

Heppner Happenings

By Mary Bryant, 676-9493

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Becket of Portland are guests of Mrs. Ruby Becket this week as well as her niece and husband, Linda and Mike Hightower of Prineville. They are helping her finish her packing and doing the necessary things prior to her move to South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Connor entertained at dinner Friday night in honor of their son, Levi's 12th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Connor of Heppner, paternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger, Jr. of Hermiston, maternal grandparents; and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger, Sr. of Lexington, great-grandparents; were present. On Saturday, the Connors attended the Messenger family reunion at Sorosis Park at The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Huddleston have just returned from a trip to Cascade Lake in central Idaho. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Arvin while there and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hagen, of Prineville. Mrs. Dean Connor, Penny Connor, Mrs. Lee Palmer, and Mrs. Lincoln Nash were in Pendleton on Saturday. They spent the afternoon window-shopping and shopping and attended the Dress-Up Parade that evening.

On August 25, Kathleen McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McConnell became the bride of Harold Adams of Nampa, Idaho. The wedding took place in the Lakeview Rose Garden in Nampa. A busload of senior citizens attended the dress-up parade in Pendleton Saturday night.

In checking with the family, Bob Harris is reportedly doing well, and was expected home Tuesday.

Mrs. Edith Musgrave was hostess for a birthday dinner recently at her home on Top Mountain near Monument in honor of Harold Stevens of Hardman. Also present were his wife, Helen; their son, Bob and his wife, Judy, of Hardman, and their children, JoJean Stevens and John and his wife, Marie, all of Pendleton; and Mrs. Verna Brinda, mother of Judy Stevens. The day was spent visiting.

Bob and Judy Stevens of Hardman, and her mother, Verna Brinda, of Heppner, left for Utah this morning to move Bill Brinda, son of Verna, to Heppner, where he will make his home with his mother.

Mrs. Sara Adkins was visited recently by her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crismon, of Pendleton. Also her nephew, Lloyd Canoy, youngest son of her oldest brother, and his wife, Alberta, from Seattle. He has two grown daughters, one, Laura Canoy, is a professional volleyball player. The other daughter is married and has two children.

I would appreciate hearing from parents of college-bound young people. It is my understanding that Jack Estberg will be attending school at LaGrande, Michael Bergstrom, Jim Cason, Dennis Warren, and Penny Connor will be at Blue Mountain.

Community Calendar

First Christian begins Fall programs

The new fall quarter has begun at the Heppner First Christian Church with new programs for all ages. The Sunday School begins at 9:45 a.m. with classes for every age from 2 years through adults. Morning worship is 11 a.m., and evening services at 7 p.m., each Sunday.

A very special day for the Sunday School is coming September 21. It has been designated "Rainbow Sunday". The focus of the day will be on God's promises in the rainbow. Prizes will be awarded for memory work and the most brightly dressed person. The morning message at 11 a.m. will center on the theme of God's promise.

Sunday evening services at 7 p.m. will focus on the subject of cults. "We will be discovering who they are and examining many in detail," said the Rev. Don Shelton. We encourage everyone interested to join us for this important and timely study.

A Wednesday evening Bible Study and prayer meeting at the church will start September 17 at 7:30 p.m.

The community is invited to join any and all services at the church. For further information, please call 676-9209.

Methodists plan special service, potluck

The Heppner United Methodist Church will have a special potluck dinner following the worship service this Sunday, September 14. All are invited to attend worship and the potluck dinner. Following the potluck dinner there will be a planning session for the coming church year and for the annual Church Conference to be held Sunday, November 9.

On Sunday, Sept. 14, a special part of the worship service will include a reading of the "Pastoral Letter" from the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church entitled, "In Defense of Creation: The Nuclear Crises and a Just Peace." Throughout the country, United Methodist congregations will hear this letter from the bishops read from the pulpit. A special six-week study of the Foundation Document will take place at the church this fall.

Everyone is invited to be a part of the happenings this Sunday at Heppner Methodist Church.

All Saints' begins early Sun. services

Early Communion Services on Sunday mornings will begin at 8:30 a.m. starting Sunday, Sept. 14 at All Saints Episcopal Church. Sunday school also begins this Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Children and teachers will gather in the church for songs and announcements. Family Service and Eucharist will be at the normal hour of 10:30 a.m.

The mid-week Bible Study begins this Wednesday at the parish hall at 7:30 p.m. A Singspiration will be held at the Seventh-day Adventist church Sunday evening, the community is invited.

A daily home Bible Study program will begin this month for members and other interested people. It is entitled "Discovery". This individual daily study is designed to help one meet God daily through thoughtful Bible reading and prayer.

Aglow fellowship meeting slated

Heppner Women's Aglow Fellowship will meet Tuesday, Sept. 16 at 7 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds annex field.

Aglow is a non-denominational Christian Women's organization.

The September speaker will be Jan Wheelhouse of Hermiston, who was born in Heppner and graduated from Heppner High School in 1959. In 1961 she married Jan Wheelhouse of Arlington; they have two children.

While in Heppner they led a church youth group for four years.

She has been active in Aglow since its beginning in Eastern Oregon. She has been on the Umatilla Executive Board as corresponding secretary and recording secretary. She is now corresponding secretary for the area board and she is acting president of area board.

All women and teenage girls are cordially invited for this time of fellowship.

Congregations evaluate singspiration

The Community Singspiration will be hosted by the Seventh-Day Adventist Church on Sunday, Sept. 14 at 7 p.m. The church is located at 560 N. Minor St. All residents of the area are cordially invited to come.

Community Singspirations are sponsored by the South Morrow County Ministerial Association. The various congregations in the area serve as hosts. The organization is evaluating this activity to determine if it should be continued. It would be helpful for members to let their pastor know their feelings concerning this matter.

Booth set up to explain United Way

An informational booth to explain the benefits of United Way in Morrow County, will be set up in Heppner next to the post office from 12 noon to 2 p.m. on Thursday, September 18.

Dave Hampton, campaign chairman for South Morrow County, says the booth will not be used to accept donations to United Way, but will instead be used to give information about what United Way is, what it does, and how it benefits those in Morrow County.

Hampton says people from agencies that United Way helps, will be there to talk about those benefits.

A campaign to collect money for United Way will begin later, he said.

Lexington News

By Delpha Jones

Cecil Jones, as a member of the Morrow County Planning Commission recently attended the dedication of Boeing's Boardman Test Range facility. This was to acknowledge the recent authorization to proceed with expanded aerospace research, development and testing facilities. This project will cost about $15 million dollars and it is hoped will generate employment growth. Senator Bob Packwood was the special guest for the day. Transportation was provided for those interested in viewing the site.

Rev. Glenn Anderson, wife Phyllis and children have moved to Lexington where they will minister to the Lexington Baptist Church. They are living on Main Street in the former house of Mary Doherty next to Del's Market. There will be a potluck dinner on Sunday to welcome the family. A potluck dinner was enjoyed this past Sunday honoring Rev. Ernie Williams, of The Dalles who has been filling in this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Miller from Hermiston visited friends and relatives in Heppner and Lexington on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan were Walla Walla visitors a couple of days last week.

Ed Murty is home after a stay in Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Donna Dougherty has returned to her home in The Dalles after a couple of weeks visit with her mother Barbara Cutsforth. While vacationing they all visited the Worlds' Fair and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Papineau have returned from a week's vacation which took them to Tacoma, Washington, to visit relatives and to Packwood, Washington, where they visited Earl Miller who is employed near there.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Orwick have returned from a trip to the World's Fair and report an interesting time.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met for the first regular meeting of the fall with the N.G. Kathy Tellechea in the chair. Plans were made for the quarterly birthday party and potluck dinner for the Oddfellows and Rebekahs and families. The fall and winter activities will soon be underway and members are busy planning these. Refreshments were served by Ruth Robinson and Donna Papineau.

Visitors this week at the home of Annetta and Bill Padberg were her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barnett from the San Francisco, California Bay Area. Cal and Bill's son Mike Padberg and children.

Lexington Grange will meet on Monday evening Sept. 15 at 6:30 p.m. for a potluck dinner and program.
