Linda Van Winkle, former Lexingtonite and daughter of Gladys Van Winkle is graduating this week from law school in Los Angeles, California. Going down for the occasion was her mother, Gladys Van Winkle, and sister Leora Koffman and son Patrick, Josie Bradd, Mrs. Bob Van Winkle and daughters Teressa and Christie.

Mr and Mrs. Tom Bradd (Glenda Kay) are the proud parents of a son James Micheal born in Salem. The young man weighed 8 lbs. 11 oz. Maternal grandmothers are Gladys Van Winkle of Salem and great grandmother Sally Lowry of Mt. Vernon and Mrs. Bradd of Salem. He joins a sister Josie at home.

Megan McCabe of Pendleton visited her grandparents Dorothy and John Edwards last week. She is the daughter of Lori and Ken McCabe.

Cecil and Delpha Jones attended the Rhea Creek Grange on Friday evening at the home of Muriel and Elmer Palmer. There was a good crowd in attendance. Pomona Grange will be hosted by Rhea Creek in July at Anson Wright Park. This will be the yearly memorial.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday for the regular meeting with the V.G. Annetta Padberg in the chair. Reports on the Assembly in Pendleton were given by the delegates Virginia Peck and Delpha Jones. Leila Palmer was presented her D.D.P. appointment for 1986-87. Plans were discussed for a "Fathers Day" food sale at Del's Market. The last meeting for the six months period will be a potluck picnic at the park for the Rebekahs Oddfellows, and their families. This is also the quarterly birthday party with the gift exchange. Refreshments were enjoyed.

Certificates for 100% eye bank donation and Educational loan fund were presented to the lodge.

Lexington Grange will meet on Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. at the Jean Nelson home with a potluck dinner, served in the yard. A relaxing meeting is planned so grangers are encouraged to try and attend.
