

Country Club hosts visitation

You won't see any big name golfers at the Willow Creek Country Club this weekend, but with 102 golfers competing the action should be fierce, reports a club spokesperson. The event will get underway at 7 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Sunday's play is followed by a Sole Survivor of the low 20 scores from Saturday's round, this should begin around 3:30 to 4 p.m.

Three-time defending champion, Treve Gray should be labeled as the favorite; but he will be challenged by several golfers from out-of-town and by a handfull of locals.

Some of the favorites for low gross honors are Ernie Christianson from Tacoma, Washington, Scott Taylor, Gresham, Rick Bordenkircher, Pendleton; Gary Alexanian, Boardman, Mick Rothwell, Burns, and Norm Grey from Hillsboro.

Hometown men that could be in the running include Don Lott, John Edmundson, John Boyer, Gary Watkins and Ron Bowman.

Thanks to the efforts of Kit George and Charlie Rawlins the course is in great shape and there are few surprises for the men trying to lower their scores, says a club spokesperson.

Once again, besides merchandise, the golfers are trying to win one of the handcrafted trophies made by Johnny Shaw for low gross and low net honors in each of the four flights.

Tee off time starts at 7 a.m. Saturday and Sunday and continues through most of the day. The public is invited to come and watch the competition at no charge.
