Bahnmler-Stack

Christ Lutheran Church in Big Sandy, Montana was the scene of a summer wedding July 5 at 4 p.m., when Mechelle Renee Stack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stack, was married to Steven Lee Bahnmler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bahnmler, all of Big Sandy.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father and guest of honor, her uncle, Donald Stack of Long Beach, Calif. She wore a gown made of white Charmeuse which had an off-the-shoulder bodice accented with beaded Silk Venice, a basque waistline, and a semi-cathedral train detailed with matching Venice and trim. Her bouquet was of white roses and carnations, with baby's breath and white ribbon streamers. She wore her mother's two-tiered illusion veil, which was gathered to a half-hat of organza hand-rolled flowers with pearl-stem centers and satin leaves, and a royal blue garter, a gift from her sister. The string of seed pearls at her neck was borrowed from her grandmother, who had worn them at the weddings of both her daughters.

Following a honeymoon trip, the couple are now at home in the Kenilworth area, where the groom is farming in partnership with his father and the bride will be finishing an associate degree in ag-business this fall at Northern Montana College in Havre. Both are graduates of Big Sandy High School.

Ekstrom — Graham

Helen Fay Graham and John Arthur Ekstrom were married at an August 9 ceremony at the Hope Lutheran Church yard.

The bride's parents are Richard and Rosie Graham of Heppner. The bridegroom's parents are Herb and Nancy Ekstrom of Lone.

The Rev. Rick Evenson officiated at the morning ceremony. Geneva Matthews played the guitar. Jane Rawlins decorated the church yard.

The bride wore her sister's wedding gown.

Matron of honor was Mary Dunning, Kameohe, Hawaii, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Brenda Ekstrom, sister-in-law of the bridegroom from LaGrande, Cindy Greenup, Lone, sister of the bridegroom and Jan Gridley, Redmond, sister of the bridegroom.

Flower girl was Heide Turrell, a cousin of the bridegroom. Ring bearer was Tony Greenup, a nephew of the bridegroom.

Best man was Herb Ekstrom, III, brother of the bridegroom from LaGrande. Groomsman were Bill Greenup, Lone, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Bob Gridley, Redmond, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and Benny Sanchez, a close friend of the bridegroom, from Lone.

A reception at the Heppner Elks Temple followed the ceremony. Derinda Jackson, Portland, and Rene Gutierrez, Hermiston, cut and served cake. Carol Norris served coffee. Punch servers were Jean Ball, Heppner, and Nona Standerfer an aunt of the bride from Pendleton.

The guest book was attended by Vickie Turrell, Heppner, a cousin of the bridegroom. Others assisting were Lil Boyce, Rita Hedman, Harriet Hall, and Diana Ball.

The bride graduated from Wheeler High School in Fossil and is employed as an activity aide at Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home in Heppner.

The bridegroom graduated from Lone High School and manages John's Mobil in Lone.

Following a wedding trip to Expo in Vancouver, British Columbia, the couple is at home in Lone.

Seniors attend dress-up parade

By Justine Weatherford

Eighteen South Morrow Senior Citizens and senior bus driver Dot Halvorsen went to Pendleton at 4 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 6 to see the annual pre-Round-Up Dress-Up parade.

Before the parade, the 19 people enjoyed their evening meal at the Kings Table restaurant. They all bought seats in the grandstand to watch the parade which reached that location soon after 8 p.m.

It was noted that the Morrow County Court won a first prize; that the Valby Church float, the Pioneer Memorial Hospital float and Darrell Vinson's antique car were recognized.
