Woman shares music ministry

Heppner Women's Aglow fellowship will meet Tuesday, May 20, 7 p.m. at the Fairgrounds Annex building.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Cheryl Stubblefield Byrnes, 25, who has been given a ministry in music. "She will lead praise and worship and share how God has given her a new freedom in worship and her Christian life," said an Aglow spokesperson.

All women are welcome to attend the fellowship meeting.

Summer schedule begins

The Ione United Church of Christ will change its hour of worship to the summer schedule on Sunday, May 25. Beginning on that day, worship will begin at 10 a.m. This schedule will continue until the Sunday after Labor Day.

The Worship Committee and the pastor, Rev. Cathy Barker, invite everyone to take part in worship this summer. The earlier hour allows plenty of time for recreation and family time after church.

timer to turn lights in the home on and off each evening.

3. Be sure all screens are fastened from the inside.

4. Light up your porch and yard with outdoor lights to increase the likelihood that an attempted burglary would be seen.

5. Cancel all deliveries, be sure to discontinue the newspaper or have friend get it.

6. Leave your shades and blinds as you normally do, closed blinds keep the sun out, but also make an effective screen for the burglar.

7. Notify the Police Department when you'll be leaving and how long you expect to be away.
