

Community Calendar

Congressman Smith to visit Friday

Congressman Bob Smith will visit Heppner on Friday, September 5. He will keep the following schedule: 10:30 a.m. - Coffee at Heppner Bowl; 11:30 a.m. - Visit to Court house, dam, hotel, etc.; 12 noon - lunch at Heppner Elks Club followed by question and answer time; 1:30-3:30 p.m. visit main street businesses; 3:30 p.m. - tour of Kinzua lumber mill; 5:30 p.m. - dinner at Louis Carlson Ranch.

Contact Merlin or Claudia Hughes for further information.

Church women invited to hear speaker

St. Patrick's and St. William's Altar Societies are sponsoring a Fall Salad Supper, to be held in the Catholic Parish Hall in Heppner, Monday evening, September 29, 1986, at 6 p.m.

All ladies of Heppner-Lexington-Ione and surrounding communities are cordially invited for an evening of sharing food, fellowship and a special guest, Ms. Anne Dunn, MA

(S. SCR.)

Ms. Dunn comes to us from Portland and has participated extensively in the state-wide religious De Sales program and has been received with overwhelming enthusiasm by all who have had the opportunity to hear her speak.

It is an evening you won't want to miss. Everyone is welcome, and there is no charge.

Flower demonstration set Sept. 11

Everyone interested in exhibiting flowers or flower arrangements at the Morrow County Fair is invited to a "how-to" demonstration at Lexington School board room at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 11. We'll start with tips on exhibiting flowers to look their best. Delta Huber will demonstrate and explain "when a bouquet becomes a flower arrangement."

Those attending are welcome to bring flowers and containers and will help make arrangements.

Kathy Tellechea and Lois Allyn will assist Mrs. Huber. The demonstration is sponsored by the Lexington Garden Bugs.

Those unable to attend in the morning, call Mrs. Allyn, 989-8419, if you would be interested in having a second demonstration that evening.

Garden clubs plan special meeting

By Justine Weatherford
Members of the Heppner Garden Club met at the home of Secretary Martha Doherty on Monday evening, September 1. President Jane Rawlins reviewed the June convention of the Oregon State Federation. All standing committees reported; members signed up for work with committees during the coming 12 months. Special plans are being made for ways to memorialize recent member Jerry Doherty.

A horticultural report was given on the planting and cultivation of Hosta. All Heppner members were urged to join Garden Club members from Lexington and Ione at a special meeting at 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, Sept. 11, in the conference room of the School Administration Building. Lois Allyn, chairman of this year's Fair Flower Show has called this meeting to review the activities at the fair and to plan for the 1987 flower show.

Retired educators plan meeting

Oregon Retired Educator's Association, Unit No. 9, will meet September 6, 1986 at the Sizzler Family Steak House in Pendleton. The business meeting starts at 11 a.m. with Marjorie Hahn presiding. New members will be welcomed.

Robert Van Houte, President of United Seniors, will be the speaker on legislative activities and other business of the United Seniors of Oregon.

Wallace McCrae will be in charge of the program and music. Carolyn Crayne is hostess chairman.

Seed treating seminar planned

A seed treating seminar will be held Wednesday, September 9, 7:30 p.m. at Willow Grange Hall, Ione. Sponsored by Morrow County

Coffee and donuts will be served.

Lutheran worship schedules change

On Sunday, September 7, worship services at Hope and Valby Lutheran Churches return to the regular time. Valby worship at 9 a.m. and Hope at 11 a.m.

At a joint meeting of the two church councils on September 10 there will be a discussion of worship times for the coming year and a schedule will be set.

Methodists plan 'Homecoming Sunday'

The Heppner United Methodist Church will have a "Homecoming Sunday" this Sunday, September 7. The day will begin with the annual Church School Pancake Breakfast at 9 a.m. in the church basement. This will also be the first day of Church School and children will meet in their new classes at 10 a.m. for a brief time.

The regular worship service will begin at 10:30 a.m. and everyone is encouraged to come to our "Homecoming Sunday" worship service with special guest preacher, the Reverend Joe Walker, said the Reverend Don Boyce. Rev. Walker is the District Superintendent for the Central District of the Oregon-Idaho Conference of the United Methodist Church. His topic will be: "A Star and a Song - all mine."

The pastor and the congregation of Heppner United Methodist Church invites all persons to be a part of this exciting "Homecoming Sunday" on Sunday, Sept. 7th.

IUCC begins fall schedule

The Ione United Church of Christ begins its fall schedule on Sunday, Sept. 7, with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. and worship at 11 a.m.

Christian Education classes begin that day with opportunities for children age two through junior high, as well as an adult Bible study. A full range of teachers are preparing for the new season. The year's teachers will receive the blessing and support of the congregation in an installation ceremony in the worship service.

The Sunday School children are invited to attend worship with their families. Rev. Cathy Barker will give a special children's message. Two baptisms will also be included in the service.

Child care is provided at the Education Building during the worship hour every Sunday beginning September 7.

Heppner Elementary plans open house

Heppner Elementary School will hold an Open House Wednesday, Sept. 3 from 7-8 p.m. Parents are inited to come meet their children's teachers and find out where their classroom is located.

Soroptimist rummage sale planned

A Soroptimist rummage sale is planned for Saturday, September 20.

Those wishing to donate items for the sale may call Marianne Kahl, 676-9113.

Hear 'n Their

By Eva Hamlett 422-7557

A baby shower was given Saturday afternoon, August 23 at the Ione Legion Hall for Teresa King and daughter Patricia Jean. Helping Teresa at the gift table were her sisters, Tanya Tiggs from Palouse, Washington and Tammie Williams from McNary. A white sheet cake decorated in pink centered the tea table. Assisting at the tea table were Mary, Jo Linda and Janey Cupps, and Charley Smith, granddaughter of Delpha Jones. Hostesses were Pat Osborne, Rhonda Powell, Linda Cupps, Marsha White, and Lorraine Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid traveled by train to Boise, Idaho recently to attend Mrs. Kincaid's College of Idaho, "Nifty Fifties" reunion of classes from 1950 to 1959. Maxine Rietmann of Newberg also joined the more than 400 C. of I. grads. The Kincaids were joined there by their daughter, Mary, who is attending graduate school at Boise State University.

Berl Akers Jr. and family left Tuesday, Aug. 26 after coming out from Pine Ridge, South Dakota for his parents' 50th Anniversary. While here they spent a few days in Portland, and a day at the State Fair in Salem. The last few days they have been at his parents home in Ione.

Berl Akers had minor surgery last Wednesday at The Dalles Medical Center. He came home on Thursday and is recovering nicely.

John and Faith Jordan spent the weekend at LaPine, the occasion being a reunion of John's family.

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith and son Ken Jr. of Los Angeles, California spent the weekend with her father and wife Charles and Joyce Buchanan. Mrs. Smith is the former Kathryn Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Klinger of Battle Ground, Washington have been recent callers last week at the home of his mother Dorothy Burcham.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Papineau are vacationing in Washington with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones were recent callers at the home of Dewie and Carolyn Lovelace in Ontario. They all motored to the mountain home of the Lovelaces in northern Idaho. They visited the ghost town of Warren, Idaho, a former gold mining center and at Burgsdorff. Enroute they visited with Vic and Judy Groshens at their new location in Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hudson of LaGrande spent the weekend at the Jones home.

Jean Nelson has returned home from a visit with her daughter Kristin in Salem. While there, she attended the state fair.

Ed Murty is a patient in Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

There will be a potluck dinner at the Lexington Baptist Church on Sunday as a farewell for Rev. Ernie Williams who has been servicing the church during the summer months. He makes his home in The Dalles.

Nicole Jones from Pendleton spent the weekend with her grandparents Joe and Hilda Yocum, while her parents attended a softball tournament in Idaho.

Ione couple celebrates 50th

By Eva Hamlett

One hundred sixty-four people signed the guest book at the 50th Anniversary celebration for Berl and Margaret Akers on August 17 at the Willow's Grange Hall. A buffet luncheon was served in the entrance hall, and guests sat down to decorated tables in the dining room. Margaret and Berl were introduced by their children, after which Margaret introduced visiting guests from out of this area. A sheet cake decorated in a 50 year motif was served following the buffet. Cutting the cake were Edith Matthews, Bertha Heald, Bonnie Linnell and Janice Akers. Pouring punch were Hazel Miller and Lynn Akers. Serving coffee and tea were Irene Homolka, and Nancy Akers. A money tree was presented to Margaret and Berl Akers by Dot Halvorsen. Later in the afternoon their grandchildren released 50 golden balloons outside the hall.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Morton Wolverton, master of the Oregon State Grange, from Portland; Irene Homolka, Oregon State Grange C.W.A. Director, from Springfield; Martha Griffiths, from Philomath; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy from Prineville; Bertha Akers Heald, Scottsdale, Arizona; Bob, Lin, and Jennifer Heald, from Sacramento, California; Patricia Michael and Greg Heald, from Edwards Air Force Base, California; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Eakin and family, Grass Valley;

Kenneth and Doris Palmateer, and John and Linda Rhodes from Estacada; Francis and Florence Ely, Salem; Fayne Ely, Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brashears, Lyle, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thorton, Mike and Keely from Salem; Frank and Bernadine Ball from Adams; Anita Kongsle from Kennewick-Washington; Mrs. Alice Jones, Condon; Mrs. Leslie Walborn, Arlington; Hazel Miller, Jerry, Karen and Dan Peck, Harold and Mildred Baker, Blair and Karen Purcell, Ron and Glaya Baker, Chris Baker, Delbert and Betty Ball, all from Boardman; Kenneth and Mattie Akers, Irrigon; Mr. and Mrs. Joe

Dupuis, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howton, Joyce and Joe Lemman, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Reid, Mr. Franklin Ely, Denise Matthews, David and Irla Ely, Delmer and Francine Crawford and Marlene Bush, all from Hermiston, Herman and Mary Blettell, Harlan, Donna and Della McCurdy, Evelyn Warren, Doris Ball and Mildred Wright from Heppner; and the hosts and hostesses Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers, Jr., Rhonda, Robbin, Mike, Ramona and daughter Felicia Akers from Pine Ridge, South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Akers, Jeffery and Julia, from Gresham; Mr. and Mrs. William Akers and Sean and Joshua from Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Linnell, Rod-D, Brenda and Phoebe, from The Dalles.

"Back to Church" month begins

All Saints' Episcopal Parish begins its "Back to Church" month this Sunday, Sept. 7, with a breakfast to be held at Happy and Claude Graham's. The meal begins at 9 a.m. with an outdoor worship service to follow. The service is open to all who wish to attend. Special Music will be part of the worship service.

Fall schedule of services follow: beginning September 14-Holy Communion at 8 a.m. Sundays Christian Education Hour 9:30 a.m. and Holy Communion and Family Service at 10:30 a.m. Mondays alcohol and drug problems discussion will be at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays, a Holy Communion and Healing Service will be at 10:30 a.m. A special ministry to teens with alcohol and or drug problems will begin September 14. Contact the Rev. Izette for more information.

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant, 676-9493

Ruth Locust Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star will hold their first fall meeting, Monday, September 8, at Heppner Masonic Hall. It is expected that several visitations from other chapters will be made. New officers selected for the 1986-87 year are Carmelita Halvorsen, Worthy Matron; Lewis Halvorsen, Worthy Patron; Katherine Lindstrom, Associate Matron; John Wood, Associate Patron; Louise Wood, Secretary; Claude Graham, Treasurer; Beth Bryant, Conductress; Lota Tibbles, Associate Conductress; Kenneth Smouse, Chaplain; Marilyn Childers, Marshal; Juanita Carmichael, Organist; Virginia Wilkinson, Adah; Dorothy Jackson, Ruth; Patricia Hyatt, Esther; Winifred Cox, Martha; Anna Graham, Electa; Wilbur Jackson, Warder; and Roy Lindstrom, Sentinel.

An enjoyable open installation ceremony was held June 30 and conducted by Florence Yeager, Installing Grand Matron, and Walter Yeager, Installing Grand Patron; from Condon. Also helping were Margaret Elliott, Installing Grand Marshal from Hermiston; Ruby Becket, Installing Grand Chaplain; Florence Gaasbeck, Installing Grand Organist; from Arlington.

Ken Elliott from Hermiston delightfully entertained with a number of songs during and after the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Merna Toll is back home after spending three days at Spray with her daughter and son-in-law, Joann and Don Griffith. While there she helped her daughter prepare corn for the freezer. On Tuesday she reported the temperature read 106 degrees. Mrs. Toll visited with friends also while at Spray.

Bob and Babe Harris spent ten days camping on the North Fork of the John Day River recently. They were accompanied by their son and daughter-in-law, Greg and Cindy Harris and their children, Jason and Gretchen from Siletz. Mike and Sherry Vejraska and their two children, Amber and Mike, Jr. visited them while they were camped.

Mrs. Ruby Becket met her daughter, Sharon Burkenbine, last Tuesday at the airport in Portland. The plane was over 10 hours late and many anxious moments were spent until she arrived safely.

Mrs. Bebe Munkers, her sister, Mrs. Blanche Simms from Arlington, and Mrs. Verna Brinda will leave Wednesday for Dryden, Washington, near Wenatchee, where they will stay with Mrs. Velma Wilkins, another sister of Mrs. Munkers, and take in the county fair.

Bill Brinda, son of Mrs. Verna Brinda, will be making his home with his mother shortly. He attended high school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Connor and children, Mary and Levi, returned this weekend from a vacation trip which took them first to Fairfield, California, where they visited Darlene and Ernie Drake. Darlene is Nelson's sister and they saw the Drake's daughter, Becky and her two children, and their youngest son, Scott. They drove on to Los Angeles, went to Magic Mountain and after that closed, spent two days at Disneyland. They spent a day at Knott's Berry Farm and then worked their way up the coast on Highway 101. They stopped at the various places of interest and enjoyed the redwoods. On Monday they attended the Oregon State Fair and enjoyed Johnnie Cash and the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. Tuesday they went on to Beaverton to the home of Colleen Williams, Nelson's sister. After two enjoyable days with Mrs. Williams, they started home and spent one night in one of the camping areas by the freeway. On to Hermiston where they visited Lois' folks and two of her sisters before coming on home that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McDaniel are enjoying the company of their daughter and her husband, Carolyn and John Faidley. The couple flew to Portland and then drove up to Heppner. The trip was uneventful except for the loss of their luggage. After the luggage was found, it finally was sent to Pendleton, and on to Heppner in a taxi, of all things. The airline just couldn't believe every little town wasn't served by Greyhound. The McDaniels and the Faidleys are planning a trip throughout Oregon to acquaint John with our beautiful state.

Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Mrs. Ida Lynn, and Mrs. Lee Palmer of Ione were business visitors in Pendleton Friday.

PUBLIC NOTICE

OREGON CIRCUIT FOR MORROW COUNTY
Probate Department

No. 86-PR-14

NOTICE

In the Matter of the Estate of ROBERT DENNIS CAMPBELL, deceased.

1

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed and has qualified as the personal representative of said estate. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same, with proper vouchers, within 4 months after the date of first publication of this Notice, as stated below, to the personal representative at the offices of Kuhn and Spicer, 269A N. Main Street, P.O. Box 428, Heppner, Oregon 97836, phone (503) 676-9141 or they may be barred.

2

All persons whose rights may be affected by the proceedings in this estate may obtain additional information from the records of the Court, the personal representatives or the attorney for the personal representatives.

Dated and first published September 3, 1986.

(s) Sandra Adams

7634 S.W. 50th

Portland, OR

Personal Representative

Published September 3, 10, 17, 1986

Farmers

Get Your Seed Treating Material Now!

For Smut in Wheat & Barley

Terracoat LT2 Vitavax 25DB

Granox N-M (Maneb-HCB) Dust

Vitavax 200 (Flowable)

For Wireworm in Wheat & Barley

Lindane 75W Drinox 34HC

Available at:

Pettyjohn Oil and Chemical Co.

Ione, Oregon

422-7511

Seed Treating SEMINAR

by Gustafson Company

Tuesday, September 9
At Willows Grange Hall in Ione
at 7:30 p.m.
Coffee & Doughnuts

Sponsored by:

Morrow County Grain Growers — Dobyns Pest Control — Pettyjohn Oil Co.

ATTENTION GROWERS:

Call CARGILL, INC. for all your grain marketing needs.

We Offer:

- Grain bids delivered Arlington, Oregon
- Grain bids F.O.B. your farm
- Grain storage available/call for rates & details
- Quick and reliable payments
- Competitive prices & other marketing alternatives
- Timely marketing information

Cash on the Spot for Generic Certificates

Call 1-503-454-2751

