

Five attended FFA convention

Five members of the Heppner FFA Chapter attended the 38th annual State FFA Convention March 21-24 in Corvallis.

Alex Lindsay, Kimberlie Wright, Noella Rill, Barney Lindsay, and Mike VanSchoiack had the opportunity to meet people, hear motivational speakers, listen to public speaking contests, parliamentary procedure contests, go on educational tours, attend small group workshops and have an all around good time.

Noella Rill and Alex Lindsay were among the three percent (115 members) of the Oregon State Association to receive their State Farmer Degrees.

Alex placed second in the State Extemporaneous Contest, and he also placed second in the Computers in Agriculture Contest.

Noella Rill placed second in the State Sheep Production Proficiency Contest.

Not only was it a time for contests and fun, but it was also a time for the Oregon Association of Future Farmers of America to discuss and vote on many matters of important business. Kimberlie Wright and Barney Lindsay were the official delegates who voted and discussed business matters.

Mike VanSchoiack was a member of the Beef Production Proficiency Committee. Mike helped interview and select applicants for the state winners.

All of the members who attended agreed that it was fun, exciting and worthwhile experience. "I thought it was a good experience and I had a lot of fun; it was neat seeing all the people I had met before and becoming better friends with them," said Alex Lindsay.

Many family members attend reunion

The Lexington Grange Hall was the setting for the Papineau-Schoonover reunion Saturday. The day started with an Easter egg hunt for the small children and then a bountiful dinner was served to the descendants of Frank and Agnes Papineau and Richard and Gladys Schoonover.

The families settled in Morrow County 55 years ago coming here from Baker, Co. Members of the families were introduced and a good bit of visiting was enjoyed. The oldest member there was Gladys Schoonover and the youngest the two weeks old Shellie Dawn daughter of the Lawrence Schoonovers. The afternoon was spent playing and exciting game of ball in which young and old took part. A guest for the day was Jackie Papineau, a resident of Pioneer Memorial, who was brought down for the fun. Spear heading the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Papineau and Gail Papineau. The grange hall was decorated in the Easter motif, with rabbits, flowers, etc.

Book discussed at topic club

"Lie Down With Lions" by Ken Follett was reported on by Helen Proudfoot when the Ione Topic Club met Wednesday, March 28 at her home with Rose Baker assisting the hostess. The plot was set in Afganistan and was a story of espionage, intrigue, and dangerous loves. Follett builds menace with a young Englishwoman a French physician and a roving American with a background of mountain bred natives waging guerrilla war against invading Russians.

At the beginning of the meeting a minute of silence was observed for Vera Rietmann, the last charter member, who died recently.

During the business meeting it was reported that the Lions Club had given $50 to the Ione Public Library and the City $200. A number of donations were also made in remembrance of Vera Rietmann. Painting and carpeting are in progress and an open house will be held following completion of this.

Special guests for the day were Martha Barak and Margaret Troedson.
