

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore of Hermiston were visitors of Mrs. Edna Bailey last week. They had been to Lonerock to see Mrs. Ben Rogers, mother of Mrs. Moore. Mrs. Rogers will be staying with her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Harrison, at The Dalles for awhile.

Her many friends were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Alice Hastings this week. She had lived in this area until a few years ago when she moved to Texas to be near her daughters. Mrs. Clarice Henry, her daughter, and Mrs. Yvonne Connor arrived in Heppner Monday where they will be guests of Mrs. Vern Batty, as well as Mrs. Batty's sister Mrs. Vera Cline of Salt Lake City. Services will be held here.

Bill and Shirley Blake have been visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Snoda Blake, for the past several days. While here they have renewed old friendships and assisted

Mrs. Blake with various projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heinrich have been vacationing the past two weeks. They visited Salt Lake City and various other cities and towns on their route. Salt Lake City was outstanding in their opinion.

Ed and Eleanor Gonty and Grace Buschke were in Pendleton one day this week for business and pleasure. They plan on going to Rajneeshpuram on the Senior Citizen bus tomorrow.

Mrs. Babe Harris, Mrs. Betty Tanner, Mrs. Mildred Padberg, Mrs. Adelle LaTrace, Miss Esther Bergstrom and Mrs. Nina Denton attended the luncheon for the Past Noble Grands of the Rebekah Lodge on Saturday at Lexington. A lovely luncheon was served after which the ladies played Bingo. The Lexington Past Noble Grand Club members were the hostesses with guests from Milton-Freewater, Pendleton, Ione and Heppner attending.

Robert Aaron, new grandson of Mrs. John Ledbetter, arrived on April 30 at the Pendleton Community Hospital. His mother will be remembered as Tami Toll. Mrs. Eva Griffith is his great grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornett Green are enjoying the company of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Baker of Darrington, Washington, this week. Mrs. Jessie Baker is the sister of Mrs. Green.

Steve and Shari Bullard and two boys of Portland spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lankford this weekend. They went fishing and were rewarded with a good catch. Mrs. Bullard is a niece of the Lankfords.

Mrs. Sylvia McDaniel, her brother, James Smith and his wife, Sally, of Pendleton, drove to Portland on Thursday. They went through Condon and enjoyed the different scenery. They attended the play, "Fiddler on the Roof," at David Douglas High School. The Smiths' grandson not only had a part in the play, but was quite involved in the "behind the scenes" activities. The young man is a grand nephew of Mrs. McDaniel. They attended a baby shower for a grandniece on Saturday before returning home.

Miss Marie Kowolchuk of Pendleton, bride-elect of John Stevens, was the honoree at a miscellaneous bridal shower given by Mrs. Mike Bunch at her home in Clark's Canyon recently. John Stevens is the son of Bob and Judy Stevens of Hardman. A cake decorated in the bride's colors of blue and white was served. Among the guests attending were Mrs. Judy Stevens, John's mother; his sister, JoJean Stevens; Mrs. Helen Stevens and Mrs. Verna Brinda, grandmothers. A very lovely evening was enjoyed.

Snow was reported at Hardman this evening and also at Prineville.

Soroptimists elect slate of officers

By Avon Melby

Ann Spicer was elected president of Heppner Club, Soroptimist International, at an election Thursday. She will be installed in the office in late June.

Serving with her as officers for the 1986-87 year will be Molly Rill, first vice president; LoRayne Bowman, second vice president; Mary Ann Kahl, recording secretary; Betty Doherty, corresponding secretary; Judi Laughlin, treasurer; Margo Sherer, board member; Jacki Allstott, regional delegate; with Barbara Bloodsworth as alternate; Cista Vernard, Federation delegate, with Marlene Gray as alternate.

Secretary at the 68th Conference of the Northwestern Region, Soroptimist International of the Americas, Inc. at Spokane last week, it was announced.

Plans were made for the Installation dinner for the new Soroptimist International Club of North Morrow County on May 17. Heppner Club was instrumental in organizing the new club, which is sponsored by the Heppner, Pasco-Kennewick, Baker, LaGrande, Pendleton and Wallowa County clubs. There are 21 members in the new club, coming from Irrigon and Boardman.

Plans to serve at the eighth grade graduation party May 30, and to sponsor an afghan raffle to raise funds for scholarships, were also discussed.

Thank-you luncheon given

By Delpha Jones

A thank-you luncheon was hosted by Charlotte Carpenter at her home in Irrigon for the Morrow County advisory council. Also present for the day were the new council members. The business meeting was held in the morning, and some of the plans discussed were the Fair Booth at the Morrow County Fair, and plans for something at the Watermelon Festival at Irrigon. They also hope to have tables with materials explaining extension, and what it can do for the communities.

There are still decals and bumper stickers available. All felt that the extension service in our local communities need more publicity. There are interesting topics suggested in our local meetings next year, such as American Indian culture, quick and easy casseroles, vitamins and health, and if an instructor is available refurbishing furniture. Margaret Sutherland and Pat Dehning will go to Mini College, one as a delegate and the other as the alternate. The next meeting will be September 8 at the extension office in Heppner.

Messengers celebrate 60th

Truman and Leita Messenger

By Delpha Jones

A most enjoyable time was held on Saturday afternoon from 3-5 p.m. when 100 relatives and friends of Truman and Leita Messenger met at the home of Betty Marquardt to help them celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary. The home was decorated with pink and white arrangements, with roses and greenery abounding.

A five-tiered cake was decorated in the same colors. Cutting and serving the cake were Viola and Traci Messenger and Joyce Hughes granddaughters of the couple. Serving punch and coffee were Joni

Messenger and Jana Marquardt.

The afternoon and evening was spent in visiting and singing. The singing was greatly enjoyed as all the children and grandchildren are musical and enjoy it whether singing or instrumental.

Hostesses for the affair were their children, Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger, Jr. of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Messenger of Aloha, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Messenger of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Caroll Messenger of Tigard, Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt and Betty Marquardt of Lexington.
