

Richardson to show soup skills

Sandi (Carlson) Richardson, owner and operator of Sandi's Soups, Breads, and Catering Shop in Bend will demonstrate soup and hors d'oeuvres cooking on the stage in the main exhibit hall at the fair from 9:30 a.m. - 12 noon Friday, Aug. 15.

ing and special Mexican beef dishes at the 1985 fair were popular, says a fair spokesperson, and many people requested her return.

Well known in the Bend area for her catering service and fine soups, Sandi makes her presentations entertaining as well as informational.

4-H quilt on display

Birdine Tullis shows 4-H skills contest quilt.

Tickets for a 4-H clothing skills contest quilt will be on sale at this year's fair. The quilt made by 4-H contestants will be on display at the 4-H Annex during fair. The raffle will be held Saturday evening during the Fashion Revue and Awards Ceremony.

The Boardman Homemaker's Club has put the blocks together with each contestant's name by her block. Ruth McCabe of Lone chose the fabric and design for the quilt; she also oversees the contest each year.
