday on February 13, was disappointed inasmuch as her grandchildren and great grandchildren had planned a lovely party for her here at her home. They had her cake baked and ready as well as all sorts of other goodies to bring with them. The weather did not cooperate, however, and the highway was closed. Mrs. Adkin's son and daughter-in-law are on their way home from Arizona where they spent the winter. Shortly after they arrive home, they will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary, so the relatives from Portland will gather in Pendleton and make it a double celebration.

At their February stated meeting, Ruth-Locust Chapter No. 32, O.E.S. make plans for their Friendship night, which is scheduled for Monday, March 10, 1986. All the neighboring chapters have been invited. The evening is planned around a spring time and St. Patrick's Day theme, and it has been suggested that all wear a bit of green that night. All members are encouraged to be there and it is hoped that many 50 year members will be in attendance. There will be special recognitions and planned entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Edmondson, who live on upper Balm Fork, are very upset over the disappearance of their pet dog, a brown and white Sheltie. It has a white ring about its neck and had white feet. If anyone has information concerning this pet, please call Mrs. Sara Adkins, 676-9275. There is a reward being offered.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg, Jr., visited Friday evening with Mrs. Mildred Padberg, his stepmother.

Mrs. Ida Farra, who fell and hurt her knee seriously this winter, has decided she has been idle long enough. She opened her shop on Monday. Don't overdo it, Ida.

In a letter from her daughter, it was reported that Mrs. Oma Cox is now at her home in Sheridan, Wyoming. She is doing as well as can be expected and enjoys receiving cards and letters. Her daughter says they have meant so much to her mother.

An interesting bit of information in regard to the Heppner Hotel. Mr. Del Ward, who, with his wife, owned and operated the Hotel at one time, was raised on a ranch at Lonerock. His sister, Flora, was married to Jos. Nys, an attorney who practiced here in Heppner for years. Mr. Ward was always happy to have anyone come in and sit in the lobby because he said it made it look like the hotel was busy. The lobby was a very welcome place to rest during a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Vinson, and Mrs. Fran Barnett visited at the home of Pete and Anna Schwarzin Friday evening. Mrs. Schwarzin left for Australia the next morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Vinson drove to Monument Sunday to the home of L.D. and Doris Vinson. The men discussed future fishing plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake and Mrs. Darrell Blake were visitors at the home of Mrs. Snoda Blake this past weekend. They were here for Old Timers' Night at the Elks.

In last week's news, I mentioned Sharon Simmons as the daughter of Bill and Shirley Blake. My apologies - she is the daughter of Darrell and Ardith Blake.

The Good News Club met at the Nazarene Church basement Monday afternoon with Mrs. Vivian McConnell and Mrs. Lou Crum in charge. This is a group activity for preschoolers and grades 1 to 3.

Mrs. B.J. Doherty and Miss Martha Doherty were hostesses for the Garden Club Monday afternoon.

Fred Luffin, the new County Agent showed films on pruning trees and gave an outdoor demonstration on pruning dwarf fruit trees. There were 17 present.

Over 40 guests attended a bridal shower for Cindy Dougherty hosted by Jan Stroeber, Susan Evans, Margaret Evans, Bernice Lott, Michele Bergstrom, and Kite Healy at St. Patrick's Parish Hall February 17.

Cindy and Christy Stroeber also assisted.

The tables were decorated with mauve and grey baskets filled with primroses. Refreshments of hors d'oeuvres and beverages were served.

Laurie Post, Pendleton, a friend of the bride, assisted her with the gifts. A special guest was grandmother of the bride Mary Steagall, Lexington.

A rehearsal dinner for the wedding party of Cindy Dougherty and Forest Kannard was given by Mr. and Mrs. Monte Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Royal Raymond. The dinner attended by 14 was held at the home of Monte and Becky Evans on Sand Hollow Road. Baskets of primroses decorated the decor.

By Justin Miller

The Two Trackers 4-H Horse Club had a meeting on March 3, 1986 at the Fair Grounds at 2 p.m. Cindy Henderson had the first colt ground training session. One of her tips to the colt project members was to groom the colt a lot to help it get over its fear of the owner.

At 3 p.m. Sue Evans used two horses to point out differences in conformation and ways of traveling.

Next week we are to know names of the parts of the horse as shown in our project record books.
