

Ione woman bakes first place wheat cake

Rikka Tews of Ione won first prize for the Apple Walnut cake she baked for the Morrow County Wheat Growers League annual baking contest held at the Morrow County Fair. Each county in Oregon may hold a contest using the official cake recipe named by the Oregon Wheat Growers League. The contest is a promotional effort of the OWGL Consumer Programs committee encouraging use of soft white wheat by Oregon consumers. Sarah Carlson represented the Morrow county consumer committee in presenting the ribbons. Second place was won by Barbara Bloodsworth and third place by Bebe Munkers. The Morrow County wheat League presented a wheat trivet to Kenny Lynn Smouse, the lucky winner of a drawing Saturday afternoon at the Morrow County Fair.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant 676-9493

--Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Merna Toll were her son, Leonard, and his wife, Lorine, from Woodburn. Also her granddaughter, Tami Till, and her infant son, Robert, from Pendleton. In addition, Ted and Trish Toll, son and daughter-in-law from Heppner and Don and Joann Griffith, and their son, Gib, from Spray.

--The Raymond French ranch on Butter Creek was the scene of the Denton Family reunion on Saturday and Sunday, August 16 and 17. Hosts were Jim and Susie Ward, who make their home there.

Present were the children of Edgar and Nettie Denton, deceased, of Wallowa; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rivera of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton of Milton-Freewater; Howard Denton of Richland, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French of Heppner; and Mr. and Mrs. David Peterson of Condon. Approximately 50 people were present, which included the various families. One sister was unable to be present.

--Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bunch of Irrigon are the proud parents of a new son, Brian William Bunch, who was born August 10 and weighed 8 lbs. 9 1/2 oz. Mr. and Mrs. Al Bunch of Heppner drove to Irrigon on Sunday to see the new baby. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Irrigon are the maternal grandparents.

--The first weekend of August Justine Weatherford's daughter Ann Haberlach Chenhall and her husband Ray and their children, Thomas 10, and Pearl, 6, came visiting from Cheney, Washington. The second weekend brought Weatherford's older son, Frank Ross Haberlach from Port Orchard, Washington for a two-night visit.

During the fair Bill Weatherford III and children, Billy Eugene, 10, and Bonnie Anne, 6, have been camping in the Weatherford backyard. CPO Bill is still on duty with the U.S. Navy; his wife Teresa is employed at the Hotel Del Coronado's office in San Diego and was unable to leave her work this month. The Weatherfords are also visiting the children's grandmother Adelle LaTrace and their aunt Bonnie Buschke.

Karla Weatherford Weaver and her husband Rick and their children, Abiah Lucile, 6, and Jacob Marion, 4, came from Yakima to set up a second tent near the one of Karla's brother. The three San Diego Weatherfords and the four Yakima Weavers enjoyed the Saturday parade, the rodeo and the fair and seeing a few of their friends here.

The Weavers left on Sunday afternoon; the Weatherfords will need to return to San Diego before August 28.

--Recently Mrs. Sherry Demer and son, Danny, 3, visited the Al Bunch's for a short time. They are granddaughter and great grandson, respectively, of Al and Betty Bunch.

--Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Cline of Salt Lake City, Utah, have been visiting Mrs. Vern Batty this last week. Mrs. Cline is a sister of Mrs. Batty.

--Mr. and Mrs. Tom Huddleston were pleased to have their son, Mark and his wife Janice, of Portland as guests this weekend. Their son, Howard, was also here for the rodeo and activities.

--Mrs. Carl McDaniel took her daughter, Georgena, to Arlington to catch the bus back to her home this Monday. Carl McDaniel is not feeling too well because of an allergy.

--Mrs. Hazel Bauman's two sons, Jack and Carl, were here visiting the last of the week. Jack and his wife, Carol, were here from Portland, and Carl and two sons were here from Alaska.

--Scott Cason returned to his home in Irrigon Monday after spending part of the summer with his father, Jim Cason, in Hermiston, and with his grandmother, Mary Bryant, in Heppner.

--Mrs. Ida Lynn and Mrs. Mary Bryant received word recently of the death of their cousin, Arleta, of Vancouver, Washington. Arleta and her husband, Basil, raised thoroughbred horses and were well known in the Vancouver area.

--Out of town guests for rodeo weekend at the home of Dorothy and Wilbur Jackson were their son, Gary and Fred and Darlene Davis, all of Gresham.

--Gene and Maxine Reitmann of Newberg were overnight visitors Tuesday, Aug. 12. Accompanying them were Chris Reitmann and his girlfriend, Bonnie Harper. Bonnie teaches school in Frederick, Virginia, and since Chris's discharge from the service he works at Holly Hill Country Club in Virginia.

--Rick and Anita Peterson spent the weekend of August 9 at Waldport where they met Anita's sisters and family for a reunion, and did some crabbing. On Monday they drove to Drain to visit Anita's father Joe Hollamon who is quite ill, and was unable to join them at Waldport. They returned home on Tuesday.

--Mike, Edith and Deniece Matthews went to Roseburg a week ago to attend the Matthews family reunion. Their granddaughter Keely Thornton came home with them to visit, and will return home Monday, Aug. 18 and grandson Mike will come and stay until after Labor Day.

--Kristin George returned to her home in Beaverton after visiting her grandmother, Helen Crawford, and Annetta Padberg in Lexington. Her father came up and drove her home.

--Ashley and Cathy McCabe and family have moved to the family home on the ranch, which was recently vacated when Alvin McCabe and family moved to Arizona.

--Visiting at the home of Ruth McCabe last week were Chris Eldridge and children, Mike, Diana, Bryan, and Kevin from Freepport, N.Y., and Doris Berry and Lisa from Hermiston. Weekend visitors were Elizabeth McKinney from Everson, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pettyjohn and A.J. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stubenrauch, Jeremy and Mandy of Boardman.

--Dennis Stefani of Hollywood, California is visiting this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Stefani Jr.

--Tom Hamlett and Laura Johnson of Portland were weekend visitors at the home of his parents, Adon and Eva Hamlett.

--Bob and Helen Drake of The Dalles, spent Sunday at the home of his mother Mrs. Gladys Drake.

--Katherine Lindstrom, and Steve Lindstrom of Portland, and Donna and Roland Bergstrom attended the Memorial Service for Beulah Lundell in Portland, last Friday.

--Sam Byrne left last Wednesday for Helena, Montana, to attend the 40th reunion of his army unit-The First Special Service Force. The First is a special unit of Canadians, English and American soldiers at Fort Wm. Henry Harrison in Helena. They trained as para-troopers, ski patrol, and night patrol tactics and specifically as commandos, to confuse the enemy, he says. They fought from Anzio into Germany. On night patrol with their faces blackened with cork, they aroused such panic in the Nazi lines, they were known as "The Black Devils," Byrne recalled.

Bulb sale planned

The Lexington Garden Bugs met for a regular meeting at the home of Marie Stegalls. Those present were Lois Allyn, Dorothy Burcham, Delta Huber, Annetta Padberg, Kathy and Phillip Telechea, Leita Messenger, Delpha Jones, and the hostess.

Members decided to sell cookies and punch during the Harvest Day Celebration August 29. Fresh produce will also be for sale.

It was reported the park had been sprayed for weeds and that it is looking real nice.

Members planned a fall bulb sale which promises to be the biggest and best yet.

Door prize was won by Leita Messenger. Club meets at Eula Bloodsworth's in September. The topic till be wild berries.

Oops

Gardner's Men's Wear was inadvertently omitted from a list of Morrow County Rodeo sponsors in the story in last week's paper.
