Merchants to meet

The Heppner Merchants Committee will meet at noon Friday at the Wagon Wheel Cafe to review the events of St. Patrick's Weekend. Anyone involved with the celebration is encouraged to attend.

Open house planned March 25

The move of agricultural offices to the new Pettyjohn Building, at the end of town on the Heppner-Lexington Highway has been in the news in Morrow County.

Most offices are now quite complete so OSU Extension Service, ASCS, SWCD and Weed District, SCS and County Health Nurse have planned a public open house for March 25, 1 to 8 p.m.

The staff and advisory committees from each of the offices will be on hand to give guided tours and serve refreshments.

Several state level staff are expected for the opening ceremonies including Associate Directors of OSU Extension Service Alberta Johnston, Harold Kerr, Norm Goetz and possibly the Director of Extension, Ernie Smith. A number of state staff of ASCS and SCS have also been invited.

All involved invite you to come by, visit awhile, and view the new facility.

The Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts Club will have artwork on display throughout the building.
