

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

--In a note from the proud grandparents Judge and Mrs. Robert Abrams, they announced the birth of a son, Jonathon Goddard (Jack) Rick to Elizabeth Abrams Rick and Tony Rick of Portland. The baby weighed 7 lbs. 2 oz. and was born in Portland July 29. Grandparents are Robert and Zella Rick of Houston, Texas, and the Abrams from Pendleton. Little Jonathon joins a sister, Sarah Frances Rick, at home. Everyone is well.

--Mrs. Edith Musgrave of Monument and her daughter, Mirinda Stuart, are guests of Harold and Helen Stevens at Hardman. Mrs. Musgrave is a sister of Harold.

--The Condon, Spray and Heppner Seventh-Day Adventist Churches had their annual meeting at Bull Prairie this weekend. Approximately 35 people were present. The group from the Heppner Church sang at the Nursing Home yesterday.

--Mrs. Millie Evans, Mrs. Grace Buschke and Louis Buschke of Lone are going to Grants Pass on Friday for a surprise birthday party for Henry Buschke and a family reunion of the Buschke family. They plan to return on Monday.

--The Senior Citizens went to Ir-rigon Monday for dinner. The dinners will not be held here until after Fair and Rodeo.

--The Glen Ward family were in Haines this weekend for a family reunion of the Ward family.

--Margaret Britner, Scott and Jimmy Cason drove to Walla Walla today to meet her sons, Ted and Leonard, who have been spending some time with their father.

--Rev. and Mrs. Ed Cutting were overnight guests of Mrs. Ida Farra Sunday night. They were on their way home from a two month trip to Minnesota where Doris' family had a reunion of 10 brothers and sisters. In addition, all of the Cuttings' six children were there to help Ed and Doris celebrate their 49th wedding anniversary. They left for home today.

--Word has been received that Eric Connor has been moved from Walla Walla to Pendleton to his sister's home. His mother is staying with him.

--Mrs. Virginia Rosewall is moving to Pendleton this week to the CamLu Apartments. Mrs. Garnet Huddleston had a group of friends in her honor this Saturday. We wish her the best of everything in her new location. The Rosewalls have been a part of Heppner for many years. They had a garage and automobile dealership on the corner of May and Main streets for many years.

--Tom and Garnet Huddleston and Tom's parents, Bill and Callie Huddleston of Hermiston drove to Hood River to a park there where they celebrated Callie Huddleston's 80th birthday. Her identical twin sister, Bertha Street, from Redding, California, and her husband Rollie, joined them for the celebration. Also present were Billy Jean and Ken Waud and their family, daughter of Callie and Bill, and Tom and Garnet Huddleston, son and their children and their families. Harve Moore, brother of Callie and Bertha, was present with his family. 35 were present for the potluck dinner and birthday celebration.

--Mrs. Evelyn Warren took Mrs. Martha King to Pendleton recently to see her new grandson, James Ronald King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl King. He was born August 1, and weighed 7 lb. 9 oz. He joins a sister and brother at home. Mrs. Martha King also has a new great granddaughter, Lelani, born July 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Quinn Silva of Hayward, California. The former Mary Shannon, who attended high school here is the baby's grandmother.

--Mrs. Luella Harris, Mike and Amber Vejreska, went to Albany to help Mrs. Harris' father celebrate his 94th birthday. He drives his own car, does his own housework and is generally very active. The party was held at Mrs. Harris' sister's home. There were four generations present, with her father, Mrs. Harris, her son, Mike, and his daughter, Amber. On their way to Albany they stopped at Bonneville at the new visitor's center and hatchery. The huge sturgeon is still there and has been for years.

--The TOPS Club met and made final plans for the fourth annual Rodeo Parade Breakfast on Saturday Aug. 16 at the City Park. It is open to the public.

Rudisill yard honored for Aug.

Ione Garden Club selected the yard of Marie and Jim Rudisill at the end of "D" street for the August Yard of the Month. Their colorful yard cannot be seen very well from Third Street. They have well-cared-for gladiolas, dahlias, liatris, calendula and roses blooming around the perimeter of the east and south sides of the apartment. A draped rope from short blocks of wood divides the grass and the street. New shrubs are planted along the south side of the green lawn. Neighboring trees shade the area in early morning and on hot evenings providing a restful spot.

The Rudisills have lived in this apartment for two years although they have been in Ione four years. They have two daughters, Angie and Candi, who attend Ione High School. Jim is an employee of Doby's Pest Control and Marie is the city Recorder, school bus driver and part-time clerk at Bristow's Market.

Many prizes awarded at couples tournament

Last weekend 31 local and out-of-town couples enjoyed the second annual Willow Creek Country Club Couples Golf Tournament.

On Saturday, groups of three couples each teed off on the first hole at 15-minute intervals. At the end of play, couples were placed in one of two flights, depending on the day's score.

Tournament Chairman Jim Wishart reports that during the first day of play, Les Paustain lost the wheel on his pull cart seven times — a bit unusual, Wishart said.

Dinner and dancing at the Elks Club completed Saturday's tournament events with special awards including: KP, Hole No. 4 and 13 - Wanda Willis and Treve Gray; KP, second shot, Hole No. 1 and 10 - Sara Riney and Ted Toll; KP, second shot, Hole No. 8 and 17 - Vicki Courtright and Vern Willis; long drive, Hole No. 6 and 15 - a tie between Ann Cutsforth and Vickie Brookshire and Ron Bowman, chip-ins - Ed Hiemstra and Wanda Willis.

Sunday's play began with a shotgun start for all participants at 8 a.m. After completion of 18 holes, standings were determined and prizes awarded for eight places in each of the two flights.

First Flight: John Edmundson and Vicki Brookshire, 126, engraved watches; Treve Gray and Jill Hauke, 131, camping equipment; Gary Hunt and Lois Hunt, 134, engraved knife; Ron Gray and Vicki Courtright, 137, camping equipment; Eileen Padberg and Bill Perkins, 138, hat or gloves; Ed Gunderson and Bev Gunderson, 141, three golf balls; Vern Willis and Wanda Willis, 141, three golf balls; and Ron Bowman and Cindy Jarvis, 142, golf tees and a gag bag.

Second flight: Frank Bailey and Neoma Bailey, 143, engraved watches; Wally Boe and Rosemary Boe, 146, camping gear; Pat Edmundson and Charlie Rawlins, 151, engraved knife; Roy Martin and Juanita Martin, 153, hat or gloves; Ted Toll and Trish Toll, 153, hat or gloves; Chuck Sayle and Maxine Sayle, 155, two golf balls; and Eldon Gilbert and Barb Cutsforth, 155, a gag golf ball and bag of tees. Gary Watkins broke his nine-iron, Wishart reported, but said he suspected that it was Barb who broke the club when she hit Gary.

Special events awards for Sunday's play were:

First Flight: KP, second shot on No. 1 and 10 - Les Paustain and Jill Hauke; KP, No. 4 and 13 - John Edmundson and Bev Gunderson; Long Drive, No. 6, 15 - Treve Gray and Cindy Jarvis; KP, second shot, No. 8 and 17 - John Edmundson and Jill Hauke.

Second Flight: KP, second shot, No. 1, 10 - Ed Struthers and Juanita Martin; KP, No. 4 and 13 - Ed Struthers and Geri Martin; Long Drive, No. 6 and 15 - Frank Bailey and Pat Edmundson; KP, second shot, No. 8 and 17 - Wally Boe and Maxine Sayle.

"We all had a grand time," Wishart concluded.

Heppnerites travel to Reno

By Justine Weatherford

Eleanor Gonty, son Tom Gonty and Mary Goheen of Heppner were part of a 28-person bus tour to Reno and other points from early Sunday, July 27, until Thursday evening, July 31. They spent two nights in Reno, one at Lake Tahoe and one at Winnemucca. A high spot of this trip for Eleanor and Mary was seeing Eddie Arnold stage show at Harrah's Club in Reno.

The bus took them south via Ontario to Reno, and after the fun there they had stops at Virginia City, Carson City, and Lake Tahoe before their Wednesday night at Winnemucca. As they came homeward, they enjoyed a lunch stop at Jordan Valley at a Basque eatery and an afternoon break at Farewell Bend where they saw Clyde and Eunice Pettijohn, formerly of Heppner, who operate a motel and restaurant there.

Ronald Crabtree, formerly from Ione, received the General Ralph Haines award for outstanding student research after completing a six-month Sergeant Major training school at Fort Bliss, Texas. The "most prestigious award" available at the academy was presented for Crabtree's work on a thesis he was required to complete at the school, a family member reported.

He was also promoted to Sergeant Major upon completion of the school.

Crabtree was one of 11 National Guardsmen from among 360 U.S. applicants chosen to attend the academy and was the only guardsman selected from his current home state, Washington. He joined the National Guard in April, 1965. He has been employed with the Seattle Fire Dept. since January, 1968.

His parents, Leo and Irene Crabtree of Ione were among 85 guests at a party July 26 at the Ron Crabtree home in honor of his graduation.

Beautician retires

By Justine Weatherford
One of Heppner's veteran professional beauticians, Charlene Isom, has been forced to retire because of health problems.

She has worked since 1936 when she served as an apprentice in Umatilla and Hermiston. After she qualified for her license she operated shops of her own. She returned for more training at Styling School in the early 1950s and then ran her shop at Enterprise until she moved to Echo in the early 1970s. She stayed there a little over a year and came to Heppner in 1973 where she was been working in Lois Winchester's Shop for the past 13 years.

She presently intends to continue to live in Heppner.
