

12th annual reunion held

By Eva Hamlett

Fifty-eight descendants of Bertha Jackson Cool, and Art Jackson, and LaUna Jackson Crowell, gathered at the Howard Crowell residence in lone for their 12th Annual Reunion on the weekend of July 12.

The highlight of Saturday's get-together was a surprise birthday cake for Doris Gollyhorn and Mary Bergstrom. On Sunday the Howard Crowells were honored for their 35th anniversary.

Guests came from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana. Guests were: Al and Bonnie Rosenbush, of Nachez, Washington; Ed and Kay Davis and son Mike of Puyallup, Washington; Maude Cool, Jim and Helen Cool and sons of Chelan, Washington; Melvin and Carol Cash, of Tacoma, Washington; Delouris Stevens and Janice, Frank and Diana Cool of Wenatche, Washington; Dorothy Cool, Cheryl Wooley of Spokane, Washington; Delbert Cool, Hot Springs, Montana; Bill and Edna Cool and two grandsons from Joseph; Fred and Mable Miller from Post Falls, Idaho; Ed Winkleman from Monument; Wilbur and Marie Steagall, Lexington; and from lone besides the host and hostess, June and Howard Crowell were: Sharon and Andrew Rietmann, Gene and Kristy Crowell and two children, Art and Bill Rowell, Doris Gollyhorn and Mary Bergstrom, Ed and Mardene Patton, Eric and Jennifer Patton, Tim Patton and Tyler, Jim and Brenda Larsen, Bob and Phyllis Perry, Sylvia Ladd and Dot Halvorsen, Rick and Karen Kandle and three children.

Walters yard honored

Yard-of-the-month in lone is at the home and beauty salon of Clea Walters where Birch Street meets West Main.

Two clumps of bright pink phlox, one in front of the beauty shop and one by the steps to the mobile home tie the two buildings together and a mass of petunias the same color as the phlox combine to create pleasingly bright accent color.

Two patio planters of marigolds on the doorstep of the salon are echoed by marigolds the center of a nearly circular flower bed edged with sweet allyseum. Purple petunias planted between the edging of allyseum and the center of marigolds, promise added color in weeks to come, said a garden club spokesperson.

The yard is framed on the north along Main Street and around part of the front by a lilac hedge, in the back by fruit trees all well cared for.

Wright chosen 4-H ambassador

A special ceremony at the 4-H Center in Salem honored Oregon's finest 4-H'ers chosen as Oregon 4-H Ambassadors.

Among those stepping up to receive the medallion and honors was Kim Wright of Heppner.

Kim, daughter of Ken and Judy Wright, received the designation as a result of nine years of 4-H achievements in clothing, fashion revue, teen leadership and sheep projects.

The Ambassador program and the weekend training workshop for the Oregon Ambassadors is sponsored by Farm Credit Services.
