Kimberly Hendricks had a boy born May 5 at Good Shepherd Hospital. The young man has been named Anthony James Hendricks.

Carl Smouse and all of the young residents of Betah Enterprises of Hermiston participated in several events in the Special Olympics held at LaGrande last Friday. There was a large attendance, perfect weather and everybody enjoyed the activities. He spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse at the ranch.

Cherelyn Smouse is working as a nurse at Amber Valley Care Center in Pendleton. She comes home on her days off.

George H. Ransom, 82, died Wednesday, May 14, at St. Mary Medical Center in Walla Walla. The services were held at 2 p.m. on Friday at the Wesley United Methodist Church in Milton-Freewater. He was the father of Shirley (Mrs. Lloyd) McNary of Ione.

At the district track meet in Umatilla, Friday and Saturday, Deena Hams took third in the district with her javelin throw. Kris Anderson was third in the 3000 meter and fourth in the 1500 meter. Jerry Anderson placed fourth in 3000 meters for boys, Chris Rea was fifth in the pole vault, and Dan Peterson sixth in high hurdles. The girls' team placed fifth in the district. Deena Hams was the only one to qualify for the state meet to be held in Springfield May 23 and 24.

Peter Longway-Vince and eight others on May 14 went to Jordan Butte to view Halley's Comet. They saw the comet about 11:15 p.m. southwest of the constellation of Cordul. Others going were Jim Gray, Cherry Weber, Laurel and Chris Rea, Gary Rea, Marvin and Dustin Padberg, and Fran Barnett. The eighth grade held their banquet and dance on Friday, May 16.

Eighth grade mothers cooked and served a ham dinner with a special treat of banana splits for dessert. The program consisted of a prayer by Lori McCabe, president of the class; history of the class of 1990, written and given by Melissa Rowell, Linda Morter, and Darcee Padberg. Reading the class will be Brian Doherty, class prophesy by Jennie Martin. Fifteen students started in the first grade and through the years, students have come and gone. This year's class is Jenny Martin, Bryan Basford, Brian Doherty, Shawn Hams, Judy Jepsen, Melissa Rowell, Lori McCabe, Jim Davison, Darcee Padberg, Jo Cupps, Mary Cupps, Amy Wagenblast, Casey Smith, and Linda Morter. Anna Morford is the class advisor.

After the banquet, a dance was held in the gym which was still decorated from the High School Prom. The junior high and high school students were invited to attend. Chaperones were Marvin Padberg, Jean Jepsen, Mrs. Wagenblast, Mrs. Morter, Anna Morford, and Mr. Allen.

$940 was taken in Sunday at the dinner and food sale for Deena Hams' trip to China in July. This was a community affair with organizations donating money, food and helping serve the dinner. Organizations participating were: Lions Club, Willow's Grange, Cardinal Club, Rebekah Lodge, Masonic Lodge, Legion and Auxiliary, garden club, Ione Extension Unit, American Association of University Women, Altar Society of St. William's Catholic Church, women members of the United Church of Christ and ICABO. Members of the community donated pies and cakes for dessert.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Word has been received that Mrs. Bea Gomillion of Athena is now a patient at the Amber Valley Nursing Home, S.W. Hailey and S.W. 37th Pendleton 97801. Mrs. Gomillion is a former Heppner resident and was quite active in the Methodist Church and the Order of the Eastern Star while living here. Her husband, Charlie Gomillion, was formerly the town marshal. He passed away several years ago, and although partially blind, Mrs. Gomillion lived alone until she became ill. She would appreciate hearing from her friends in Heppner.

Relatives and friends here for the Alice Hastings service and who were guests of Mrs. Vern Batty included Mrs. Clarice Henry of San Antonio, Texas, daughter of Mrs. Hastings, and Mrs. Vera Cline, of Salt Lake City, sister of Mrs. Batty. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor were John and Linda Connor and Son, Kevin, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Yvonne Connor and Carrie Connor of San Antonio, Texas; and two grandchildren of the Connors from the valley.

Mrs. Glen Ward, her daughter, Sandra Ward, and Mrs. Grace Buschke, were recent visitors in Kennewick at the home of Mrs. Carol Shipp. Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Shipp are daughters of Mrs. Buschke. The day was spent in visiting, shopping and enjoying lunch.

Harold Stevens of Hardman is a patient in the Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner. He is reported as improving after suffering a heart attack.

Mrs. Helen Currin, Mrs. Marian Brosnan, Mrs. Justine Weatherford, and Mrs. Mary Goheen attended the play "My Three Angels" at Blue Mt. Community College on Sunday. The play was reportedly very well done. Judge and Mrs. Robert Abrams were in the audience.

Saturday, the area meeting for the Soroptimist Clubs in this district was held at the Riverside School in Boardman. Mary Goheen was elected chairman, LaFrance Grubbs of Pendleton, as secretary, and Avis DeRuyter of Pasco, treasurer. In the evening a banquet was held at the Dodge City Inn where the official chartering ceremony was held for the Soroptimist International of North Morrow County. Gov. Roberta Porter of Eugene was present to take part in the ceremony and presented the charter, Maureen Bauer, Hood River, Director of District No. 2 and Clista Venard, Director of District No. 3 were also present as well as Governor-elect Sally Shumway of Baker. Other clubs participating were LaGrande, Pasco-Kennewick, Wallawa County, Baker, Pendleton, and Heppner. Mrs. Jacki Allstott of Heppner was chairman of the Heppner Chartering Committee.

There will be no noon lunches at the Heppner Mealsite on May 26 and June 2. The pioneer picnic will take over next weekend and the following week, the building will be being rewired. The next meal will be June 9.

Bookworms held their last meeting of the year until fall at the home of Mrs. Sylvia McDaniel. Lorena Jones reviewed the book "The Class" by Eric Segal. Ruby Becket was welcomed back after spending the winter with her daughter and family. Ten members, including the hostess were present.

Friends were saddened to hear of the death of Stanley Musgrave of Monument this last week. His wife is the former Edith Stevens of Hardman.

Degree of Honor met last Tuesday with Betty Tanner presiding. Plans were discussed for future activities. A food sale will be held May 23. Nina Denton was hostess for the evening.

May 15 was the birthday of Mrs. Oma Cox, presently in a nursing home in Sheridan, Wyoming. She is able to enjoy cards and would enjoy hearing from old friends.

Mr. Ken Keeling dropped by to see the Carl McDaniels this week. The Keelings are former residents of Heppner.

Mrs. Neva Matteson has had her daughter Wanda as a houseguest this past week.

4-H teens raise money for EXPO trip

Heppner 4-H Teens will hold a bake sale and do yard work to raise money for a mid-July camping trip up the Oregon and Washington coasts to Vancouver, B.C. and a visit to EXPO '86 exhibit.

A baked goods sale will be held in downtown Heppner on Saturday, May 24, beginning at 11 a.m. The public is invited to come sample the homemade goodies baked by the teens. Donations will also be gladly accepted and greatly appreciated.

In conjunction with the baked goods sale, residents of Heppner will have the opportunity to sign up for a complete yard-work crew to come visit their home and do the outside spring cleaning work everyone finds themselves facing this spring. The teens are asking for donations of $25 for a complete yard-work effort, but will be delighted to accept any donations made for their work. If you have an elderly family member for whom you would like to "purchase" the Teen 4-H services, they would be happy to help you. The public is invited to come to the baked goods sale and sign up to have an "Ace 4-H Teen Team" come do your outside spring cleaning for you, said Deirdre Condit Hemple, Teen 4-H Coordinator.

The group is determined that, "no 4-H Teen member shall be excluded from participating because of a lack of money. We just won't let that happen. One way or the other, we'll raise enough," said the teen co-ordinator.

Donations may be made to the 4-H Teen Program C/O Deirdre Condit Hemple, a P.O. Box 629, Heppner, OR 97836.

4-H Clubs

Two Trackers

Jocelyn Jones conducted a show tune up clinic for the club May 4. "We all learned something," said club leader Al Brazell.

Last Sunday the club again met at Robinson's feed lot and continued with trail riding and conformation judging.

There will be no meeting May 25, due to the holiday weekend and the Pioneer Picnic.

Please read next week's paper for details of our summer schedule.

Dr. Rolen to expand services

Dr. Robert Rolen, optometrist, is expanding his services to every Tuesday and the first and third Fridays of each month. His new hours will be 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

His office is located in the Heppner Hotel Building on Main Street.

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones 989-8189

A committee from Holly Rebekah Lodge was busy one morning last week when they put up half barrels and planted them with petunias at the cemetery gates. Hopefully they will bloom by Memorial Day. However, cold nights have not helped the project.

Cecil and Delpha Jones attended Greenfield Grange on Monday evening in Boardman. The program was the Pioneer Security Police force in Pendleton. They are getting started in Boardman, and expressed the desire to come to the Ione and Lexington area. They check businesses and residents and report unusual happenings to the police. They hope to employ local people. Bob Bass of Boardman, and John Cleveland were the members present. Jane Dean was introduced as Boardman's Mother of the Year. She had received a beautiful plaque. The evening ended with cake and coffee and visiting. Delpha is the Wheatland Pomona County Deputy.

Work is starting on the Oddfellow building by Dick Rice, and will house a new business for Lexington.

Garden Bugs meet at Padberg home

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington Garden Bugs held their regular meeting at the home of Annetta Padberg, the Yard of Month is that of Marvin and Carol Peterson. They have a large well-kept and neat yard.

Another work day was held at the park: weeds were pulled, petunias and roses planted. One more work day is planned and will put the park in good shape.

May 29 is the date set for the trip to Maryhill Castle. All garden club members who wish to go meet at the school house at 8 a.m. Each is asked to bring a sack lunch.

A contest for the most improved yard of the season is being held once again. This contest goes from May through September and the winners will receive a gift certificate from Del's Nursery.

Delta Huber gave a most interesting lesson on Iris Culture.

Door prizes were won by Margie Ball, Luella Taylor, Marie Steagall, and Eula Bloodsworth.

Garden Club will meet at Dorothy Burcham's in June with Lois Allyn giving a lesson on insects that give the most trouble in the yard. You may bring a troublesome insect.

Those present were Lois Allyn, Dorothy Burcham, Marie Steagall, Eula Bloodsworth, Delta Huber, Frances Murty, Luella Taylor, Kathy Tellechea and the hostess.

Three Ionians return from European tour

By Eva Hamlett

Don Bristow and Marilyn and Bill Rietmann left Ione on April 16 for a three week tour of Europe.

They were met at the Frankfurt airport by the Rietmann's son, Brian, his wife, Sharon, and son, Andrew.

After spending three days in Schweinfurt, Germany, where the younger Rietmanns live, the six of them rented a Volkswagen van and were off to explore Europe.

Their travels took them to Rothenburg, Munich, Dachau, and Berchtesgaden, Germany, and on into Austria, where they visited Salzburg and Innsbruck. From there, they continued on to Zurich, Lucerne, Lausanne, and Geneva, Switzerland, back into Germany, through the Black Forest to Heidelberg, and on to Paris, where they visited the usual tourist attractions.

They enjoyed getting off the beaten track and visiting the many small, picturesque cities and villages, and stopping for the night at small, charming hotels and gasthouses. A visit to several castles, the Hummel Factory near Coburg, Germany, a gondola ride to the top of the Austrian Alps, and a cruise on the Rhine River, were some of the places of interest along the route.

Although Bristow and the Rietmanns left, with some reservations, just two days after the United States' bombing of Libya, they never felt uncomfortable or threatened by the possibility of terrorist attacks.

They reported the food good, the people friendly, the scenery beautiful, and the European currency challenging at best.

The three agreed it will be a trip long remembered, and look forward to the possibility of more European travel in the future.

Garden Club hears humorous essay

By Eva Hamlett

"A Gardner's Dream", a humorous essay of the recollection of the flowers that bloom in her garden throughout the year, was the subject presented by Delpha Jones at the Ione Garden Club meeting on Wednesday, May 14. The meeting was held at the home of Loree Hubbard with Ruth McCabe assisting. Guest for the day was Regina Coles.

At the business meeting, reports were made on a successful plant sale and that six members had attended District No. 10 meeting at Pendleton. Plans were discussed for attendance at the Flower Show School Course II in Pendleton on September 30 and October 1. Members also made suggestions for programs for the coming year.

4-H teens may apply for state fair staff positions

High school-age 4-H members in Morrow County can get a "behind the scenes" look at 4-H activities at the 1986 Oregon State Fair as members of the teen staff, reports Birdine Tullis, Morrow County Program Assistant for the Oregon State University Extension Service.

About 20 4-H members will be selected for the State Fair teen staff this year. Assignments as the state fairgrounds in Salem range from one to three days. The 4-H'ers assist with such tasks as arranging exhibits, registering contest participants and answering questions about the 4-H program, she said.

Young people selected for State Fair teen staff will receive room and board while in Salem.

Those interested must have their applications in the county Extension Office by July 1. Those selected will be notified in mid-July. Application forms, and additional information, are available at all county Extension Offices.
