

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones 989-8189

Hear 'n Their

By Eva Hamlett 422-7557

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Padberg recently attended the graduation of their grandson Mark Klinger from Beaverton High. The exercises were held at the University of Portland Auditorium in Portland. There were 601 in the class. Helen Crawford from Lone was also present. Mark is the son of the late Kenneth and Arlita McCabe Klinger.

Lance Klinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Klinger returned home with the Padbergs where he will spend some time in visiting there and at the John Ledbetter farm.

Charlene Whitney was a Saturday night visitor with her parents Cecil and Delpha Jones. They enjoyed a Father's Day dinner that evening with other guests Mike and Chris Jones and father Kenneth.

Chris Jones is wearing a patch over his eye this week from the effects of something getting into his eye.

Three Links Club met at the home of Donna Papineau, on Thursday. The main business was the Food Sale, and potluck dinner which will be held at the park on Thursday evening. This is for the Oddfellows and Rebekahs and families. This is also the Birthday meeting and cake will be enjoyed. The door prize was won by Dorothy Jackson. Those present for lovely refreshments were, Dorothy Jackson, Luella Taylor, Leila Palmer, Kathy Tellechea, Ruth Robinson, Dorothy Burcham, Virginia Peck, and the hostess.

T.E. Messenger returned to his home last week following major surgery at Kadlec Hospital in Richland, Washington. Visitors over the weekend were son and wife Gerry and Sue Messenger from Portland. Sons Carroll and Franklin had been visitors from the Portland area while he was in the hospital.

Darlene Klinger and children Shane and Sheridan are visiting relatives and friends in Morrow County from their home in Ket-chikan, Alaska. The children will spend some time with their father Victor Klinger at his home in Lexington.

Betty Marquardt and daughter Jana are spending a few days in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Marquardt and sons were Portland visitors where they attended the graduation from Portland State of a son Philip. The exercises were held in the Portland Coliseum. Following the graduation Mrs. Marquardt entertained friends and relatives with a reception honoring her husband.

Clay Grace received a Bachelors degree in Engineering from Oregon State University. Betty and Jana Marquardt, Bob and Sheree Smith and Joyce Hughes and daughter Jaclynn attended commencement ceremonies.

Reunions planned during June

By Eva Hamlett

The descendants of J.D. and Mary Johnson Ball are planning a family reunion in Lone on June 28th at the American Legion Hall. Family registration is at 10:30 a.m. with a potluck dinner scheduled at 12:30. Family members from Florida, Illinois, California, Washington, Arizona and Idaho, have indicated they will attend. Friends are invited to visit after 2:30 p.m. For more information please call Lorriane Ball at 422-7235.

Morgan area annual reunion will be held June 29 at Snell Riverside Park in Arlington. Potluck picnic is planned at noon with coffee furnished by the committee. For more information call Lorene Griffith at 422-7448.

The United Church of Christ Auction was a big success. The proceeds totaled over $12,500, although they served fewer people at the barbecue than in past years.

Chuck Wilhelm, Intern minister for the United Church of Christ had the misfortune to break his arm this last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Martin, and son Brent of Richland were recent visitors at the Roy Martin home north of Lexington, having come over for Susan Martin's graduation from Heppner High School. They also visited with Cathy's mother, Mrs. Norma Rea.

Kristen Miller graduated from Lake Oswego Jr. High on June 2. Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and children Kara and Justin and Mrs. Pat Pettyjohn attended the event. Kristen came home with them for a visit.

Beecher and Betty Emert are visiting at the home of Marsha White for a couple of weeks.

Arthur Bergstrom of Arlington is visiting at the home of his mother, Mary Bergstrom.

Joe Halvorsen was a delegate to the Masonic Lodge convention in Portland last week.

The 1986 Oregon TAC Junior Olympic Championship was held June 13, 14, 15 at McCullough Stadium in Salem. Trevor McCoin, son of Bill and Patti McCoin, attends Olex grade school, and competed in the 11 and 12 year old group. He won the Midget boys high jump and midget boys shot put, winning two gold medals and qualifying him to compete in the Jr. Olympic Regional Championship to be held at Shoreline Stadium in Seattle, Washington on July 10, 11, 12, and 13. Bill, Patti, Katie and Pat Pettyjohn drove to Salem to attend the meet.

Mary Bristow has returned to her home in Lone after a stay at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland. She is recovering very nicely.

A party was held at the ranch home of Muriel Palmer on June 11 in honor of Dot Halvorsen's birthday. Other guests attending were Helen Crawford, Lou McIntosh, Helen Pettyjohn, Geneva Palmer, Maryanne Palmer, Carmen French, Buelah Sherer, Mary Wright and Marjorie Vireson of Hermiston.

Descendants of Menzo and Mary Jane Olden, homesteaders in the Fairview district south of Lone, in 1884, met at Sorosis Park in The Dalles, Sunday, June 8, for their 34th annual reunion and picnic.

Members of the family of Jessie Olden Henderson attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Henderson, their son Larry of Hood River; their daughter Betty McTavish, Joe and Marissa, of Gresham, and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Henderson of Summerville.

Gladys Snider, Harold and Joyce Snider are members of the Grant Olden family.

Descendants of Lola Olden McCabe at the picnic were: Cliff and Winona McCabe of Clackamas, Shirley and Don Harris of Boring, Eleanor and Lyman Farrar, and Bill Vaw of Portland, Ron and Peg McCabe of Gresham, Tom and Michell and Rachelle of Oak Harbor, Washington, Mary and Greg Binder and Stacy of Portland, Charlotte and Raymond Lundell of Eugene, Annabelle and Howard Eubanks of Condon, Marlene Davidson and Jim of Lexington, Gary George and Kristine of Beaverton, Ernie and Mary Jean McCabe of Heppner, Elizabeth, Kenn McKinney and Ray Heeringa of Lynden, Washington, Helen Crawford, Ruth McCabe, Ashley and Cathy McCabe, Adam and Meghan, all of Lone.

Friends joining the group were, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drake of The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hamm, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tanner of Lyle, Washington, and Lisa Ackley of Beaverton.

Mr and Mrs. Henry Bushcke of Grants Pass have been visiting his brother, Lewis Buschke and other relatives in the Lone-Heppner area.

A large crowd attended the open house for Gladys Drake on her 80th birthday. Relatives from out of town were: Ernie Drake from Fairfield, California; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drake from The Dalles; Deloris and Ray Turner from Vancouver, Washington; Monty and Gale Turner from Washougal, Washington; Tammie Williams, Nola and Guy, and Ryan Rowell from McNary; Mike Rowell from Heppner; Melissa Rowell of Lexington; Billie, Jean, David and Darin Lundell, Ruth Lundell, Norma Lou Lundell, Carl Bridgerman, Doug and Diane (Lundell) Crawley all from Milwaukie; and Mike and Hazel Lewis from Irrigon. Other guests were Claudine and Paul Warren, Sandy Bennett, and Mildred Padberg from Heppner, and Bill Nichols from Lexington.

Karin Bristow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bristow of Tillamook, received her Bachelor of Science degree at Oregon State University on June 8.

Douglas J. Bristow and his wife Dustina O. Bristow, both received degrees during the University of Oregon Commencement Exercises held at Eugene on June 15. Douglas received his Master of Arts, and Dustina received her Bachelor of Science, both in the field of sociology. Douglas will continue his schooling until he receives his Doctorate in Sociology. Dustina is presently seeking employment and undecided about attending graduate school. Douglas is the son of John L. Bristow, and all are the grandchildren of Mary Bristow.

Sandra, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swanson, of Portland, and Joseph, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard V. Brock of Beaverton, were united in marriage, on Saturday, June 7 at noon at Saint Cecilia's Catholic Church in Beaverton. A reception was held in the Forestry Center. Following the reception all went to the home of Norman Swanson where an unplanned family reunion was held. All of the second and third generation of Mary and Emil Swanson were there except John Swanson, and Beverly (McMillan) Ramsey. Those attending known in this area were Irene Swanson, Jean Ann and Kenny Turner from Heppner; Adon and Eva Hamlett, Jim and Monica Swanson from Lone; Richard and Tom Hamlett, and Laura Johnson from Portland; Sharlene Arends from Irrigon; and Denny, Joann and Erin Swanson from Auburn, Washington.

In the wedding party were three of Joseph's brother's, Pete, Dan and Jerry Brock, who are all NFL Football players. Each one plays with a different team New England Patriots, Atlantic Falcons, and the New Orleans Saints. On Portland T.V. news on Thursday, they showed the Brock brothers having a three-day football camp at Wahtonka High School in The Dalles for high school football players. Two other NFL players from the Saints and one from the Falcons joined the brothers in this venture which they hope to continue.

Recent guests of Mrs. Alena Anderson were her daughter, Mrs. Dee Erdmann of Portland and her brother, Boyd Redding and his wife, Lois. They attended the Pioneer Picnic and took care of the family graves. Mr. and Mrs. Redding are retired and travel extensively. They were called home by illness in their family.

Mrs. Merna Toll was pleased to have as her guest, Mrs. Ruth Hessey of Yakima on Wednesday. They are friends of long standing and hadn't seen each other since last June.

Gib Griffith of Spray, grandson of Mrs. Merna Toll visited with her Monday and went home on Tuesday. He is a student at Blue Mountain Community College. He is also a grandson of Mrs. Eva Griffith.

Bradley Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson of Arlington, graduated from Oregon State University at Corvallis in the School of Business Administration. He is the grandson of Mrs. Mildred Wright of Ruggs. Patrick Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark graduated from the School of Agriculture. Those attending the graduation were Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rietmann, Mrs. Mildred Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark, Mr. Barton Clark, grandfather of Patrick, of Heppner. There were approximately 3,000 graduates in the class.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Vera Brinda were her older son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brinda, and their children, Tammy and Billy from Salt Lake City, Utah; her sister, Mrs. Mildred Mitchell and her daughters, Mrs. Punkie Yourin and Peggy Briar, of Nampa, Idaho. Also, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Blanche Nichols and her son, Hugh Nichols and Larry Brinda, of Boise, Idaho, son of Mrs. Brinda. They were here to attend the wedding of John Stevens at the Christian Church in Pendleton.

Mrs. Nina Denton recently visited Phoenix, Arizona, where she attended the high school graduation of her granddaughter, Bernadine Applegate. She spent a week with her family there and enjoyed some sightseeing, especially in the Red Rock Country.

Sandi Adams of Portland, daughter of Mrs. Doll Campbell and her friend, Kathi Rodabaugh and her daughter, Angela, were Friday night guests of her mother. Sandi also visited with brother, Dennis Campbell, while here. They left Saturday morning for Baker.

Mrs. Neola Mackey and Mrs. Betty Tanner recently attended a three day Region 10 board meeting in Spokane. This is in connection with their work with the Blue Mountain Economic Development Council.

Mr. Hi Compton and Mrs. Sarah Powell visited the Neighborhood Center and Mrs. Pat Scott recently. They took pictures of the Courthouse for Challenge '88 which is an organization promoting tourism.

In talking with Mrs. Sadie Parrish today, she confirmed the news that she was selling her house and retiring to Portland. After working with her for nine years, I know I shall miss her. She took her work as County Clerk very seriously.

Degree of Honor met at the home of Mrs. Mary Bryant last Tuesday, with Mrs. Ida Lynn as co-hostess. Present were Betty Tanner-president, Vivian McConnell, Mildred Padberg, Joyce Breeding, Bernice Nash, Shirley Connor, Adelle LaTrace, Eleanor Gonty, Nina Denton, Ida Farra, Mary Bryant and Ida Lynn.

Earns BA at Oregon

Michael R. Conklin, Lone, is among nearly 3,700 degree candidates eligible to participate in spring commencement ceremonies at the University of Oregon in Eugene. Conklin will receive a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing.

Moving Sale

Sat., June 21
8 a.m. - 8 p.m.

- Furniture
- Lionel Train Set
- 160 Honda
- Clothing (from 3 families)
- Appliances & Misc.

Corner of 3rd & B Streets
IN LONE

Catch the Fever and save!

CASE IH PARTS FEVER WEEK, JUNE 16-JUNE 21

SAVE 10%
off regular J I Case suggested list prices

PARTS VALUE OF THE MONTH!

Come on in for some really hot prices during Parts Fever Week. For one week only you'll save 10 percent on all the Case, International and Case International agricultural equipment parts and accessories we have on our shelves. Purchase $500 or more worth of these parts during Parts Fever Week and you'll receive a rebate check for 10% of your total directly from J I Case. Come in and save!

Morrow County Grain Growers Inc.
Phone: 989-8221 1-800-452-7396

You Are Invited To A
FREE TRAINING SEMINAR

RELDAN 4E

Handling & Proper Application

- Morrow County Grain Growers
- Doby's Pest Control
- Pettyjohn's Oil Company

SEMINAR HOSTED BY:

Ruud's Hearing Aids

Offering FREE Hearing Examination for
NERVE DEAFNESS in Heppner

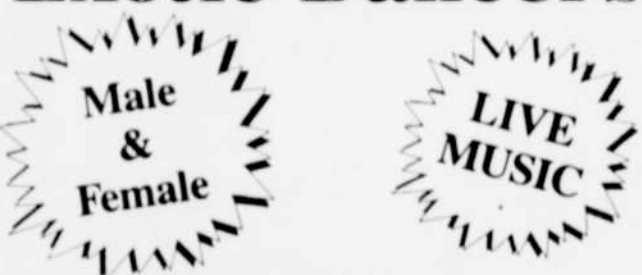

Thursday, June 26

10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Gonty's

676-9264

Call for an appointment

Exotic Dancers

June 28, 9 p.m. - 2 a.m.

No Minors Allowed After 8:30 p.m.

OFFICE TAVERN 422-7577 Lone

THINK Cheese

Sunny Delight
Citrus Punch 64 oz.	$1.29
Land O Frost or Western Family
Thin Sliced Meat 2 1/2 oz.	3 for 99¢
Western Family
Turkey Ham (whole)	$1.29 lb.
Bold 3
Liquid Detergent 64 oz.	$3.89 ea.
No. 1
Potatoes 10 lb. bag	79¢ ea.
Tomatoes	59¢ lb.
Oranges	25¢ lb.
Nectarines	43¢ lb.
Top Sirloin Steak	$2.59 lb.
Boneless Beef
Round Steak	$1.59 lb.

Prices Good June 19-23
Open 7 days a week, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Court Street Market

111 N Court Heppner 676-9643

Tillamook Cheese
Baby Loaf 2 lb.
Medium or Sharp
$4.39

Fresh Broccoli
39¢ lb.

OREGON LOTTERY